Women Organize Aero Club.
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Women are now to learn to fly. The New York Women's Aero Club is in its genesis. The project of the feminine aviators was conceived by Mrs. Laks, wife of the constructor of submarine vessels, and Mrs. Gillespie, whose husband won fame for his airplane. Mrs. Leo Stevens, wife of Captain Stevens, has been selected as leader of the organization. The object is to initiate women into the science of aerial travel, so that through their knowledge on the subject the movement may become widespread.

Old Warship to Be Burned.
NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The old schooner ship St. Marys, which for 23 years was used for the marine school of New York City, is being towed to Boston, where she will be dismantled and her staunch old hull will be burned that the copper rivets that held her planks together may be saved. The St. Marys was built in the Washington Navy-Yard in 1840, as a third-class sloop of war. The total circulation of books taken out of the Boston Public Library is 1,299,111.

Ex-Pugilist Killed by Train.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 8.—Henry Baker, 42 years of age, once a noted heavyweight pugilist, was run over and killed by a train here last night. Baker fought Jim Jeffries in a standstill for eight rounds May 19, 1897, in San Francisco. In the ninth round, however, Jeffries knocked Baker out. Wants New National Hymn.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Professor William Milligan Sloan, of Columbia University, who is president of the National Institute of Art and Letters, has suggested that the Institute should send its energies to the production of a rousing National song that will combine "Yankee Doodle," "The Star Spangled Banner," "Marseillaise" and "Die Wacht Am Rhein" into one patriotic hymn.
