POLICE SHOW UP GRAFTER

Man With Alleged Half Arm Found to Be Sound.

Ed Haskew and R. H. McKain, two vagrants picked up by Detective Hellyer Saturday night, appeared before Municipal Judge Van Zante yesterday and both were found guilty and sentenced to three months on the rockpile. Haskew attempted a mendacious dodge which was easily solved by the police. When arrested he wore on his right wrist a leather shield which he claimed protected the stump of his arm. However the police desired to see the stump, and when the shield was forcibly removed, a perfect hand was found. He had been working this dodge for several days until suspected by the detectives and taken into custody. He cursed viciously when extended the sentence by the court.

The annual wear and tear on the world's currency is estimated at two tons of gold and 100 tons of silver.
