

COSGROVE TO GIVE JOBS TO FRIENDS

Proposes to Reward Those Who Helped Him Win Nomination.

NO PLEDGES TILL ELECTED

Washington's Next Governor Will Not Make Appointments Until He Goes to Olympia in January. Now Resting at His Home.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—During my administration as Governor the appointive offices under the state administration are going to be filled by my friends, says Samuel G. Cosgrove, Republican nominee for Governor, at his home in Pomeroy, tonight to a staff representative of the Spokesman-Review. "While I have given little attention as yet to the question of appointments, I have decided upon this much, and I propose to carry it into execution. "It may not be good politics for me to make this announcement at this time, but nevertheless it is the policy which I propose to follow, and you are at liberty to report it to the people of the state.

Will Not Forget His Friends.

"In the first place I am determined to have in the appointive offices of the state men who are in sympathy with me and with whom I am in sympathy. This is necessary in an efficient and harmonious administration. In the second place, I am not the man to make a race for an office and receive the enthusiastic, energetic and self-sacrificing support of my friends and then, after I have won out for myself, forget my friends.

Confined to His Home.

While Mr. Cosgrove has been overwhelmed with offers for appointments to offices under his administration, he has as yet given no attention to the matter of selecting appointees, nor does he expect to do so until after the election, probably not until after he goes to Olympia in January.

Mr. Cosgrove is confined to his home with an illness resulting from the long and serious strain of his primary campaign. "I have decided not to take any further part in the campaign," said Mr. Cosgrove.

STARTS LIVELY CAMPAIGN

Clark County Committee to Put Speakers in Every Precinct.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The executive committee of the Republican County Central Committee met yesterday with the Republican county candidates, W. E. Green, elected treasurer of the committee and Frank Eichenlaub secretary. Arrangements were made for the raising of funds and plans are now under way for the carrying on of a vigorous campaign between now and November 3. The first Republican rally will be held at the Auditorium Friday evening and United States Senator Samuel H. Piles will speak.

"We intend," said County Chairman A. J. Egan, "to hold a regular political meeting in every precinct in the county within the next two weeks, and in some of the precincts we'll hold more than one meeting. We are going to have all our Republican candidates get out over the county and get acquainted with the voters."

GRAYS HARBOR PROSPERS

New Railroads and Mills Give Impetus to Growth.

HOQUIAM, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—In round numbers, Hoquiam's registration for the coming election shows 1700 registered voters as against 1440 one year ago, when every voter registered during the county division fight.

and an optimistic feeling generally pervades the harbor country. With new steam and electric railway lines an assured fact, and with new mills building in and adjacent to the harbor cities, it is conservatively predicted that Hoquiam, Aberdeen and Cosmopolis will be consolidated at no distant date with an approximate population of no less than 75,000.

MONTANA SURE FOR TAFT

Cushman Says Cattle and Stock Men Are Solid for Republican.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Taft is sure to carry Montana, said Francis W. Cushman, who has just returned from campaigning in that state. "From my personal observations I am certain that the cattle and sheepmen of the state are a unit for the Republican nominee, and this assures Taft winning."

MANAGER OF GRAYS HARBOR STEVEDORING COMPANY.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Captain Ralph Peasley, manager of the new Grays Harbor Stevedoring Company, is one of the best-known shippers on the Pacific Coast. FRUIT DISPLAY SURPRISES

White Salmon Fair Brings Out Remarkable Exhibits.

TWO PRISONERS ESCAPE

Make Getaway While Taken to Jail by South Bend Officers.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—During the last two days two men have escaped from custody in this city and are now supposed to be in hiding in the woods back of town. The first was F. E. Erb, a recent arrival who had been for a short time in the employ of Contractor L. B. Larson. He had passed a number of worthless checks and was caught on the steamer Reliable about to cross the bay for Nahcotta. He was brought ashore but before an officer could be called, he gave his captors the slip and took to the hills. It is possible to go from here to the mouth of the Columbia by trail and he has probably taken that route.

Rain Regarded as Godsend.

MONTESANO, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The steady rain that has been falling for the last few days has been a godsend to this vicinity. The water in the dam and reservoir of the Montezano Light & Water Company was lower than it had been for years. The electric lights of the town would have been shut off in a short time if it had not rained, and the city would have been in bad shape in case of fire.

BALLOT PLAN UPSET

No Place for Names of Non-Partisan Judiciary.

COURT'S RULING CONFUSES

Names Can't Go in Party Columns and No Provision Is Made for Them Elsewhere—County Auditors Very Much Puzzled.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—A decision by the Attorney-General as to printing names of nonpartisan judiciary candidates on the official ballots has apparently been shattered by recent decision of the State Supreme Court on the direct primary law, and in consequence Auditors all over the state are "up in the air" regarding printing the ballots.

Original Plan Upset.

Had this been the case, Mr. Knickerbocker pointed out a voter could mark an X at the head of the ticket of one of these minority parties and his vote would count as a vote for the minority party candidate for judge. The ruling of either party ticket would be counted a vote for the nonpartisan judges. To justify this holding Knickerbocker ruled that the primary law had repealed the old statute which prohibited the name of any candidate appearing more than once on the ballot.

Problem Up to Auditors.

In the direct primary opinion the Supreme Court has held that Socialists, Prohibitionists and others cannot have their judicial nominations printed on the official ballot and naturally this destroys the basis for the Assistant Attorney-General's opinion.

Rob Store for Third Time

Burglars Effect Entrance Into Warehouse From River Side.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—For the third time in two years the hardware store of Board & Stokes was robbed on Wednesday night. An entrance was effected through a rear door of the store after the warehouse had been reached from the river, the robbers evidently having come in a boat. Fifty-three boxes were bored in the door with a brace and bit to cut a hole large enough to admit a medium-sized man, this work probably taking fully an hour. Then four rifles and six revolvers were taken as well as some ammunition, and the escape was made in the same way through the rear.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—After rectifying how the State Bank of Washington, capitalized at $25,000, was organized with but $1000 in real money, the Supreme Court has held that five-fifths of the capital stock had been paid in, the State Supreme Court has affirmed the judgment of the Spokane Superior Court by which the receiver of the State Bank will recover $10,000 and interest from the Farmers and Mechanics Bank of Spokane.

Men with Money Needed

No Room for Immigrants Without Means, Says Labor Commissioner.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—That common laborers without capital are not wanted as immigrants to Oregon is the answer Labor Commissioner O. P. All districts of the valley are represented with big exhibits. Mosier has 50 boxes and White Salmon 50.

Mosier and White Salmon Contest With Handsome Spitzbergs and Yellow Newtowns—Professor Lewis to Judge Exhibits.

Apples from the Little Lady Apple, the enormous Wolf River variety, almost as large as a small sized pumpkin, combine their red and yellow hues in a gorgeous picture that has never before been equaled at Hood River. Enormous three-tier Spitzbergs, blood red Winter Bananas, Yellow Newtowns and all the other varieties that grow to perfection in this district of Oregon and Washington are lined up side by side waiting for the verdict of the judges and the admiration of visitors.

The exhibits were not fully placed until this evening, and the judging of the fruit will not take place until tomorrow. Rain this morning made the attendance light, but the streets and exhibition building were well filled. The weather cleared up this afternoon and it is expected that tomorrow will see an immense number of visitors at the fair.

STEINWAY

Be the last word to be said of great pianos.

It has made possible the true expression of all that is noble and truly great in music. Through its unrivaled beauty of tone, its power and its brilliancy, it has given character and reputation to the great master minds of music since the days of Liszt.

It has been the medium through which the divine beauty of all music has found its expression, and it has made the reputation of every great musician the modern school has known.

The Steinway piano is the heart-throb of all that is distinctly soulful in music. Masters of music come and go, but the majesty of the Steinway tone lives on from generation to generation.
