FLOUR IS UP TODAY

Patents Will Be Advanced 10 Cents a Barrel.

FOLLOWS RISE IN WHEAT

Bluestem Scarce and in Strong Demand at Higher Prices—Eastern Concord Grapes Are Coming. Potatoes Very Dull.

By the new local flour price list which will go into effect this morning patent flour will be advanced 10 cents per barrel to $4.80. There will be no change in the other grades.

For some time past flour values in this market have been too low in view of the high price of bluestem wheat, and yesterday's advance was for the purpose of equalizing values. At the new quotation the market is decidedly strong and there is every indication of still further advances in the near future. The fact that club and the red wheats are weaker than they have been is without effect in this regard, as bluestem is very scarce and held at high figures. Exporters yesterday quoted bluestem at 93@94 cents and offers of 95 cents have been made.

Grain futures were steady at the Board of Trade with no material changes in prices from those of the preceding day. Two thousand sacks of spot barley sold at $27 a ton.

Among the visitors on the floor were C. B. Buchanan, of Cornelius, and W. W. Raymond, of Walla Walla.

The range of futures was as follows (f. o. b. warehouse, Portland):

POTATO TRADE UNSATISFACTORY.

Sellers' Prices Above Buyers' Views and Crop Not Ready for Market.

The potato market is dull, weak and unsatisfactory to all concerned at the present moment. Farmers are still asking around $1, but shippers claim there is no profit in potatoes even at 85 cents for the California market. Arizona and Texas points cannot be reached at all by the Oregon trade, as California stock is going into that territory on a 65-cent basis. The local market, according to the trade here, is entirely out of range with consuming markets and prices may have to be materially lowered before much business results; in other words, it is asserted that the farmers must come down in their views or wait until January to sell.

Another thing that operates against trade at this time is the immature condition of the crop as shown by some of the lots recently put on the market.

EASTERN TRADE DOESN'T WANT HOPS

But This Does Not Prevent Oregon Dealers From Buying What They Can.

There was less activity in the hop market yesterday than earlier in the week. Choice hops continue very firm, but the poorer grades are entirely neglected. The demand from the East shows no improvement and the dealers are receiving most discouraging letters from the Eastern trade. In spite of this, however, the crop has been steadily passing out of first hands and when the Eastern and foreign orders come in they will be filled with stocks held by dealers, not by growers.

Among the business reported yesterday was the purchase by McNeff Brothers of about 150 bales at Aurora and Butteville, comprising the Schmidt, Ohlen and Meschler lots, all at 7 cents.

Hop shipments from Oregon in September were 2542 bales. In September last year the shipments were 2917 bales.

CAR OF EASTERN CONCORDS COMING

Trial Shipment of Oregon Apples Going to Shanghai.

Local Concord grapes are coming in freely and are gradually weakening in price. A car of Eastern Concord grapes will be received here within ten days. Advices from the East that the crop is unusually fine, as there has been just the right kind of weather this year for the grapes. California grapes were in good supply and were weak, especially Muscats.

A good many peaches were offered, but they moved slowly. Apples and pears were steady.

A trial shipment of 200 boxes of Hood River apples of the Hyde's King variety is being made to Shanghai for the purpose of opening up a market there for Oregon fruit.

EGGS ARE ONE CENT HIGHER.

Market Touches 34 Cents—Poultry Trade Is Dull.

The egg market steadily advances, the price touching 34 cents yesterday. Receipts are light and not likely to increase soon, and as the demand is growing it is probable there will be a 37½-cents market before very long.

Poultry continues dull with 12 cents the limit on chickens.

The advance in the Eastern cheese market is having the effect of strengthening the feeling in the local market. Butter is quoted strong at last prices.

DISPOSE OF STOCKS

Thousands of Shares Sold by European Holders.

WALL STREET IS NERVOUS

Tone Improves After the Close of Foreign Exchanges — Upward Movement Started in Morgan Securities.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The political complications which have arisen in the Balkan Peninsula threw a shadow of depression over the securities markets today, directly those of Europe, while our own market came within its scope by sympathy. The influence was contested here with varying success, but the modifying effect of the European situation on the efforts to support prices was very obvious.

Discussion on the stock exchange was not impressive in its appreciation of the political questions discussed, although much was heard of "the concert of Europe," "the balance of power," etc. No wide knowledge was required, however, to read the significance of orders by cable from London and from European centers to sell thousands of shares of American securities in the stock market. This and other means of establishing credits in London has had its effect on the foreign exchange market, where the call for remittance to foreign points makes itself evident.

At the same time holders of wheat testified to their doubts over the European prospect by the disinclination to part with their holdings, and mill owners showed considerable desire to replenish their holdings. The Government's liberal estimate of the year's wheat crop was equally ineffective in reducing its price in the face of the factors of strength in the market. The foreign selling of securities converged on a number of stocks which have held a leading place in all recent speculative movements, and the sentimental effect of their weakness on the general list was correspondingly great.

The improved tone of the local market after the hours for activity on foreign stock exchanges had passed was further testimony to the part played by foreign influences in the early movements. Erie was conspicuous and there was a steady and determined accumulation of United States Steel. The selection later of some of the Southern railroad stocks for similar operations gave the market some color of a distinctive movement in Morgan properties. News to account for these special movements was not offered.

The money market was not appreciably affected by the political developments abroad, call loan rates hanging over the level of the midsummer ease of rates.

The closing tone of the market exhibited much uncertainty.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $3,430,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

London Wool Sales.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—At the wool sales today 13,293 bales were offered. A strong undertone prevailed and merinos and fine cross-breds showed an advancing tendency. The offerings were quickly sold, chiefly to continental buyers. Scoureds were in better demand and firmer. The bidding of Queensland's new clips was exciting, Americans paying 10½d for first combing ewes and 1½d advance for good combing greasy. Americans also took a quantity of light greasy half-breds.

GRAIN HIGHER AT SEATTLE

ALL VARIETIES ADVANCE ONE TO TWO CENTS.

Egg Prices Forced Up to an Unreasonable Level—Slump in Poultry Market.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Wheat was very firm today and 95½ cents was bid for January bluestem. Club closed with a bid of 89 cents, fife at 86, fortyfold at 90 and red Russian at 85 cents. All varieties closed at an advance of from 1 to 2 cents over the opening prices. Hay and oats were firm. Growers are holding for higher prices, particularly on the flats north of Seattle.

Eggs were scarce today. Dealers bid furiously for the few fresh eggs that arrived, some ranchers selling as high as 48 cents. Several large dealers are disgusted with the conditions and have stopped handling fresh eggs altogether.

Grapes were largely in over-supply and dull.

Potatoes were weaker. Twenty cars arrived today.

The poultry market has broken. Packers have so many hens that they are dressing stock and putting it into freezers. The top price today was 14½ cents for hens and 15½ cents for Springs.

Hides were weaker at 8½ cents, a drop of a half cent from last week. The market, however, is still higher than usual for this time of the year. Wool is very quiet, with growers unwilling to sell at present prices.

BUY WHEAT EAGERLY

War Scare and Milling Demand Cause Strength.

CLOSES ALMOST AT TOP

Bullish Influences at Work in the Chicago Pit Nearly All Day. Active Demand for Corn and Oats.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Strength in the wheat pit developed soon after the opening, which was easy at declines of ⅛ to ⅜c. Declines at several of the leading European grain centers and additional liberal receipts of new wheat in the Northwest brought out considerable selling by pit traders at the start, but all offerings were eagerly taken by commission houses and before the end of the first half hour offerings had dwindled and prices had taken a strong turn upwards. An unconfirmed report of the assassination of a European ruler, together with the war scare, had a bullish influence during the first half of the session. Later in the day the market was affected by reports of brisk milling demand here for cash wheat, particularly the red Winter variety. The Government report, which was issued during the day, was considered a trifle bullish, the Spring wheat crop being reduced about 4,000,000 bushels from last month's showing, according to today's statistics. The market closed strong at almost the top.

Active demand by leading bulls caused firmness in corn, the market closing at net gains of ⅛@¼c. Cash prices were up ½c and sales of 285,000 bushels were reported.

The oats market became firm early in the day and held steady at a moderate advance the remainder of the session. At the sample table prices were unchanged to ½c higher.

Provisions were strong, with the exception of current month deliveries, which were easy.

The leading futures ranged as follows:
