In other words, this amount of capital, and more, will be brought into Oregon by the sale of raw material produced by its farms, ranges, forests, rivers and mines. This, too, in a year when the buying capacity of markets in other states and other countries is adversely affected by unusual business co When normal conditions are fully re-stored elsewhere, the output of Oregon will also have increased. Adding manufactures and miscellaneous products exported, the grand total is more than $100,000,000.

In the list given below are enumerated only the leading products that will be shipped out of the state. Aside from lumber, cereal mill products and a few other articles that might also be classed as manufactures, the list is made up entirely of raw materials.

Expects Majority of Both Electoral and Popular Vote.

FAIRVIEW, Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 2.-W. J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for President, stated today that a dispatch received by him from the party workers indicated increasing Democratic sentiment throughout the United States.

"Every report made to me," he said, "indicates that not only is the trend among the voters toward Democracy this year, but the sentiment for our candidates and our party is increasing. My advices are that not only will our candidates for President and Vice-Presi-dent have a large majority of the popu-lar vote, but we will also have the ma-

"PIG IRON KELLEY" DEAD

Notorious Puget Sound Smuggler Dies of Heart Disease.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Oct. 2-Special.) Death by heart disease today of James Kelley removed one of the most picturesque characters of the Northwest. In years gone by, "Pig-Iron Kelley" made life a burden to customs officers by his persistent and brazen sminggling of oplum and contraband Chinese.

When the profits in this business ceased. Kelley became a waterfront pirate, in which capacity he terrorized very small settlement on Puget Sound. Kelley was not the man's real name, and t is declared revelation of his real identity would cause a great sensation in the Province of New Brunswick, where his family is fich and prominent in government affairs.
