

OPPOSE CANNON IN OWN DISTRICT

Labor Unions of Danville Adopt Appeal.

ENEMY OF LABOR MEASURES

Socialists Try to Get Candidates Indorsed.

BUT ARE TURNED DOWN

Appeal to Voters Says Speaker's Retirement Would Benefit Nation—House Has Ceased Truly to Represent People.

DANVILLE, III., Oct. 9.—(Special.)

One hundred delegates from 29 labor unions in Vermilion County, representing over 6000 union voters of Speaker Cannon's home, met tonight and adopted an appeal to organized labor of the 18th Congressional district to vote against the Speaker. The meeting was called by J. J. Higgins, Mike Maher, G. G. Armstrong, James Kelly and Clifford Reed, the political action committee of organized labor of Danville and Vermilion County. It was known in advance that resolutions unfavorable to the Speaker would be considered and the Speaker's local managers made every possible effort to prevent it.

Socialists Cause Turmoil.

The reading of the appeal was followed by a turbulent session, during which the chief opposition developed among Socialists, who wanted insertion of a paragraph advising the union men to vote for their candidates. John F. Beckler, of Indianapolis, representing the American Federation of Labor, and J. Tazelaar, of Chicago, representing the legislative committee of the American Federation of Labor, made speeches opposing the Socialists.

Retirement Benefit to Nation.

The appeal was adopted by an overwhelming vote and contains Mr. Cannon for hostility to labor legislation. It says in part:

"After an exhaustive investigation of the Speaker's record in Congress we have been compelled to admit that the charges are true and that his retirement from Congress would be a benefit to the whole Nation."
