SUFFRAGETTE MOB RAIDS PARLIAMENT

MRS. SYMONS IS HEROINE

Leader in Cause Breaks Through Cordon of Armed Guards and Invades Floor of House of Commons.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The climax of the suffragette campaign was reached tonight when an enormous mob hemmed in Parliament and stopped traffic on all streets leading to Westminster. For more than three hours the crowd scuffled good-naturedly with the police, interfering with theater-goers, broke windows and disorganized things generally in the center of London.

The heroine of the day was Mrs. Travers Symons, formerly secretary to James Kell Hardie, socialist and independent member of Parliament, who reached the House of Commons by strategy. The House was solemnly debating a bill to prevent children from smoking cigarettes, when the woman dashed past the doorkeeper to a position in front of the speaker's chair and shouted:

Carry Her Out Bodily.

“Leave off discussing children and talk about women.” Three officials seized Mrs. Symons and carried her out bodily. She was then led to the outer door and dismissed. As a result of the coup an order was issued that hereafter women shall not be admitted to the building on any pretext whatever, and in the future the historic grill will not screen feminine spectators.

The appeal issued by the suffragettes a few days ago for 50,000 persons to clog their “rush” Parliament at 7:30 o'clock this evening was the most successful stroke yet. Not less than twice that number responded to the call and nine-tenths of these were young persons who came to see the fun. There were also a few hundred of the unemployed and their sympathizers.

Parliament is Bestaged.

Parliament was in a state of siege. A close triple line of police was drawn around the three sides in front of the building, the yard within the gates swarmed with police and 300 guarded the entrance in the rear against assault by water, which the women twice attempted. A small fleet of police boats also patrolled the Thames.

All the mounted police in London and suburbs had been mobilized at this center and loads of hay were unstaked in the streets for the horses. The whole police force, together with cavalry, infantry and marine, numbering more than 5,000, was kept busy in restraining and pushing the struggling masses about Trafalgar Square.

Crowd is Good-Natured.

The crowds cheered, sang songs, and booed in a semi-good-natured manner at the suffragettes who, distinguished by their orange sashes, swarmed everywhere, distributing tracts.

A delegation of 13 suffragettes, which approached the police cordon and was formally refused admission to Parliament, attempted a football ruse, but the police chivalrously repulsed the women with the least possible roughness. The police were pelleted with vegetables and some stones in a few minor skirmishes that occurred, but nobody was seriously hurt.

Twenty-four suffragettes and 11 of the unemployed were placed under arrest. Many persons fainted in the crush; a few were trampled upon and taken to the hospitals.

Women Sleep in Jail.

Mrs. Parkhurst, Miss C. Parkhurst and Mrs. Lawrence were summoned to appear in court yesterday for inciting a breach of the peace; this morning they coolly refused to obey the summons, but agreed to surrender themselves at 6 o'clock in the evening, which they did, spending the night in the Bow-street station.

The suffragettes and unemployed have kept practically the whole police force on duty continuously for 48 hours.

ACCUSES HIS ACCUSERS

Mayor of Los Angeles Sues for Libel Those Who Charge Graft.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13.—Two suits were filed today in the Superior Court in which Mayor A. C. Harper alleges that he has been libeled by the recent charges made by City Prosecutor Thomas Lee Woolwine in connection with his investigation of alleged graft and protection to persons in questionable business.

One of the suits filed is against Mr. Woolwine for $2,000 damages and the other against the Los Angeles Evening Express for $5,000 damages. The proprietor of the newspaper is E. T. Earle.

WAR ON GAMBLING BEGUN IN NEVADA

UNIVERSITY LEADS CAMPAIGN AGAINST LICENSE.

President Stubbs Calls on Students to Register and Vote—Gambling Reduces Attendance.

RENO, Nev., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Believing that gambling in Reno is accountable for the small attendance at the University of Nevada, because people throughout the state will not send their children to school in a city where the evil exists as it does in Reno, the university authorities have taken an active hand in the anti-gambling campaign now being waged in Reno for the special election to abolish the licenses on October 24.

At a student-body meeting yesterday Dr. J. E. Stubbs urged upon all students of age to be sure and register, and the registration office has been deluged with students. It is understood that the gambling element will challenge these votes. A monster mass meeting was held here last night, at which addresses were made to an audience of fully 5,000 people.

The movement has gained an immense momentum, and the enthusiasm locally is greater than any local faction fight ever aroused before in the history of the city.

JANITOR GUARDS FORTUNE

Saves Bank $20,000 in Gold Left Out of Vaults.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Twenty thousand dollars of gold coins, in pyramids of twenties, lying loose in trays in the American National Bank, and only Janitor J. M. Pursue to guard it. All night Pursue stood guard over more wealth than had ever been in his keeping before. Once or twice he let his gaze stray from the trays long enough to ring up by telephone in an endeavor to connect with some of the bank's officials. He wanted to tell them that the careless paying tellers had forgotten to put the trays in the vault at the end of the day, but he could get no response.

Pursue is an honest man, as his employers knew when they hired him. Had he been otherwise, this story would have had a different balance sheet this afternoon.

LEGS TOTTER; VOICE FIRM

Debs Continues Red Special Tour Against Doctors' Warning.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—On tottering legs, but with a vigor in his voice that made his auditors forget that he was a sick man, Eugene V. Debs, socialist candidate for President, spoke at two mass meetings on the East Side, the stronghold of the socialist party in this city, tonight, and also journeyed to Brooklyn to address a meeting.

So weak was the candidate that he had to be supported by two men as he spoke tonight. His physicians say that unless Mr. Debs rests he will not be able to continue the schedule made out for the “red special” tour, which has now lasted 40 days and was planned to continue until the day before election.

WELCOMED BY BIG CROWD

Pacific Coast Business Men Arrive in Japanese Capital.

TOKYO, Oct. 13.—The delegation of American business men representing the cities of the Pacific Coast arrived here this morning and was welcomed at the railway station by a great crowd, including officials and representatives of all the chambers of commerce in Japan. During the day the visitors visited all of the places of interest in carriages, and tonight they were given a dinner at the famous Maple Club by the combined Japanese chambers of commerce.

Tomorrow the party will be guests at a luncheon given in their honor by Baron Komura, Minister of Foreign Affairs. Friday next they will make an excursion to Nikko.

MAY COST HILL MILLION

Montana Wreck Will Be Followed by Damage Suits.

BILLINGS, Mont., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—The first of what is expected to be a series of damage suits against the Northern Pacific, as the result of the recent wreck at Young's Sliding, in which 21 persons were killed and nearly a score injured, was filed here today by Mrs. Mattie Anderson and her daughter, Mabel, who ask $50,000 for the death of Robert Anderson, husband and father, respectively, of the plaintiffs.

In the aggregate the damage suits which will be begun against the railroad company will exceed $1,000,000. The coroner's jury held the crew of the freight into which the passenger train crashed, responsible for the accident.

JEROME AFTER GAMBLERS

Summons Leading New York Sports Will Force Lid On.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—District Attorney Jerome took up the gambling situation in New York today and subpoenaed to his office 13 well-known sporting men, some of them proprietors of places on the police list of suspected gambling-houses, to question them regarding conditions in the tenderloin.

COURT UPHOLDS PRIMARY LAW

Supreme Bench Members of One Opinion.

SECOND CHOICE WILL HOLD

Title Sufficient and Law Valid on Constitutional Ground.

OBJECTIONS ARE ANSWERED

Regulations for Making Nominations Not Additional Qualifications for Voters at General Elections.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—The State Supreme Court today unanimously sustained the direct primary law in its entirety. The opinion was written by Justice Fullerton and signed by Eckley, Chief Justice; Dunbar, Mount and Rudkin, Justices Root and Crow, who were candidates before the primaries, took no part, although it is understood that they agree with other members. The opinion covers 11 typewritten pages and consolidates in the decision the four attacks upon the direct primary law. The points upon which the attack was made and the decision may be summarized as follows:

The court holds that the title is sufficient and that the law is valid on that constitutional ground. In discussing this point the court admits the indefiniteness of the provision that candidates must file a statement of campaign expenses, “not less than 10 days after the primaries,” and says in such cases the rule is they must be filed within a reasonable time.

Federal Point Not Touched.

The court refuses an opinion as to whether nominations for Representatives in Congress are properly a part of a state primary law, as determination of such a question is not necessary to this suit. Similarly, no opinion is given on the Senatorial preference, although reference is made thereto. As to fees, the opinion says:

The right to exact a reasonable fee for the privilege of running for office may be sustained on the principle that fees in actions and proceedings in court and for filing and recording papers are sustained.

As to the contention that the act is unconstitutional, because it revises or amends other laws without setting forth in full such amendments, the court says the act in question is complete within itself and while it necessarily changes existing laws by superseding some and limiting the effect of others, it does not require these old laws should be set forth in full. Such a rule, it is said, would bring legislation to a standstill.

Not Voting Qualification.

As to the objection requiring a voter at the primaries to call for a party ticket and if challenged to swear he will support that party, it is held this does not require an additional qualification of a voter in excess of those provided by constitution.

DANIEL C. GILMAN CALLED BY DEATH

END OF PROMINENT EDUCATOR COMES SUDDENLY.

Ex-President of Johns Hopkins University Passes Away at His Childhood Home.

NORWICH, Conn., Oct. 13.—Dr. Daniel C. Gilman, of Baltimore, ex-president of Johns Hopkins University, died here suddenly this afternoon, aged 77 years. He had gone to his room to prepare for a drive after dinner, where he was found helpless on the floor by his wife.

Daniel C. Gilman, ex-President of Johns Hopkins University, Who Died Suddenly Yesterday.

He arrived here yesterday for a visit to his sisters.

Dr. Gilman was born here, and burial will take place here.

Daniel C. Gilman, who was born July 6, 1831, was descended from Councillor John Gilman, of Exeter, N. H., who emigrated from England in 1633, and was one of the leading educators and greatest scholars of the United States. After graduating at Yale in 1852, he continued his studies at Cambridge, New Haven and Berlin, and was granted a LL. D. from 16 universities. He was librarian and secretary of the Sheffield Scientific School, and professor of physical and political geography at Yale from 1856 to 1872; president of the University of California from 1872 to 1875; first president of Johns Hopkins University from 1875 to 1901; since which he has been president emeritus. He was the first president of the Carnegie Institution at Washington, from 1901 to 1904, president of the American Oriental Society from 1893 to 1906, a member of the United States Commission on the Venezuelan boundary dispute in 1896-97, president of the National Civil Service Reform League from 1901 to 1907, and was a member and officer of many scientific associations. He wrote on many historical and scientific topics.

Milton Pupils Attend Fair.

MILTON, Or., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Yesterday the children of the Milton public schools attended the Walla Walla County Fair in a body, the pupils being the invited guests of the Fair Association. Special interurban cars were provided to take the pupils of the public schools and students of Columbia College, nearly 400, accepted the hospitality of the Fair management.

BALLOON FALLS INTO NORTH SEA

Compels Americans to Swim for Lives.

ST. LOUIS COMES TO GRIEF

Aeronauts Make Desperate Choice and Win.

PICKED UP BY LIFEBOAT

Decide to Descend When Carried Away From Land—Dragged Through Waves at Rapid Speed in Darkness.

BERLIN, Oct. 13.—The second of the three American balloons that started in the race for the international trophy on Sunday from Schmarsdorf has met disaster in the North Sea. The St. Louis, manned by N. H. Arnold, of North Adams, Mass., and Harry J. Hewitt, was carried overland by treacherous air currents and later in the haze the aeronauts lost their bearings until suddenly last night they saw the guard lights of an unknown coast.

This meant that they must descend or risk the danger of being driven far out of the track of vessels. They chose the former course, and for an hour they were buffeted by the waves, almost giving up in despair. Eventually they were rescued by a lifeboat.

News Comes by Wireless.

The first intimation of an accident to the St. Louis was conveyed in a wireless message from Arnold, saying: “Lost everything in the North Sea last night.” The Associated Press was able to communicate with Mr. Arnold at Wilhelmshaven, to which place he had been transported by one of the torpedo-boats which last evening was sent out to render assistance to any of the balloonsists who might drift out over the water.

Mrs. Arnold told a graphic story of their descent and rescue by a lifeboat. He said:

Arnold Tells His Story.

“All day Monday with the exception of the early afternoon we were unable to see the earth and we lowered the balloon repeatedly to communicate with the people to ascertain our whereabouts. Apparently we could not make them understand, but this was apparently due to our poor German. Finally we decided to risk proceeding, still having 20 sacks of ballast.

Moving in a northwesterly direction in the evening we noticed lighthouses and buoys, which convinced us that we were moving above big water, but we had no idea where we were.

Put on Life Preservers.

“In order to avoid drifting out of the line of ship traffic, we concluded to go down to the water, but before doing so we put on life-preservers. The descent was a perilous task, for it

BIG REPUBLICAN GAIN IN NEW YORK

REGISTRATION SHOWS TREND OF PUBLIC OPINION.

Large Increase Over 1906 in Republican Districts, Decrease in Tammany Districts.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Complete figures made for the five boroughs in New York City for the four registration days show an increase of 25,836 over 1906 and a decrease of 5433 from 1904. An analysis of the registration by districts shows such a heavy decline in the strong Tammany districts in Manhattan and such corresponding increase in the Republican districts as to make it evident that the total result cannot but be considered as distinctly favorable to a large proportionate vote for Taft and Hughes. A real comparison of results of the total registration, district by district, is possible only with figures for 1906, the year in which Governor Hughes was elected, because there has been a reapportionment and redistricting since 1904. All the Bronx districts show a considerable increase due to the rapid recent growth of those districts. They may, therefore, be left out of the calculation.

In 21 Manhattan districts the registration figures show an unmistakable tendency toward an increased vote in the Republican districts. On the other hand, of 23 Tammany districts in the city, all but three show a falling off.

CAME TO AMERICA TO WED

Two German Girls Accept Invitation of Father's Friend.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Two German girls, August Fuchs, 16, and Lacie, 15, Idaho, Mrs. Keenaver, aged 24, and Franziska Staudenmaier, aged 18, have arrived from Wurtemberg, Germany, the matches being arranged by the father of the bridegrooms, Joseph Fuchs, upon a visit to the Fatherland about seven months ago. The marriage licenses were issued today and the ceremonies will take place tomorrow.

When Fuchs, senior, was at his boyhood home he looked up his old friends the Keenavers and the Staudenmaiers and he persuaded the parents and their daughters that they should marry his sons. The proposal struck all concerned as being excellent, so the girls made the long trip to America to be married.

Officers Give Up Prisoner.

The man who spoke for Colonel Tucker stated that he was not an Army officer, but that he is an old family friend, and was summoned to St. Louis to meet Colonel Tucker and his party while they stopped over here. DID NOT PROMISE RETURN

Army Officer Formerly at Portland Arrested on Train, but Given Up Afterwards—Wife Says Army Officers Profligate.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Colonel William F. Tucker, Assistant Paymaster-General, United States Army, who was arrested today at Des Moines, Ia., while on his way to Hot Springs, Ark., is at the Southern Hotel in this city, seriously sick from dropsy, and cannot be moved without danger to his life.

Regarding the facts of his arrest, Colonel Tucker will not be interviewed, nor will he be seen in his suite, but he made the statement through a friend to the effect that he is no longer under arrest, that he is under no promise to return to Illinois without extradition papers, and that he intends to proceed on his journey to Hot Springs just as soon as his condition will permit.
