Once again society, with its women handsomely gowned and its men smartly groomed, paid homage to the King of Portland just as the horse and the audience that journeyed to the Oriental building at the Lewis and Clark Fairgrounds was larger by at least 1000 than yesterday. The programme offered for the second day of the Hunt Club Horse Show was even better if such a thing were possible, than that of the first day, and beyond a doubt the gowns worn by the women were even handsomer than those worn on the opening night.

The programmes shown in the afternoon and in the evening held the attention of every other country. Nothing more interested became the throng that they were loath to leave when the last class was shown. The masterful high jumper of every other country. Nothing more interested became the throng that they were loath to leave when the last class was shown. The masterful high jumper of every other country.

Club Will Make No Money. Last year when the Hunt Club served notice that it was to hold a Horse Show, there was doubt in the minds of many that it would be successful. It was not from a financial point for the Hunt Club, but it was as a show. This year the doubt is gone.

High School Drill Good. The high school drill was a fine exhibition of riding and high school drill. The high school drill was a fine exhibition of riding and high school drill.

Prizes for Draft Horses. The evening programme opened with horses used in business, both in the delivery service and in the heavy teaming, and they shared honors with the aristocratic equines used for pleasure and display.

Mrs. Considine Help Show. Mrs. J. W. Considine, whose entries have done much to add to the show, not only rode the handsome horse she and her son have shown, but by her driving as well, won the blue in the tandem class, with Sunshine and Belle Brandon. During the exhibition in the ring the team was in difficulty several times, because the traces on the leader were too long, but in spite of this they were over Mr. Farrer's. The Premier and Merry Widow, J. S. Crane added another ribbon to his collection, when Halle C. won the blue in the class for trotters. The red went to D. E. Frederick's Helen.

The judges had 15 entries to judge in the ladies' saddle class, but in keeping with the exceedingly fine work of Mr. Hobart and Mr. Beylard, the blue ribbon was properly placed. It went to Iva J., owned by R. H. Jenkins, and ridden by Miss Belle Jenkinson.

Duchess, owned by M. L. Holbrook, and ridden by James Nicol, won the red, and Oregon Boy, owned and ridden by Miss Sally J. Leadbetter, was awarded the yellow. Jack of Diamonds, owned by Mrs. C. H. Lewis and ridden by Mrs. A. A. Cronin, won the white. Miss Sally J. Leadbetter, driving Lady Tuck, owned by Mrs. F. W. Leadbetter, also won the blue ribbon in the class for phaetons driven by a lady. Mrs. J. W. Considine also added to her collection of blue ribbons with Sunshine and Belle Brandon in the class for pairs to be shown to a lady's phaeton.

Beylard Drives Four-in-Hand.

Only one four-in-hand was shown in class 36, but in spite of this, the audience was vastly interested in this event because Mr. Beylard, who is without question one of the best whips in the country, took the box and drove. The four was F. W. Leadbetter's Lady Tuck, Lord Nip, Monte Christo and Belle Brandon. Mr. Beylard gave an exhibition of handling fours that but few in the city have ever witnessed. It is no wonder that Mr. Beylard received the continuous applause of the audience, and was cheered from the men who knew, who were in the background.

The sporting tandem was something new and novel for Portland. There were three entries in this class, which called for hunters in the lead of the teams. E. H. Laxson, who is a handsome and sporty, with the clever driving of his tandem team and his jumping of Juan Balardo, won the blue. The red went to F. W. Leadbetter. Mr. Leadbetter's driving was far from his usual form and several times he was in difficulty with his leader, Monte Christo take the blue ribbon in the class for pairs to be shown to a lady's phaeton. The yellow went to T. T. Strain, who drove well and who fenced beautifully with Anti-Pope.

Ponies Refuse Hurdles. In the children's pony class, under saddle, the blue went to Master J. W. Considine's Quality Queen, Buster received the yellow and Bonnie, ridden by Miss Margaret Kerr, the red. The white ribbon was awarded to the yellow, ridden by Master George T. Willett. The hurdle-jumping, by members of the Juvenile Hunt Club, was a keen disappointment to the youngsters, and the riders of the ponies over the jumps in vain. In spite of the refusal of several of the ponies to take the jumps, the spectators were full of admiration for the quick and daring shown by the little riders. In this class the blue went to Flaxy, owned and jumped by Master Don Tarpley. Apache Bill, Q. A. Daniels, second; Tommy, Leo Garuh, third; Bonnie, Richard Wilmut, fourth.

Miss Leadbetter Gets Two Blues. Mrs. F. W. Leadbetter's handsome pair of blacks, driven by Miss Sally J. Leadbetter, won the blue ribbon in the class for the best pair to be driven by ladies. Pitted against Mrs. Leadbetter's pair was Lady Arva and Lord Nelson, driven by Miss Bernice Baker, of Tacoma. The blue went to Mrs. Leadbetter's Lady Tuck and Lord Nip. There was only one entry in class 30, for a horse driven to a rumber phaeton, and the blue was awarded to Mrs. F. W. Leadbetter's Lady Tuck, also driven by Miss Sally J. Leadbetter.

The speed class for pacers brought forth a number of marvellous entries, and Paul Westinger's Hal B. won the blue over his famous black mare Alta Cora. The red ribbon in this class went to Crockett, owned by A. L. Fowler, and the yellow to Alta Cora, Lizzy C., owned by Frank J. Richardson, was awarded the white.

Children's Events in Afternoon. The afternoon programme contained several events in which children exhibited their ponies, both under saddle and in harness. First was under saddle, and the kiddies excelled, and once more the proud boast was made good that the City of Portland had more children riders and better riders than any other city in the United States. Even the judges, who both have had world-wide experience at horse shows, both at home and abroad, were agreed that the youngsters in this class were the best in the country.

The real surprise of the afternoon, however, came when the horses suitable for cavalry purposes were judged and Wallace L., owned by J. W. Porter, of Vancouver, Wash., won the blue ribbon over Joe Jewett, owned by Scott Brooks, who rode his blue ribbon both at Seattle and Portland last year in this same class, at which, of course, Wallace L. was not shown.

Mrs. J. W. Considine, driving her high-stepping miniature mare, Sunshine, was given the blue ribbon in the girl class. Miss Farrell, driving Merry Widow, received the red and Miss Baker with Lady Arva, received the yellow.
