

DEBATE SET UP IN FOURTH GAME

Summers Issues Two Passes, Which Prove Disastrous to Tigers.

SCHMIDT THROWS BADLY

Failure to Put Out Schulte Starts Chicago's score—'Old Reliable' Crawford Falls and Spoils Detroit's Opportunity.

DETROIT, Oct. 13.—Chicago crept one game closer to the world's baseball championship today by defeating Detroit, 3 to 1, in the fourth game of the series, as compared with the one annexed by Detroit at Chicago yesterday.

Summers Wavers and Loses Game. In the third, after Shockard and Evers, as a result of spirited efforts of Coughlin and Schaefer, had been retired, Summers wavered over so little and Schulte was presented with standing room on the initial bag.

Detroit's Lost Opportunity. Detroit threatened to score only once. In the fourth inning, however, when singles by O'Leary and Crawford placed those gentlemen respectively on second and first bases, with none out, Captain Chance over first base and Joe Tinker came over from short to confer with Brown.

Runs Nipped at First Base. In the fifth inning Coughlin was hit by a pitched ball but got no further than first. In the sixth O'Leary got his second hit, but was immediately doubled.
