BRYAN'S SHAFTS

Accuses New York Governor of Leaning to Railroads and Trusts.

INSINUATES EVIL MOTIVE

Tells Nebraska University Students Hughes Is Not in Sympathy With Western Reform-Has No. Remedy for Trusts.

Governor Hughes of New York has been put forward as the champion of the Republican parity to attack the Democratic remedy for the trusts, and the President seems to prefer the argument advocated by Mr. Hughes to the argument advocated by Mr. Hughes to the argument advocated by Mr. Taft. I can fairly assume, therefore, that the argument presented by Mr. Hughes to the argument that has been presented, but the airongest argument that has been presented, but the airongest argument that can be presented, because Mr. Resourcedt would not pit him against our platform if he were not the airongest opponent. He has been sent through the West to strengthen the Republican lines. I desire to remind you, in the first place, that Mr. Hughes represents the Eastern Republicans, not the Western Republicans. He was one of the Candidates against Mr. Taft was being urged as the restressmittive of the Administration. Mr. Hughes friends butned with the friends of Mr. Cannon, Mr. Knox and Mr. Fairbanks in the effort to prevent the nomination of Mr. Taft. It is only fair to assume, therefore, that Mr. Hughes is not a reformer in the sense in which that term is used by the Republicans of the West.

Not in Sympathy With Reform.

As an evidence that Mr. Hughes is not in sympathy with Western reforms, you will recall that he wetced a 2-cent passenger rate bill and he did so in spite of the fact that a Republican Legislature of New York a Republican Legislature of New York as Republican Legislature of New York as suggested this bill and we are now enjoying the benefits of the 2-cent fare. New York is more thickly settled than the Western states and yet he gave the benefit of the doubt in the railroads in their confeat with the patrons. I will not say that he did this because of the contributions made to his emispaign find by Morgan, Depew the Vanderbills and one of the Goulds. It is not necessary to assume that these contributions had any effect upon his arting. It is enough to know that he did not act upon this subject as Republican Governors in the West acted, and I ware not what explanation his friends may make. If they say that he decided in favor of the railroads without any reference in the contributions made by the railroads it simply shows that he lisoks at questions from the residual of the railroads rether than the successful business. Not in Sympathy With Reform.

from the standpoint of the patrons. If I had stand the hill, the railroads come have protected themselves by recompact to the courts, but when he vetoed the bill; the pe

Naturally Sides With Trueks Naturally Sides With Truess.

It is not strange that he should opport the Democratic remedy on the grust quitton, for he has never shown any interior the correction of the evils that trusts have brought upon the country, will not say that this partiality for trusts is due to the countributions made his campaign fund by Carnegte, Schwediste, Havenneyer, Duke and ethers. It not necessary to assume that 10-ese contributions influenced him at all. It may be natural disposition to take the side of i not necessary to assume that these contribu-tions influenced him at all. It may be his natural disposition to take the side of the trusts as against the people. His speech presents all the evidence novressary to con-vict him of lack of sympathy with the gen-eral public.

Does he manifest any concern about the wrong done to the people by the trusts? Not the least. Has he any emedy? None whatever. With him it he a subject of autosement; it is really too funny for any-thing to think that anybigly should try to do anything. If you will read his speech on this subject, you will agree with me when I liken the situations to the case of a sick man who is about to try a remedy proposed by a physician. Dr. Hughes comes in and says. What! Are, you going to take LINCOLN, Neb. Oct. 12.—In an address at the State University this afternoon. W. J. Bryan attacked the arguments of Governor Hughes, of New York in defense of the Republican platform, dwelf on the difference in the two platforms relating to publicity of campaign contributions, and discussed the propriety of President Roosyvelt's supporting Mr. Taft.

Delivered forcibly and in Mr. Bryan's beat style, his speech was repeatedly cheered by the University students. In attacking the position of the Republicans on the tariff situation, he delivered enigrams which kept the students cheering. During the speech he took a vote of the students who were for and against election of Senators by direct vote. The principal part of the arguments of Governor Hughes, who spoke to the University students a short time ago. Mr. Bryan said:

But let vis take the 30 per cent limit which he regards as uncetentific. The plan which we propose will apply first to corporations which have not yet reached the 30 per cent limit and to corporations which have not yet reached the 10 per cent limit and to corporations which have alreafy reached that limit. Corporations which have not yet reached that limit would sim giy stop expanding when the limit is reached, and that would entail no hardship upon them; and it would not be difficult to alphy it to corporations which have already passed the 30 per cent limit. Laws do not take effect immediately upon their passage. There is always a time between the date of enactment and the date when the law takes effect and when a law involves at material change in condition, a sufficient time is given for necessary rendingtements.

Duke of Abruzzi and Miss Elkins Still Engaged.

ANNOUNCEMENT IS DELAYED

Members of Italian Royal Household Refuse to Talk, but Plainly Indicate That Marriage Will Result.

ROME, Oct. 12 -- (Special.) -- The engagement of the Duke of Abruzzi to Miss Katherine Elkins has not yet been officially announced, but since it has not been officialy denied, it is considered certain here that the delay is due either to the fact that the Duke is due either to the fact that the Duke has not yet overcome the opposition of some of the members of his family, which he desires to do, though he is determined to marry Miss Elkins in any event, or else the Senator's daughter hesitates to change her religion. Members of the King's household, when approached on the subject, refused to deny or confirm anything, but it can be seen that they regard the marriage as certain to take place.

BEVERIDGE'S PREDICTION IF BRYAN IS ELECTED.

Challenges Democratic Candidate to Poll Democratic Senators on His Anti-Trust Policy.

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 12.-That if Bryan were elected President, his adminlatration would be fought by a powerful element in his own party was the princi pal argument made by Senator Albert J. Beveridge in his address tonight before an immense audience at the Lake Theater. He demanded that Mr. Bryan answer the questions:

If you are elected will the Democratic leader of the Senate, Senator Culberson, leader of the Senate, Senator Uniberson, support your franchise plan for controlling the trusts? Will Senators Raynor, Daniels and Bacon support or oppose this plank in your platform? Are you willing that a public poll of Democratic Senators shall be taken as to whether they will support of oppose you in your principal policies? As a citizen do you think any man should be elected President whose administration was doomed in advance to dissension and failure by the practically unanimous opposition of his own party?

"I now predict." said Mr. Beveridge.

"that if a poil of the Democratic sena-tors is taken it will show greater opposi-tion to the policies you propose than any opposition that ever has been seen to the policies of any Fresidential candidate since Andrew Jackson's day. And if you. Mr. Bryan, are not willing to take this public poll of Democratic Senators, it can be only because you know this to be the case."

"that if a poll of the Democratic
