DEMOCRATS TELL NAMES OF GIVERS

Subscriptions to Campaign Fund of $100 and More.

NEARLY QUARTER MILLION

Largest Contribution $5000 and More Than Half Total in Sums Under $100—Only One Oregonian on List.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The Democratic National Committee, through Treasurer Herman Ridder, today gave out an extended statement of the contributions to the Democratic National campaign fund up to and including October 9, showing sums of, and over $100. This also shows receipts and disbursements as follows:

Received from contributors of $100 and over, $90,712.33.

Received from contributors under $100, $115,355.22.

Amount left over from Denver convention fund, $42,500.

Total, $248,567.55.

Amount disbursed, $225,962.88.

Balance on hand, $22,604.67.

The statement, which is signed by National Chairman Mack and Treasurer Ridder, says that 343 subscribers gave $100 or more.

The contributors number about 50,000, and about $100,000 of the whole amount came from the daily newspapers throughout the country. The statement concludes:

Another $100,000 Needed.

Supplies contracted for and undelivered, literature, the expense of headquarters in Chicago, New York and Denver and the traveling and other expenses incident to our speaking campaign, now under way, will make necessary an additional $100,000 to carry our campaign to a successful issue. We are confident that the people, whom we are thus taking into our confidence, will supply us with this additional sum, and we earnestly urge a prompt and generous response to this appeal.

Subscriptions received of $100 or more will be published daily beginning October 16.

The largest individual contribution was $5300 from Charles J. Hughes, of Denver. The second, $4946 from W. J. Bryan from profits of the Commoner.

Some of the contributors whose names appeared in the list last week have increased their donations, as, for instance, ex-Senator W. A. Clark, of Montana, and Norman E. Mack, whose names are down now for $3000 each.

SHOWS PROGRESS OF REFORM

Perry Belmont Comments on Publication of Bryan Contributions.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Perry Belmont, president of the publicity law organization, in a statement issued today, said:

"The publication of contributions and expenditures by the Democratic National committee is the best possible evidence of the great reform which has been accomplished since the last Presidential election and will be welcomed by every fair-minded man.

"That the treasurer of the National Republican committee will make an accurate publication after election, and will be assisted by the corrupt practices association of which Seth Low is president, in complying with all its provisions, is not without its encouragement to those who are endeavoring to secure Congressional legislation on the subject."

PILES FIRM FOR JONES

YAKIMA MAN NOW PEOPLE'S CHOICE FOR SENATOR.

Monster Campaign Rally in Seattle Gives Mr. Piles Rousing Reception.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—J. E. Reilly, a former member of the Municipal Ownership party, while Senator Sampel H. Piles was addressing 2000 people in Armory Hall tonight, interrupted the speaker with the question: "Do you favor the election of United States Senators by popular vote?"

"I'll answer that," said Mr. Piles, adding, "I do; but this state has the primary law and does not require further Congressional enactment. You have just selected Wesley L. Jones as your choice and any man who does not stand by the will of the people in this selection ought to be and will be driven out of the state."

The meeting was the largest of the campaign, and for a minute after he stepped forward to begin his speech, Mr. Piles was greeted by hand-clapping, thumping of umbrellas and stamping of feet that shook the building. After congratulating the voters on the selection of Congressman Humphrey, S. G. Cosgrove and W. E. Hay, the speaker said that while he stood for all Republican nominees, he did not have the time to go into the biography of them all.

Pointing to the shifty attitude of the Democracy and to Mr. Bryan, who his party had declared would prefer to go down to defeat in 1896 rather than sacrifice his principles of free silver and was therefore a patriot, stood revealed to the voters a politician willing to ride into the White House on any platform any party might make for him.

SUICIDE ENDS CAREER

Antonio Muzzarelli, Soldier of Fortune and Educator, Dead.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Antonio Muzzarelli, aged 61, a veteran of the French army and prominent in this country and abroad as an educator and a writer, committed suicide today at his home here by shooting. He had suffered from despondency.

Mr. Muzzarelli, whose real name was Jules Caesar Voncealas Ermenigelde, was a native of France. He served through the Franco-German war and in Paris against the Communists, who twice imprisoned him. Later he became active in politics with Gambetta, was president of the Democratic Committee in Paris and was sent to prison for political manifestation. He came to the United States in 1877.

In 1906 he was made an officer of the Academie by the French government for distinguished services in the cause of education.

Seven years ago Antoine Muzzarelli taught French in this city. He had offices in The Oregonian building, and numbers of business and professional men of the city were among his students. One of the number was City Attorney Kavanaugh.

While in this city M. Muzzarelli claimed to have suffered the loss of a Cross of the Legion of Honor, which was said to have been stolen. He had won the Cross, he said, by distinguished bravery and service to his country. On leaving Portland he is said to have gone to New York.

VETERAN MAKES ADDRESS

Reviews 50 Years' Missionary Work in South Seas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The real feature of the meeting today of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions was the appearance of the Rev. Mr. Hiram Bingham, who for more than half a century has labored among the natives of the islands in the South Pacific. Although 80 years old and only two days out of a hospital, where he had been seriously ill with pneumonia, Dr. Bingham made a spirited address and was frequently applauded.

Dr. Bingham is now enjoying his second furlough in 52 years of service.

BURROUGHS' MIND UNSOUND

Baker City Officers Refuse to Believe He Killed Harvey Brown.

BAKER CITY, Or., Oct. 15.—A. S. Burroughs, who made affidavit in Sheridan, Wyo., regarding the Harvey Brown tragedy, is well known in Baker City. His wife lives here now. He left some time ago, and nothing had been heard of him until today. He is considered here a man of not very sound reason, and a crank on most questions, and officers believe he has merely made this affidavit for the purpose of gaining notoriety. They place no credence in the statement. Burroughs is a painter by trade, and has worked for Baker City contractors.

Northwestern People in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—People from the Northwest registered at New York hotels today as follows:

From Portland—F. Bayer, at the King Edward.

From Seattle—J. W. Kahle, at the Herald Square; D. I. Smith, Mrs. I. B. Winsor, I. B. Winsor, at the Seville.

From Tacoma—Miss A. Baillie, at the Seville.

Loads Lumber for Sydney.

TACOMA, Oct. 15.—The British bark Lord Templetown arrived today from San Francisco to load lumber for Sydney. The schooner Lottie Bennett is to leave out tonight for San Pedro.

HEARST DELIVERS BLOW AT HASKELL

Says Governor Dare Not Bring Libel Suit to Trial Before Election.

REITERATES ALL CHARGES

Recalls Offer to Pay Expenses of Suit and Accept Summons by Mail, but Haskell Broke Into Room.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 15.—W. R. Hearst, on his way to Chicago tonight, gave out the following statement regarding the suit brought by Governer Haskell against him:

"When Mr. Haskell first declared several weeks ago that he was going to sue me, he said that he was unable to raise the necessary money. At that time I offered to supply any deficiency, in order that he might speedily bring suit.

"When he stated that he could not find me to serve me, I stated that I would accept suit if the summons were merely mailed to my address. Mr. Haskell adopted the sensational method of breaking into my sleeping-rooms to serve the summons, but he did not adopt the sincere method of setting the trial before the election. I am called to answer on the 16th day of November, 1908.

"I reiterate what I have said of Mr. Haskell and all that he has proved by his resignation as National treasurer. I do not believe that this case will ever come to trial and I defy him to bring it to trial enough before election for his true character to be thoroughly exposed in the courts.

(Signed) "WILLIAM R. HEARST."

STANDARD OIL IS FOR BRYAN

Forced Into Democratic Camp, Says Hisgen at Butte.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 15.—Thomas L. Hisgen, Independence party candidate for President, spoke to a large crowd at the Broadway Theater tonight. His remarks mainly dwelt with his fight against the Standard Oil interests to maintain his standing as an independent coal oil operator, and with the trouble he had experienced in building up a lucrative axle grease factory and coal oil trade.

Mr. Hisgen severely scored the Republican party for the protection it had afforded the trusts, and declared the Standard Oil had been driven into the Democratic party.

SAYS BRYAN WHOLE PARTY

But Graves Denies Hearst Is Whole Independence Party.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 15.—John Temple Graves addressed a meeting under the auspices of the Independence party at the Princess theater tonight. Mr. Graves credited Mr. Hearst with having injected into the present campaign all the interest it possesses, and then severely criticised both the Democratic and Republican parties.

He denounced W. J. Bryan, the mention of whose name, however, was wildly cheered. His declaration that Mr. Bryan is the Democratic party of the present brought forth the question from one of the audience whether Mr. Hearst is not the Independence party, which Mr. Graves denied.

SMASHES WORLD'S RECORD

Leading Lady Beats Best 2-Year-Old Trotting Time.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 15.—The Leading Lady broke the world's trotting record for two-year-olds when she trotted a mile in 2:07 in a successful effort to break the record of 2:11½. Alan Winter won the West stakes.

Summary:

The West stakes, value $2000, 2:29 class, trotting, three in five—Alan Winter won three straight heats in 2:09¾, 2:10½, 2:12¾.

The Kentucky stakes, $2500, trotting—Benvolio won two straight heats in 2:10, 2:09½.

2:12 class, trotting, purse $1000, three in five—Lady Jones won second, third and fourth heats in 2:09¼, 2:10, 2:11. Czarina Dawson won the first heat in 2:09¼.

To beat own record—The Leading Lady (Murphy), time by quarters, 0:32, 1:03½, 1:33¾, 2:07.

Minor Heir, with C. Dean driving, attempted to break the world's championship pacing record of 1:39¼, without a wind shield, but the best he could do was 2:09¾.

Returns Ashes to Waters.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Because Michael Baues and his wife, who committed suicide last week, chose the waters of Jamaica Bay for their last resting place, Herman Baues, the man's brother, has decided that he will be carrying out his brother's wishes if their remains are cast into the bay. He has had the bodies incinerated and says that he will take the ashes to the bay and cast them into the water.
