OREGON ELECTRIC CAR ENTERING HILLSBORO.

CROWD LISTENING TO THE ADDRESSES.

WILL BEGIN TODAY

City Inspection of Schools to Be Inaugurated. City inspection of public schools will begin today, the Board of Health having elected Dr. S. M. Gellert to the position of inspector.

TWO OFFICERS ARE NAMED

Board of Health Elects Dr. S. M. Gellert and Mrs. Rachel D. Shatto to Positions of Inspector and Nurse. The Council allowed salaries for two school inspectors, and the name of Dr. L. E. Story was submitted with that of Dr. Gellert, but none of the members of the Board is personally acquainted with Dr. Story and wished to defer action until a later date.

FALSE ASSETS CHARGED

Mayor of Prescott in Jail for Wild-cat Banking. WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—Charged jointly with falsifying to the State Bank Examiner the assets of the First State Bank of Prescott, E. R. Sweet, ex-cashier of the institution and Mayor of Prescott; and P. T. Harris, a real estate man of that city, are lodged in separate cells in the county jail awaiting a hearing in the Superior Court. Sweet was arrested last Friday, but Harris was not taken until late last night as the necessary proof against him was lacking until action to the Prescott bank will aggregate in the neighborhood of $10,000, although it may exceed that amount.

THINK HE USED KNIFE

Thomas Said Not to Have Been Drunk at Time of Murder. BELLINGHAM, Wash., Oct. 1.—It is now the theory of the local police that J. K. Thomas, who confessed to the murder of his wife on July 19 last, did not shoot her as he was but used instead a knife blade made from an old file and ten inches long. The prisoner was again "sweated" today at the county jail, but stuck to his original statements regarding the murder, which he claims was done in self-defense. However, the police have failed to find any trace of the bullet marks on the corpse or in the rooms where the crime was committed, and state they also have evidence to prove that the man was not drunk when he committed the crime. These and other facts in their possession, they hope, will convict the man of first degree murder.

CHOSEN INSPECTOR AND NURSE OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Dr. S. M. Gellert.

Next Move.

Discovering that the people object to being attacked and having their property destroyed, the Labor Trust members should conclude their next step should be to elect members of the Legislature and Congress who will change the law and make new ones, so that the Labor Trust may safely carry on the work and not be punished. Hence the demand that they be exempt from the law and that the hands of our courts be tied so no injunction can be issued to prevent them from picketing, boycotting, slugging or blowing up property.

Who Shall Rule?

We have an Association now made up of citizens through which the rights of the common man can be asserted and defended to an extent, at least. Thus by organization the trust organizations can be met and checked. The common citizens who read the papers, vote and attend to the affairs of life are far and away in the majority over the members who will change labor or capital if they understand the hidden attacks made on their liberties they act and win.

Who Shall Rule?

But what would this trust do to the people if given unlimited power? The Labor Trust has supplied good paying positions for several hundred officials of the trust and has paid out a good many thousand dollars to sup-

Grand Jury Law May Release Many Criminals.

Behind a motion for the discharge of Lem Woon, the Chinese highbinder, which Judge Bronaugh denied, in the Circuit Court, yesterday afternoon, lies an important issue. It is the question of whether or not all the prisoners indicted by District Attorney Manning when he was in office, and who have not received their sentences shall obtain their liberty. After denying the motion to free the slayer of Lee Dal Hoy, the Oriental merchant who was shot one night as he was entering his dwelling, Judge Bronaugh stated that Lem will be sentenced to the gallows at 2 P. M. next Monday.

SEATTLE MAN TO SPEAK

Dr. W. H. W. Reese Will Lecture Before Epworth League. Dr. W. H. W. Reese, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Seattle, will deliver an address on "Winners, or How to make a Landing," tonight at the Taylor-street Methodist Church, the session being held quarterly by the Epworth League of Epworth League. Dr. Reese is especially well known as a speaker to young people, and the gathering will be noteworthy because of the fact that there will be large delegations of Epworthians from all of the city chapters, numbering 17. It is expected that the church will be filled, as persons in various parts of the city have been invited to the district cabinet and representatives of the Taylor-street chapter.

PIANOS FOR SALE.

We haven't a particle of fear in recommending our $224 piano. It is not any means a cheap piano; it is a good piano at a close price—$10 down and $8 a month—French-Franco Piano, Sixth and Burnside.

IF IT IS RETROACTIVE

Motion That Would Free Those Indicted by District Attorney Denied in Chinese Case, but Will Be Carried Up. The grand jury law passed by the electors last June retroactive? Does it require that all persons against whom the District Attorney filed indictments in the court when the Governor issued his proclamation June 23, making the constitutional amendment active, shall be taken before the Grand Jury, and the machinery of the law started in the case of each and every one of these cases, new or old. These were the questions that were put to Judge Bronaugh yesterday afternoon. He established a precedent by deciding that it was not the purpose of the amendment to require Grand Jury investigation of the cases in hand. It is probable that the defendants will appeal from his decision to the Supreme Court.
