

MRS. HAIN'S MAJESTIC CAPTAIN'S BROTHER

In Reply to Divorce Suit, Wife Says Husband's Crime Is Due to Jenkins Hains.

LATTER SWORE REVENGE

Woman Declares in Anger He Wrote Letter to Her Husband, Accusing Her of Intimacy With Annis.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Hains' affidavit in reply to her husband's divorce suit was made public today. In it she declared that when Captain Hains returned from San Francisco to Port Hancock on Sandy Hook on May 25 last, he accused her of intimacy with William E. Annis, basing his allegations on a letter which Captain Hains said he had received from his brother, Thomas Jenkins Hains.

Repeats Accusations.

The following day, Mrs. Hains said, her husband went to call on his father, General P. C. Hains. He returned at 2 A. M. on June 1, and, pulling her out of bed, again accused her of having had relations with Annis and threatened to shoot her.

Ordered Her Out of House.

"My husband told me," Mrs. Hains declared, "that I would have to get out of the house the next day and, if my mother would not take me, I should go and live with my brother. My husband dropped his pistol on the floor, his brother said: 'Save that for the other party.'"

Continuing, Mrs. Hains denied that she had been guilty of any impropriety with Mr. Annis and concluded:

"I believe that my husband's act and the charges which he made against me have been prompted by his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, who threatened to injure me for refusing his advances. He endeavored several times, while my husband was away, to make me go so far as to enter my room. I repulsed him and he declared that he would be revenged."

The application of Mrs. Claudia Hains for attorney and counsel fees to defend a suit for divorce brought by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., awaiting trial for killing William E. Annis, was denied by Justice Carr in Brooklyn today.

JAPAN WELCOMES FLEET

Understanding between Japan and America and to give the visiting Americans an insight into the real attitude of Japan towards America. It is absolutely certain that already the desired effect upon the Americans has been produced. Since the arrival of the fleet not a single unpleasant incident has occurred, though the sailors of both fleets are swarming through the towns about Yokohama and Tokio. Speaking at the dinner given by Ambassador O'Brien last night, Admiral Sperry said that he was unable to account for the perfect way in which the reception to himself and his men had been carried out, but that it certainly surpassed anything of the kind that he had ever seen.

Battleship Maine Arrives After Encircling Whole Globe.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 18.—The battleship Maine, after making a circuit of the globe, was sighted off the entrance to Portsmouth harbor at 7 A. M. today. Under the command of Admiral Sperry, she sailed from Honolulu, Hawaii, on her voyage around the world. She was accompanied by the auxiliary cruiser USS Albatross, and the transport USS Albatross. The Maine was the first of a new class of battleships, and is the largest and most powerful of her class. She is the only battleship in the world that has encircled the globe.

TALK ON MAN'S BROTHERHOOD

O'Brien's Speech at Banquet to Officers of Two Navies.

TOKIO, Oct. 18.—With the assembled flag of the Japanese and American Navies as his guests and audience, Thomas J. O'Brien, the American Ambassador to Japan, tonight delivered a stirring address, urging that the fleets of warships be regarded as the assurance and instruments of peace, and declaring the visit of the American battleships to Japan to be an "exalted lesson in the international school of the brotherhood of man." The most cordial and gratifying sentiments were exchanged by the guests at the banquet, which was held at the Imperial Hotel and attended by the Admirals and higher officers of the two navies.

ALL IS SUBTERFUGE

Attorneys Charge About Scheme to Remove Thaw.

INCOMPETENT TO TESTIFY

Federal Judge at Pittsburgh Hears Argument on Motion to Secure Thaw's Testimony—Still Insane, Says Gardener.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 19.—After hearing the motions and arguments today in the proceedings having for their ostensible object the bringing here of Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, to testify in the voluntary bankruptcy petition filed several months ago, Judge Young, of the United States District Court, late today reserved until 10 o'clock tomorrow his decision in the two principal points raised in today's proceedings.

Asks Dismissal of Writ.

A. B. Gardener, Special Deputy Attorney-General of the State of New York, came here today to oppose the bringing of Thaw to Pennsylvania and moved for the dismissal of the writ issued by Judge Archbold. Mr. Gardener, answering both the court and the attorneys for Thaw, said he would not take his motion before Judge Archbold, holding that jurisdiction rested with this district and that Judge Archbold had merely acted for Judge Young during the latter's absence; that he would reserve his motion until the grand jury had met and he had had the opportunity to file a petition in bankruptcy, and, being incompetent to testify in bankruptcy proceedings.

INCOMPETENT TO TESTIFY

As to bringing Thaw here, Mr. Gardener argued that Thaw had twice been adjudged insane in the courts of New York and was held under successful guardianship in the custody of the criminal insane in the custody of the state; that, being an insane person, he was incompetent to file a petition in bankruptcy, and, being incompetent to testify in bankruptcy proceedings.

DANGEROUS TO MOVE THAW

Asylum Superintendent Says Mental Condition Not Improved.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—In his reply to Judge Young of the Western District of Pennsylvania on the question whether Harry K. Thaw should be removed from the Matamoras asylum to Pittsburgh, Robert B. Lamb, superintendent of the asylum, declared today that Thaw is still insane and that it would be dangerous to transport him to Pittsburgh. Dr. Lamb also asserted that he had found no mental improvement in Thaw since he was committed to the asylum.

MODJESKI FAVORS BRIDGE

that the members shall attend this morning's meeting. Mr. Modjeski reached Portland from the East yesterday morning, and registered at the Hotel Portland, and he inspected the Spokane, Portland & Seattle bridges across the Columbia and Willamette Rivers, both of which he designed and supervised during their construction. Completing his business there, he returned to the city, and at 4 o'clock appeared at City Hall, where he was consulted with City Engineer Taylor for a short time, and with whom he filed the report. He left a copy of the report with each member of the City Council, and will be considered at this morning's session.

The arrival of Mr. Modjeski in the city created great interest, especially among those more directly interested in the projected new bridge and subway. While the report is still voluminous and the details are being dealt chiefly with the two proposed bridges and the tube.

de Gogorza

A Great Artist And a Great Piano

As during his triumphant tour of several years ago, de Gogorza, the far-famed baritone, again requests and will continue to have the use of the Chickering Piano. The mere mention of "Chickering Piano Used Exclusively" in connection with de Gogorza recital, as with Comrie's Metropolitan Quartet, whose gracious acknowledgment, signed by each one of the artists, is published herewith, is of more than passing interest.

More Chickering Laurels—Warm Words of Praise From People Who Know

Gentlemen:--

Before leaving your beautiful city we feel it our duty to express to you in a few hurried words a mite of the gratitude and satisfaction we feel for your firm supplying us not only the magnificent Chickering Grand Pianos for the various concerts, but also the thoroughly magnificent Chickering that we have been using in our respective apartments at the hotel here.

We have become very much attached to the exquisite tone of these truly superb instruments. They certainly leave nothing to be desired in meeting our requirements in every way.

Wishing you every success, and again thanking you, we are Very sincerely yours,

Hear of Struggle in Oregon and Will Send English Delegates to Watch Voting in Denver.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Mrs. Philip Snowden, of England, tonight addressed an open session of the National American Woman Suffrage Association. Mrs. Snowden presented the cause of the English women in such a favorable light that the crowd rose and cheered her for her views. Resolutions extending sympathy and good wishes to the women of England were adopted with rousing cheers, in which both men and women joined.

OREGON CITY, Oct. 19.—(Special)

The regular apportionment of state and county funds among the various school districts of Clackamas County has just been made, and the disbursements total $48,908.63. There are 8803 pupils of school age in Clackamas, and for each one there was apportioned $5.50, in addition to $50 that each district receives and the money for teachers' attendance at institutes.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 19.—(Special)

Enraged because the Evening Statesman published a story of his alleged domestic infidelity, specifying that on Friday evening last he had deserted his wife and children to accompany another woman to the fair grounds, L. L. Boise, at an early hour this morning, smashed the entire plate glass front of the Statesman office. A few minutes before 4 o'clock this morning Boise left home, kissed his wife and children, seemingly in the best of humor. Previously he stated to Policeman Buck that he would clean the newspaper out. Employees of the Morning Union were just quitting work when they were startled by the sound of the broken glass falling to the pavement. They hurried out, but Boise threatened them with life if he was molested.

Patrolman Charles Andre and Sergeant Frank Morse

soon became engaged in a fight with Boise, which ended in the latter landing in the city jail. He has been charged with non-support of wife and family.
