ALBUQUERQUE N. M., Oct 1.—There was a renewal at this afternoon's session of the National Irrigation Congress of yesterday's discussion of the forestry service when W. C. Mr. Beaman has sharply criticized Mr. Barnes for writing magazine articles laudatory of Chief Forester Pinchot, while on the Government payroll. Mr. Barnes, who has been a prominent cattle-grower in New Mexico and Arizona for many years, vigorously asserted his right to give his views through the medium of public speaking or magazine writing.

Dwight B. Heard, of the Arizona Cattle-growers 'Association, defended the forestry policy, asserting that the cattle-growers of Arizona were satisfied with the condition of the Arizona forests.

William W. Wheeler, assistant scoretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor, delivered a short address as the personal representative of President Roosevelt.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 .- Standard Oil Com CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Standard Oil Com-pany altorners presented ovidence today before Judge Franklin Ferriss in support of the contention that the oil company has not been the recipient of preferential rates from railroads in different sections ger of the Standard Oil Company, was the first witness called to the stand, and will be the principal witness to be examined in Chicago.

The main contentions of the Government are that the Standard Oil Company was given rebates by railroad companies; that secret concessions were made to it; that preferential rates were established for its advantage, and that in addition in many cases the railroads so manipulated the open rates that the big oil company had a decided advantage over its competitors. On the last point the Government's contention is that high rates were made by railroads from points where independent companies had oil refineries in proximity to the Standard refineries in proximity to the Standard refineries in proximity to the Standard refineries, and that low rates were made from points where the big oil company had no competition. The defendant company seeks to prove by Mr. Felton and other witnesses that the allegations of preferential rates and favors are not true, and that the oil company has uniformly paid the same rates asked of other companies.

Evidence on other points in the suit has been taken in a number of cities, and the Government presented its direct evidence in the "preferential rate" and railroad phases of the case in Washington. The suit was begun last Fall, and all the testimony must be presented before January 1, 1909. The present hearing is expected to continue three weeks.

of W. H. Taft.

It was reported here today that the President had summoned Mr. Hitchcock for the purpose of sequesting from him an explanation of many criticisms which have recently come to the White House concerning the management of affairs both in New York and Chicago, but Sec-retary Loeb tonight denied the portions of the report which attributed Mr. Hitchoming to a special request from

There is, however, excellent authority for the statement that a number of complaints as to the management of the campaign have reached the executive mansion and the understanding is that, although he did not request the presence of the chairman of the National committee. Mr. Roosevelt will welcome the opportunity to talk with him and to obtain from him such explanation of these criticisms as he may be able to make.

Congressmen Want More Help.

The censure seems to point to the fact The censure seems to point to the fact that the National committee has this year falled to co-operate as completely and zealously with the Congressional committee as in past years, and it is understood that some of the criticisms have come from the Republican candidates for Congress, On the other hand, it has been explained to the President that the National chairman has been very bustly engaged in arransing the deverge of the control of the congression of the control of the contro very bustly engaged in arranging the de-tails of the National campaign and, has been inclined to give the major portion of his attention to that subject rather of his attention to that subject rainer than to the election of members of Con-gress, because he regarded that as his special work, while he was confident that the Congressional committee would be abundantly able to look after the in-terests of Congressional candidates with-out his particular assistance.

Reports of discourteous conduct at the Reports of discourteous conduct at the National committee headquarters toward Republicans of prominence have also reached the President, and probably while it is not his purpose to inquire into the details of the office management of committee affairs, he is so thoroughly impressed with the importance of absolute party harmony that he feels no matter can be too small for proper attention.

These and many other subjects will doubtless be taken up with Mr. Hitchcock, largely if not entirely for the purpose of obtaining from that gentleman an explanation of the situation from the chairman's standpoint. Naturally, too, the President desires information from first hand as to the progress of the cam-paign and that he, of course, gets from Mr. Hitchcock.
