W. C. T. U. ENDS ITS SESSION

ALL OLD OFFICERS EXCEPT ONE ARE RE-ELECTED.

Convention in Taylor-Street Church Considered Best Ever Held by Oregon White Ribboners.

The convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Oregon which has been in session for the past four days in the Taylor Street Methodist Church, held its final meeting last night. This year's convention is considered by the temperance leaders one of the largest and most successful in the history of the organization. At the election held at the afternoon session all of the state officers were re-elected, with the exception of the vice-president, Mrs. Helen D. Hartford, of Newberg, being chosen to fill that office. Mrs. Eva Wheeler, of Cottage Grove, was also elected to the office of secretary of the W. C. T. U. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to the reading of reports and the securing of pledges for funds for the coming year. At the conclusion of the memorial service, conducted by Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, a report was rendered by Mrs. L. H. Addison on the World's Temperance Congress, held at Boston, which she attended as delegate from Oregon. The reports rendered by the finance and membership committees showed gratifying results in those departments. A resolution was passed declaring that the reforms recently inaugurated by Mayor Lane are strongly endorsed by the Union, and that it opposes the colonization of vice in any form. The Union also expressed its regret that the station of the Salem electric line contains three sa- boteurs, thus making it an obnoxious place, they consider, for the women and children who patronize the road. The closing session of the convention last night was devoted to the diamond medal contest, awarded by the W. C. T. U. for the best declamation, the orations dealing with the question of temperance. This medal was awarded to D. L. Morgan, of Eugene. A musical programme was a feature of the evening's entertainment.

CAMPAIGN TAKES ON LIFE

Lewis County Republicans Arousing Interest in Coming Election.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 9.—(Special.)—The Lewis County Republican Central Committee has begun an active campaign. A party of speakers is now in the eastern part of the county, and it is proposed to press the contest from now until election time. The opening address of Senator Piles in Chehalis Wednesday night set at rest the matter as to any lack of interest in the campaign in Chehalis, there being a very large and enthusiastic attendance. Lewis County Republicans are fortunate this year in having a strong ticket, there being but little disaffection at the result of the recent primaries.

KID GLOVES.

A great Saturday sale of new, crisp French Kid Gloves at 50c a pair. Standard $1.00 values and a complete line of sizes and colors. Gloves fitted at counter. McAllen & McDonnell, Third and Morrison.

SUNDAY LAW NOT IN FORCE

INJUNCTION AGAINST POLICE STILL EFFECTIVE.

Judge Gantenbein Will Pass Monday on Suit for Permanent Order to Prevent Arrests.

Dealers in cigars, confections and other edibles may keep open tomorrow without the danger of arrest on account of violating the Sunday law, as Judge Gantenbein still has the injunction case against the District Attorney under advisement, and the order restraining the official from making arrests of those who violate this statute is still in force. Judge Gantenbein will render a decision on the constitutionality of the law Monday morning. The District Attorney's brief in the case was not submitted until Thursday afternoon, as his office is very busy prosecuting the Martin case and others. Judge Gantenbein has not yet had an opportunity to examine the large number of authorities cited by Attorney Logan, Bristol and Gleason, as his week's work has been heavy. Should Judge Gantenbein decide, after a thorough examination of the law, that it is unconstitutional, and that the temporary injunction already issued against the District Attorney and the police force should be made permanent, it will mean not only that the cigar, delicatessen and confectionery stores may open on Sunday, but that any grocery store which sees fit, and in fact any kind of store, may transact business on Sunday as on any other day of the week. When the injunction case is decided arguments on the demerit to the Sunday closing indictments returned by the grand jury will be heard by the court, and will be passed upon in accordance with the ruling in the case now under advisement.
