DELAY OF FLEET WORRIES JAPAN

American Vessels Encounter Storms in Waters of Southern Islands.

ALL NIPPON ON TIPTOE

Elaborate Series of Public and Private Entertainments to Fill Every Minute of Visit—Everything to Be Free to the Sailors.

TOKIO, Oct. 15.—The unexpected delay in the arrival of the American Atlantic fleet, which has encountered thick and stormy weather off the shore of the southern islands of Japan, where navigation at any time is somewhat dangerous, has caused much disappointment in Yokohama and Tokio, owing to the enforced postponement of the elaborate reception planned for the Americans. Some parts of the programme, which provided some form of entertainment for nearly every hour of the time after the arrival of the fleet at Yokohama was scheduled for the 17th, will have to be abandoned entirely, which means that none of Saturday's programme can be carried out as planned.

Latest reports from the southern islands indicate the weather is now clearing up.

Witnessing Naval Maneuvers.

A wireless message reports that Admiral Sperry, his officers and the enlisted men were at that moment witnessing the maneuvers of the Japanese vessels off the Island of Hyushu, in Southeasterly Japan.

The first official greeting to Admiral Sperry was from Vice-Admiral Minoru Saito, Minister of the Navy. Baron Saito extended to the approaching fleet a hearty welcome on behalf of the nation and said that all Japan is anxiously awaiting its arrival.

The earliest wireless messages report all the ships of the American fleet in splendid condition.

The gunboat Yankton, tender to the fleet, is reported by wireless to have been sighted off Yanshu shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and a reception committee will leave Tokio to welcome her.

JAPAN MOST GENEROUS HOST

Government and People Prepare Entertainment for Every Minute.

TOKIO, Friday, Sept. 18.—Some time between dawn and noon of Saturday, October 17, the American fleet of 16 battleships, escorted by a squadron of Japanese war vessels, will swing around Hachiogiyama into the beautiful harbor of Yokohama. Sixteen welcoming men-of-war will salute and 336 harmless guns will voice the sentiment of the whole people of Japan.

The first scene of the first act of the week's engagement of the American fleet in Japan will doubtless be the most impressive, but every number on the long programme, carefully prepared and as carefully rehearsed, will be new evidence that the welcome found in Japan has been unexcelled, unequalled, perhaps, by any of the hearty welcomes extended to it since it left the Atlantic seaboard.

Sixteen Japanese war vessels are even now awaiting the battleships at their buoys and throughout the visit each battleship will have officers and men representing the entertaining Emperor and people at its beck and call.

Flags Intertwined Everywhere.

A high Japanese Admiral, speaking of October 17, said: "When the first gun of welcome sounds, American week will have begun and a new page will be turned in the history of the relations between the two countries."

Immediately the vessels come to anchorage, Captain Dougherty, the naval attache of the American Embassy, will board Admiral Sperry's flagship and the exchange of visits between the Admirals and officers from ship to ship will commence.

While this is going on thousands of persons ashore, lining the basin of the harbor and occupying every vantage ground, will wait the first landing. Two special landing places have been arranged in the center of the Yokohama bund, a broad avenue facing the sea. They are for the exclusive use of the fleet's boats. By official orders the American flag will everywhere be displayed with the Japanese flag, and at night every house in Yokohama and Tokio, as well as in the villages between the two places, will put out lighted lanterns having the American and Japanese flags on them.

As soon as the officers of the two fleets have exchanged official visits, the Mayor of Yokohama, Mr. Mitsuhashi, will go off on his launch to visit Admiral Sperry. He will be followed by the Governor of Kamagawa. After this the first detachment of officers will go ashore to return these official visits.

The first meeting between Admiral Sperry and Ambassador O'Brien will be in Tokio on Monday, October 19.

Entertainment Every Minute.

Saturday and Sunday are entirely given up to Yokohama. Officially, Tokio does not participate. About 3500 American bluejackets will be given shore leave each day, and the Japanese programme provides for their entertainment every minute of the day and evening. Receptions will be held at Yokohama Park, where every form of entertainment is provided free. The Japanese theaters of Yokohama will entertain 900 sailors daily. The government has provided guides for the visitors, and instructions have been issued to the men of the Japanese fleet, as well as to the people generally, that every assistance should be given to the American sailors. The merchants have been warned that exorbitant charges will not be countenanced.

The first large affair ashore will be the dinner given by Admiral Ijuin, commanding the Japanese welcoming fleet, to the officeres on Saturday night. This will be followed by a reception. On Sunday the Mayor gives a dinner and the men will be provided with a regular programme of entertainment. A reception will also be given on Sunday by the governor of Kamagawa.

Palace Given Up to Admirals.

On Monday morning Admiral Sperry and his flag officers will come to Tokio. They will be driven directly from the Shimbashi railroad station to the Shiba detached palace, one of the imperial residences situated on Tokio Bay. It was here that William H. Taft and other distinguished visitors were entertained. The house is richly furnished and is situated in very beautiful grounds. Admiral Sperry and the other admirals, together with their staffs, will be driven to the palace in four imperial carriages, which will remain at the disposal of the party during their entire stay in Tokio. An emissary from the imperial household will be the first to call at the palace, followed by a stream of cabinet ministers or their secretaries. This ended, the admirals will take carriages and make the official calls. Tokio is a widely scattered place and these visits will take time and much hard driving before the American Embassy is reached. Here a hasty luncheon will be offered by Mr. O'Brien, followed by a garden party in the grounds of the Embassy. This over, the return to the palace will give a chance for a breathing spell and preparation for the dinner to be given by the American Ambassador at the Imperial Hotel. The higher officers of the fleet and the important Japanese officials will be asked to this dinner.

Free Theaters, Trains, Streetcars.

With Tuesday begins the Japanese entertainment in Tokio. It can be described as a breathless affair. Luncheons garden parties and dinners will be given, with receptions everywhere. Aside from the official entertainment, to which not one-half of either officers or prominent persons can possibly be invited, there will be dozens of private dinners and other entertainments going on all over the city. The Great Theater will give one special performance to about 2000, and the minor theaters are open free to the Americans daily. On one afternoon 3000 bluejackets will come up to Tokio for a reception in the Hibiya Park. Here the most elaborate preparations have been made.

While all this is going on, the trains will be running almost continuously between Tokio and Yokohama, a distance of 18 miles, with free tickets for Americans. There will also be excursions to many points of interest near Yokohama. The streetcars are also entirely free to Americans, an invaluable boon in Tokio, with its hundred square miles of actual city.

Wednesday, Admiral Sperry and his officers will be received in audience by the Emperor and the admirals will be afterwards entertained at luncheon by their majesties.

Friday has been left open until the arrival of Admiral Sperry, who may desire to make some return on that day for the hospitality of Japan.

Every man and every officer on the fleet will receive a medal of silver or gold.

SAIL FOR MAGDALENA BAY

Pacific Fleet Cruisers Will Then Visit Panama.

HONOLULU, Oct. 15. — The Pacific cruiser fleet, on leaving Honolulu, returning to the Pacific Coast, will sail directly to Magdalena Bay, cruising thence to Panama, the Gallapagos Islands, Callao, Coquimbo and Talaquinane, visiting these ports in the order named.

The torpedo flotilla will make the entire trip towed by the cruisers.

TESTIFY IN LAND TRIAL

LITTLE NEW EVIDENCE IN LOS ANGELES CASE.

Letters That Passed Between Defendants Are Read for Purpose of Revealing Conspiracy.

Examining and cross-questioning witnesses consumed the entire session of the United States Court yesterday in the Los Angeles case in which the Government is endeavoring to establish a charge of conspiracy against William H. Smith, Richard Hynes, Lee R. Myers and Dr. A. H. Hedderly, of Los Angeles, and Jeremiah Huntley, of Curry County.

The afternoon session was devoted to the reading of letters which are said to have passed between the alleged conspirators and the introduction of these letters as evidence. It was stated at the opening of court yesterday morning by Attorney Marcus McLemore that the defense would prove that all of the defendants now on trial were not concerned in a conspiracy to defraud the Government, that Smith, Hedderly, Hynes and Myers were never in the state until brought here as prisoners. It was stated that it would also be shown that the Pacific Furniture & Lumber Company had a large established business before the time of the alleged conspiracy and that it had never taken part in any meetings or consultations with reference to entering lands.

Among the witnesses who took the stand was George W. Curry, a farmer who lives on Euchre Creek, Curry County. His testimony involved the late Richard D. Jones, who was manager of the lumber company, but failed to implicate the defendants on trial.

Various other witnesses were examined during the day, but little testimony was developed that had not previously been brought out in connection with the case.

The following jurors have been selected to hear the case:

John Bogwick, farmer, Washington County.
A. H. Birrell, real estate, Multnomah.
William H. Egan, farmer, Marion.
P. E. Dodele, farmer, Benton.
Christian Kocher, farmer, Clackamas.
W. G. Walker, rural mail carrier, Marion.
J. R. Kaser, grocer, Multnomah.
W. H. Smith, farmer, Clackamas.
D. E. Lefevre, farmer, Clackamas.
W. Ellison, railroad station agent, Multnomah.
Otto Hoffman, florist, Multnomah.
G. C. Peek, farmer, Benton.

MEARS TAKES SEATTLE JOB

Acquires Management of Bureau of Transportation.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—W. A. Mears, of Portland, who was recently appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to take the management and secretaryship of the newly created Bureau of Transportation, arrived in the city yesterday and immediately got to work outlining the preliminary work along organization lines.

Mr. Mears was secretary of the Portland Chamber of Commerce transportation committee for ten years. He was also secretary of the North Pacific Coast Jobbers and Manufacturers' Association, which was an alliance between the jobbers and manufacturers of Portland, Tacoma and Seattle, and for the association he brought about many freight reforms and exploited transportation service.

BARNEY LENAHAN FREE

Defeats Extradition by Habeas Corpus in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—Judge Cook today granted a writ of habeas corpus to Barney Lenahan, held on a warrant of extradition from Oregon. Lenahan, a son of ex-State Senator Lenahan, is charged with having passed a fictitious check for $22 in Portland.

Judge Cook held that the warrant was not properly obtained, as the affidavit on which it was issued was addressed to the Governor of Oregon, instead of to the Governor of California.

Lenahan is well known in this city, where he lived several years. He was employed as a piano player in different local resorts.

BRYAN COMPLETES NEBRASKA TOUR

Confident His State Will Give Him Larger Majority Than in 1896.

CHEERED BY OLD FRIENDS

Candidate Makes Vigorous Speeches in District He Once Represented in Congress—Will Resume Stump in Denver Today.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 15.—William J. Bryan closed his three-day speaking tour of his home state with a large meeting in this city tonight, feeling that Nebraska can be safely counted in the Democratic column this year by a larger majority than he received in 1896. It was a notable day, both in point of number of speeches, size of crowds addressed and the vigorous manner in which Mr. Bryan spoke to his audiences.

A large portion of the day Mr. Bryan spent in his old Congressional district, and the enthusiasm which prevailed on his tour of the state was intensified by the fact that these people gave him his first political distinction and have followed him with increasing confidence as he fought his way up the ladder.

Cheer Favorite Son.

Today they showed their affection for him by demonstrations at every station and by crowds the like of which the towns had never seen before.

Speaking began early today and continued throughout the day. More than 20 stops were made, and at each place Mr. Bryan talked longer than he had been scheduled for. His addresses were more aggressive than they have been during the week.

In discussing the panic at Tecumseh he said Republicans are threatening a panic in case of his election.

"There will be a panic in one family," he said, "and that will be the Taft family, for Mr. Taft's Federal salary will be withdrawn for the first time in more than 20 years."

After his meeting at Plattsmouth tonight Mr. Bryan took a train for Denver, where he will speak tomorrow. While physically tired, he was jubilant over the outlook in his own state.

Direct Vote on Senators.

At Fairbury, Mr. Bryan spoke 25 minutes in the Courthouse square. There also the crowd was large, although it was but 8 o'clock. Mr. Bryan made an earnest appeal for the election of the Democratic state ticket, both legislative and Congressional. At Diller, Mr. Bryan discussed the planks asking for the election of Senators by direct vote of the people and the publicity of campaign funds.

"I want a law," he said, "which will make the Republican party take the people into its confidence and let us know how heavily the Standard Oil Company, the Steel Trust, the Harvester Trust and all the other trusts have mortgaged the Republican party by campaign contributions."

At Dell, a small village, there were several hundred people at the depot. Houses were decorated with bunting and pictures of Mr. Bryan.

At Wymore the largest crowd yet encountered during the day was gathered at the depot. There were a number of railway employes present, and Mr. Bryan said the Democratic party was endeavoring to restore harmony between the employers and employes and furthering legislation so as to do exact justice to laboring man and employer.

GIVES REPUBLICANS ADVICE

Parker Says Party Needs Corrupt Practices Act.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 15.—The passage of a corrupt practices act was declared by Judge Alton B. Parker, in a speech here tonight, to be the remedy for high misdemeanors in Republican ranks. He declared that the only way to secure the passage of such an act was to elect Bryan and Kern and a Democratic Congress. In making his argument for the passage of the law, Judge Parker quoted liberally from the Roosevelt-Harriman controversy, a year or so ago, about campaign contributions. Mr. Parker declared his belief that it would be impossible to secure reform in the matter of campaign contributions from the Republicans.

"All are tied to corporations by promises to protect them," he said.

On the other hand, Mr. Bryan, he declared, had no halter around his neck, but had fought in the open for publicity of campaign contributions.

Judge Parker referred to the pledge for injunction legislation and denied that it would cripple the power of the courts. Contempt, he declared, was an act committed in the sight of the court, and it was not injustice for the judge to punish it on the spot. But to punish a man for contempt of court for the violation of an injunction was unjust, for such violations were never in sight of the trial court. Trial by jury in such cases was simple justice he declared.

The Republicans, he said, would never reform the tariff until it was compelled to publish a list of compaign contributions.

KERN DRAWS GLOOMY PICTURE

Bryan Only Man to Restore Government to People.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—John W. Kern made an address before the Commercial Travelers' Association of New York at noon today. Two conditions, said Mr. Kern, confronted the American business man; on one hand the action of mighty wealth in the hands of a few, and on the other, millions of workingmen seeking employment, and a steady lowering of the standard of living among the people by reason of increased cost of living.

"William J. Bryan is the logical man to restore the Government to the people to whom it belongs," he said. Opposed to these conditions, he said, as a result of 12 years of "Republican misrule," were the "accumulations of mighty wealth in the hands of a few, which wealth is flaunted in the faces of the people."

DENIES BUSINESS IN DANGER

Kern Given Rapturous Reception by Tammany Braves.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—"Should not the fact that men believe that a candidate for the Presidency intends, if elected, to violate the pledges made by him and his party, be a most potent reason why honest and patriotic men should withhold their support from him and his cause?

"Should the fact that a candidate for the Presidency is regarded as so honest as to be incapable of violating his platform pledges be an argument against his election?"

These questions, put by John W. Kern, Democratic nominee for the Vice-Presidency, to a crowd that filled every available foot of room in Tammany Hall tonight, were answered by an outburst of cheering.

Mr. Kern was given a warm greeting when he entered the hall and later when he was joined on the platform by Lieutenant-Governor Chanler, Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, the two men were kept busy for several minutes, bowing their acknowledgments of the plaudits of the crowd. Mr. Kern was introduced by William Sohmer, a prominent Democrat.

Mr. Kern said that no honest business interest in this country had anything to fear from the election of Mr. Bryan, but that the mission of the Democratic party was to build up business and business enterprises, not to destroy them.

Fraternity Honors Bryan.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 15.—William J. Bryan has accepted an honorary membership in Phi Alpha Tau, a National university fraternity, having for its object the encouragement of oratory. The Nebraska University Chapter today announced that Mr. Bryan would deliver his initiatory address after election.

Gompers Speaks for Bryan.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 15.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, made an address here tonight in support of Bryan for President.

Butte Bryan Headquarters.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 15.—W. B. George chairman of the Democratic state central committee, has transferred his headquarters from Helena to Butte. Butte, it is given out, is much more convenient as a basis for operations than any other town in the state.

ITALIANS CAUSE RUMPUS

Break Up Balloting on Settlement of Lasters' Strike.

LYNN, Mass., Oct. 15.—Under the protection of the entire police force of this city, the union leaders formally started tonight to declare off the strike of lasters, which for nearly two weeks has practically paralyzed the shoe manufacturing industry. The vote stood 844 in favor of calling off the strike and 480 against.

The balloting was interrupted today by about 40 Italian members of the union, who demanded a written agreement with the manufacturers.

The Italians broke open the ballot-box and threw the votes out of the window and were so vigorous in their opposition to another ballot that the executive committee this afternoon took the question of declaring the strike off without a vote under consideration, but a second ballot was finally taken.

ANTHRACITE MINERS' DEMAND

Eight-Hour Day, 10 Per Cent Increase and Check Off.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 15.—An entire new agreement will be the demand of the anthracite mine workers to the operators to replace the present working agreement, which expires April 1 next. This was the decision of the miners' convention here today. The principal demands are an eight-hour day, the "check off," providing that companies collect dues and assessments for the union, weighing of coal instead of paying by the car as at present, and a 10 per cent increase in wages on all kinds of labor.

Porto Rican Cigarmakers Win.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Oct. 15.—The strike of the 800 local cigarmakers for more pay came to an end today with a victory for the men. The employers agreed to pay $1.50 more per thousand.

LEE MAKES TALK AT MILTON

Presidential Elector Well Received in Umatilla County.

MILTON, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—J. D. Lee, Republican nominee for Presidential elector, opened the Presidential campaign here last evening at the Davis Opera-House to a good sized audience. He discussed the pending issues in an able and forcible manner and his speech was well received. The sentiment in this community is rapidly crystallizing in Taft's favor, and there is no doubt that the Taft electors will receive a large majority in this city.

McGinn to Speak in Albany.

ALBANY, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Henry E. McGinn, the well-known Portland attorney and ex-State Senator from Multnomah County, will speak in Albany next Saturday evening in the interests of the Republican candidates for President and Vice-President. It will be the first speech of the campaign in this city.

Taft Rally Monday at Eugene.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The first Republican rally of the Fall campaign will be here Monday night when R. R. Butler, of Condon, and Henry McKinney, of Baker City, will address the citizens of Eugene. Friday evening the Republicans of the student body of the University of Oregon will organize a Taft Club.

Weston Hears J. D. Lee.

WESTON, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—J. D. Lee addressed a large and enthusiastic audience here tonight, speaking under the auspices of the Republican State Central Committee. Mr. Lee's address was an able argument for Taft.

CITY CLAIMS NO BLAME

Alleges Miss Anderson Was Injured on Private Property.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—City Attorney Abercrombie and G. C. Fulton have prepared the answer in the case of Miss Annie Anderson, of Portland, against the City of Astoria, a suit to recover $30,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained by falling on Eleventh street, near the regatta grandstand on the evening of September 2, 1907, and it will be filed at once in the Federal Court at Portland.

The answer, in addition to making a general denial of the allegations contained in the complaint, asserts that the place where the accident occurred was not a street, had never been improved by the city, but that it was used for a private wharf and railway line by the owners, the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company, upon which whatever duty there was to keep the place in repair for public use, rests entirely and not upon the city.

Night School to Open.

The public night school, conducted by the Board of Education, will open the regular term at the Portland High School building next Monday night. Last year there were 1200 pupils enrolled in this branch, and it is expected that this number will be greatly increased this year. In addition to the regular courses of reading, language and other common school departments, a high school course, embracing a system of rapid mental calculation for clerks, will also be taught.

THAW MAY TESTIFY

Obstacles to Trip to Pittsburg Being Removed.

WRIT SERVED ON KEEPER

Federal Court Summons Man of Brain Storms to Testify in Bankruptcy Proceedings — Promises Return to Asylum.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—It was announced here tonight that Harry K. Thaw might go to Pittsburg next Sunday morning, soon afterward to testify in connection with the bankruptcy proceedings now pending against him in that city. This information was given out after a conference had been held by Dr. Amos Baker, assistant superintendent of the Matteawan Asylum, where Thaw is confined, and Asa Bird Gardener, special representative of the Attorney-General, appointed to take charge of the Thaw case in behalf of the state.

A writ issued by the United States Court in Pennsylvania, commanding Dr. Robert E. Lamb, superintendent of the Matteawan Hospital, to produce Thaw in Pittsburg was served on Dr. Lamb today and Dr. Baker, his assistant, hastened to New York from Fishkill Landing, where the hospital is located, to consult with Mr. Gardener also about the writ. In the meantime Albert H. Meyer, Thaw's attorney, and Rober O'Meara, a friend and business agent of the Thaw family, had seen Mr. Gardener and explained to him the purpose of the new writ.

Mr. Gardener had objected to a previous writ issued by the Pennsylvania court, demanding the production of Thaw in Pittsburg, and the special Attorney-General had succeeded in having the writ dismissed, so that Thaw's representatives had a new writ issued and they expected to have Mr. Gardener comply with the form.

Mr. Gardener says that the Thaw representatives have promised not to put any obstacles in the way of having Thaw returned to New York in case he appears in Pittsburg and, as this was the main contention against the prisoner's being taken there, Mr. Gardener says he does not see how he can successfully oppose the new writ.

BEAVERS DRAFT PITCHER

Edgar Higgins, Who Made Good With Bloomington, Chosen.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The Bloomington association was advised today by National Secretary J. H. Farrell, of the National Association, that Edward Higgins, of Dwight, who was star pitcher with Bloomington this year, has been drafted by Portland, Or. This was Higgins' first season as a professional. Higgins was recommended by Pitcher Kinsella, of the Portland team. He ranked among the most effective twirlers in the "Three-Eye" this season.

Edward Higgins, mentioned in the foregoing, is a youngster of considerable promise whose work has been watched by McCredie all season. He is only one of several young players whose drafting is likely to be announced any day. McCredie has about 20 of these youngsters in view, and from them he hopes to develop a first-class team for next season.

GATES LUCKY MAN AGAIN

"Swiftwater Bill," of Alaska Fame, Makes Another Stake in Nevada.

SPOKANE Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—"Swiftwater Bill" Gates, the Alaskan miner, whose love affairs and matrimonial ventures have brought him as much notoriety as his acquisition and loss of several fortunes, arrived in Spokane Sunday from one of the boom mining camps in Nevada, where he is said to have made another stake.

On the very day he arrived here, his divorced wife, Bera-Beebe-Gates-Cook committed suicide at Valdez, Alaska. "Swiftwater" says he came here to invest some of his new-made wealth in this part of the state.

It is an old story now that nervous people tell of how the blood became thin and poor and then the nervous symptoms followed.

How many correctly guess that the thin blood was responsible for the nervous disorder?

The nerves get all their nourishment through the blood and as thin blood is deficient in nerve-building material, the nerves become starved. Pain and nervous breakdown result.

Don't wash and scrub, bend and rub over a hot wash tub; sift a little GOLD DUST in the water, loosen the dirt, and save rubbing

Soap is not a bit of cleansing good until it is mixed with water and made into suds. And then it still needs the rub-rub-rub of human muscle.

GOLD DUST works in an entirely different way—instantly and totally dissolves in hot or cold, hard or soft water—and, without any aid from you, starts to cleanse.

GOLD DUST is more than soap—better and more economical. It is a powder of magic power—but rightly directed power, that leaves the wash white, sweet, wholesome.

Use your brains, not your muscle!

Throw away your soap, get GOLD DUST, and simply use it according to the directions on the package.

"Let the GOLD DUST Twins do your work."
