COMING ELECTION ABSORBS NATION

Dozens of States to Vote Upon New Laws and Amendments to Their Constitutions.

ELECT 31 NEW SENATORS

Socialists Have Tickets in 27 States, Prohibitionists in 21, While Hearst's Independence Party Figures in 12.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Elections will be held in the various states and in the territories of Arizona and New Mexico November 3. Three states, Oregon, Maine and Vermont, have held their state elections, and have named members of the next Congress—the first Arkansas and Georgia have named state officers only and will select Congressmen at the coming election. In 28 states Governors or other state officers are to be elected; a number of these states will also elect members of the Legislature. Six states will choose justices of the Supreme Court or minor state officers. In seven, Congressmen only are to be elected, and in two, Congressmen and a Legislature only.

The terms of 31 United States Senators, 15 Republicans and 15 Democrats, expire March 3, 1909. Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana and Maryland have chosen Democrats, and Kentucky a Republican, while Vermont has chosen a Legislature which will name two Republicans. The present Senate is composed of 31 Republicans and 31 Democrats.

New Members for Lower House. Members of the National House of Representatives are to be elected. Oregon and Maine have already chosen Republican Representatives. In some of the Southern states Democrats only have been nominated, while in others Prohibition, Socialist and Independence party nominees will oppose Republicans and Democrats. The present House is composed of 331 members, 223 Republicans and 108 Democrats. There are two vacancies.

South Carolina, as usual, has only one ticket—the Democratic—for state officers. Louisiana also has but one ticket—the Democratic. In this state, however, a Justice of the Supreme Court and a Railroad Commissioner are the only state officers to be elected.

The Prohibition party has tickets in 21 states the Socialists in 27, the Independence party in 12, the Socialist Labor party in 8 and the People's or Populist party in 5, including Nebraska, where they have fused with the Democrats.

The number of tickets in the different states is: 1, South Carolina and Louisiana; 2, Alabama and North Carolina; 3, Delaware, Florida, Montana, New Hampshire, Oklahoma and North Dakota; 4, Colorado, Nevada, Rhode Island,

South Dakota, Utah, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin; 5, Connecticut, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New York, North Carolina and Nebraska; 6, Indiana, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan, New York and Texas; 7, Ohio. The Prohibitionists have tickets in Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New York, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

The Socialist party has tickets in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nevada, New York, Ohio and Texas.

The People's or Populist party has tickets in Indiana, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska and Ohio.

The Socialist Labor in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Michigan, New York, Ohio and Texas.

One Party and One Ticket. The American party has one ticket in Utah.

In 23 states a total of 90 proposed constitutional amendments, laws, questions or propositions will be voted upon. This does not include Michigan, where a revision of the present constitution will be submitted to the voters for adoption or rejection. The number of amendments or questions in the different states is: 1, Iowa, Texas, Wyoming; 2, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Rhode Island, Washington, West Virginia; 3, Alabama, Colorado, Florida, Ohio; 4, Minnesota, Wisconsin; 5, North Dakota, Oregon; 6, South Dakota; 7, Missouri; 9, Louisiana; 15, California.

The amendments or proposed laws of several states are of general interest. In South Dakota, the question of repealing the "one-year-residence" act, which was passed by the last Legislature in order to stop rapid divorces, will be submitted to the voters. Formerly, suit for divorce could be brought after a six months' residence in the state. Opposition to this short term of residence resulted, and the one-year act was passed. The latter has been objected to in certain quarters, and petitions finally were secured for the submission of the one-year act to a vote of the people at the coming election.

In Illinois the question of a Lake-to-the-Gulf deep waterway will be before the people in the form of a constitutional amendment authorizing the state to issue bonds of $20,000,000 for the enterprise.

A proposed income tax will be voted upon in four states, South Dakota, North Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Reform in California. California is one of the latest of the states to agitate election reform. To the people there will be submitted a proposed amendment, among others, empowering the Legislature to enact a direct primary law providing for the direct nomination of all candidates for public office.

Church for Overflow School. ALBANY, Or., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—To relieve the congestion in Albany's three public schools, the Congregational Church will be used at a school-room, beginning tomorrow morning. This will partially relieve the overcrowding due to the rapid growth of the local schools, but it will be necessary to erect a new school building here next year.

BRING FRUIT HERE

Prize Winners to Be on Display in Portland.

MOSIER EXHIBIT COMING

Spokane National Apple Show Will Also Secure Large Part of Hood River Apple Exhibit—Photographers Busy Last Day.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—The wind-up of the big Hood River fruit fair took place today and exhibitors or those who bought the fruit are busy packing it up for shipment. The large Mosier display, which was the only place outside of Hood River to take any prizes, was bought by Dresser and Sealy & Mason and will be placed on exhibition by them in their show windows in Portland. They also have bought several other exhibits and will display them. The rest of the fruit has been bought by various buyers, who made a scramble for it as soon as the awards were made.

Some of the features brought out in the aftermath of the fair were the winning of a prize cup by a box of Jonathan grown on three-year-old trees owned by Davidson Bros., the winning of four cups each by J. L. Carter and M. C. Hill, the former taking six prizes altogether, and an exhibition of apples from the orchard of B. R. Tucker, taken from 12-year-old trees that last year averaged him 1500 an acre profit.

A placard on a small exhibit grown by A. I. Mason, who has always been a star exhibitor, reads:

The balance of this exhibit may be seen at Liberty Home orchard, where 55 white employees are now picking, wiping and packing 6000 boxes of Spitzenberg and Newtown apples, to be shipped to New York for export trade. Strangers are welcome visitors. Yours respectfully, A. I. MASON.

Carson, a fertile little valley in Skamania County, sent an exhibit which attracted favorable comment. Included in the lists of entries were fruits, vegetables, grains and grasses, all indicative of the resources of this new section of Washington now being developed by the completion of the North Bank road. Roswell Shelby was in charge of the display from Carson.

A large part of the Hood River exhibit will be shipped to Spokane for display of the National Apple Show in that city December 7 to 12. H. J. Neely, a representative of the National Apple Show, was in attendance at the Hood River fair and distributed hundreds of National Apple Show buttons and boosted for Spokane's big fair. Mr. Neely met with a number of the Hood River exhibitors and arranged that the fruit now on display here should be placed in cold storage and shipped in December to Spokane.

White Salmon growers have agreed to send several hundred boxes to the Spokane show, and with nearly 1000 boxes from Hood River, this part of the apple-growing section of the Pacific Northwest will be well represented at the National Apple Show.

Photographers were busy today getting pictures of the displays and tomorrow will see the last of the magnificent exhibit on its way to many places to tell the story of the Oregon apple.

WOMEN ENTER PLEA

With Ballot They Could Help Suffering Toilers.

IN SESSION AT BUFFALO

National Suffrage Association Convenes in 40th Annual Convention—Addresses Made by Prominent Women.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 18.—What woman with the ballot in her hand could do toward alleviating the hardships and suffering in the industrial world, due to injustice and inequality, was told to an industrial mass-meeting at the Star Theater today by delegates to the fortieth annual convention of the National American Women Suffrage Association.

President Anna Shaw said that every human being should be given the opportunity to toll; that God's greatest gift to the human race was when He sent man forth into the world to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow.

Miss Jean M. Gordon, factory inspector for the Parish of Orleans, New Orleans, was introduced by President Shaw as an industrious young woman whom the politicians of New Orleans sought to have removed, but still retains her office, doing splendid work for the poor.

Miss Gordon's appeal was to the privileged young women of America for a democratic spirit of "noblesse oblige" to replace the self-indulgence of now almost useless lives, and the attitude of "Ladies Bountiful" charity with which so many, as she put it, are now apparently satisfied. "Picture to yourself what it would mean to this country," she said, "if thousands of young women who now spend day after day with no definite object to work toward, would awaken to the debt they owe before leaving the world so much better for their having been here, and decide that from out of the fulness which has descended upon them, they would give back to the world an equal value in public service."

Harriet Stanton Blach, of New York, made an eloquent plea for more attention to the industrial training of young girls who are going out into the world to work. She took exception to the expression "lower class," and said that some of the grandest characters she knew had the workshop for their alma mater and the trade unions for a post-graduate course.

The report of the committee on industrial problems affecting women and children was given by Florence Kelley, of New York. She said in part:

"Votes for working-women mean shorter hours. Eight hours for men, 10 hours for children, unlimited hours for women—such is our practice today in an increasing number of states. Reducing hours for all workers would do more to reduce the tuberculosis than all the crusades against it that are going on in the world today."

"Working-women have the working-day of eight hours only in the four states in which they vote—Colorado, Idaho, Utah and Wyoming. Eight hours for men, 10 for children, unlimited hours for women will continue in practice until working-women themselves help to elect the judges who now annual the statutes enacted to protect women and children."

Will Be Given Assistance in Smith Suit if He Asks for It.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU

Washington, Oct. 18.—Secretary Garfield and Assistant Attorney-General Woodruff, of the Interior Department, in line with the urgent request of S. A. D. Pater, during his recent visit to Washington, have had a conference with Attorney-General Bonaparte with regard to procurement of special counsel to handle the C. A. Smith land case when it gets into court on the Government's suit to recover title to about 100 quarter sections of valuable timber land in Linn and Lane counties in Oregon.

Attorney-General Bonaparte told Interior Department officials that he believed District Attorney McCourt would be able to handle the case, for his conduct of office since assuming control, had been eminently satisfactory to the Department of Justice, and McCourt is regarded as fully competent to conduct a suit of this importance, involving from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 worth of land. However, the Attorney-General said he recognized the importance of making the very strongest showing in the suit, and he promised immediately to ascertain definitely whether McCourt can handle this case himself or whether he desires assistance.

Special counsel is required arrangements will be made later.
