Women's Smart Suits

Vals. to $50 at $29.85

For today's sale, Lipman, Wolfe & Co. offer a suit sale that will excel any values offered this season by this or any other Portland store. We are willing to sacrifice the larger portion of our profits to do today as much business as we would do in two ordinary business days. There are about 100 suits in 10 distinct styles, made of broadcloths, fancy serges and chevrons, in the best styles of the season. In the ultra-fashionable colors of catawba, wistaria, navy, black, brown, taupe, smoke, garnet and blonde. All are long-coat styles, trimmed variously with braid and buttons. All have taffeta silk or peau de cygne linings. Highest-grade suits in material, color and style $29.85

Black Taffeta Silk Petticoats

Best $7.50 Values at $3.95

TWO KILLED BY CAVE-IN

Fatal Accident to Naval Prisoners at Puget Sound Yard.

NAVY YARD, Puget Sound, Wash., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Two men were killed instantly, a third fatally and a fourth seriously injured as the result of a cave-in here today, where 12 naval prisoners were digging away a hill on the site for the new drydock. The dead and injured were serving general court-martial sentences and were stationed on the yard prison ship Nigiste.

The dead: G. F. Morgan, apprentice seaman, and C. A. Burnett, ordinary seaman. C. C. O'Neill, cooper, had three ribs broken and received internal injuries that may prove fatal, and F. S. Wilson, a private in the Infantry Corps, had an ankle sprained by being struck by falling earth.

The accident happened about 11:30 this morning. A court of inquiry was called this afternoon. Morgan was serving sentence for desertion. His parents live at Sacramento. Burnett was serving a nine-months sentence for fraudulent enlistment and gave his home as Oklahoma City. O'Neill was serving a six months' sentence for absence from duty without leave.

ATTEMPT TO BURN SHACKS

FIREBUG THROWS TORCH INTO ROW OF ABANDONED CRIBS.

Bystanders Stamp Out Blaze That Threatened Row of Buildings on Fourth Street.

What was every appearance of being an attempt to destroy the row of wooden shacks on the east side of North Fourth street, between Davis and Everett, which until yesterday had been the resorts of the most degraded of the denizens of the North End, was made last night about 7 o'clock. At this hour some unknown person threw an old coat and some rags, which had been saturated with oil, through the half open window of No. 79 North Fourth street, and ignited the pile with a match. Having started the blaze the unknown ran away.

SHOT BY CARELESS HUNTER

Hillsboro Farmer Receives Full Charge of Birdshot in Back.

HILLSBORO, Or., Oct. 6.—(Special.)—The first serious hunting accident of the season took place here today at noon while Ray Taylor, just returned from a shooting trip after pheasants, was pumping the shells out of a shotgun. Taylor was standing in a crypt of the Hotel Tualatin discharging his cartridges, when one exploded, the charge passing 70 feet across the street and striking two bystanders.

FALLS TO DEATH ON STAGE

Freight Goes Into Ditch.

CASTLE ROCK, Wash., Oct. 6.—Owing to the spreading of a rail, freight No. 88, or at least a portion of it, was piled up in a ditch at Tillamook Sliding, several miles south of here, at an early hour this morning. As a consequence passenger No. 1, bound for Portland, was held here until 9:30, at which ## time it proceeded slowly on its way, following the tacking train, which reached here from Tacoma shortly after 9. No one was hurt.
