MAY CHANGE POLICY

Grain Rules of Board of Trade Are Discussed.

SUPPORT NOT GENERAL

Question of Abolishing Trading in Futures Will Be Put to a Vote of the Members in the Near Future.

Steps are being taken by the Portland Board of Trade to increase the efficiency of its grain department. At the directors' meeting, at which there was a full attendance, the matter was thoroughly discussed and in a few days it is probable that some definite action will be taken. It was decided by the directors that the board can carry on its work alone along the lines laid out for it and any consolidation with other similar bodies was voted down.

As for the grain department, the principal feature of the institution, which has been somewhat run down of late, because of the lack of general support, it was realized that something must be done to promote harmony among the various interests. The larger grain firms of the city were members of the board at the start, but withdrew their participation when it was decided to permit dealing in grain futures on the floor. Since their withdrawal, bids on grain for future delivery have been made and duly posted every day, but very little business has been transacted. The attendance at the daily sessions has become so small and lack of interest so apparent that it was plain something must be done to unite all the interests, or the whole thing would have to be called off.

The directors decided to leave the solution of the problem to the grain men themselves to take what action they deemed necessary. Therefore a meeting of the grain department will be held in the near future to vote on the question of abolishing or retaining the dealing in futures.

While it is evident that the maintaining of such a call board cannot be made a success during this season at least, it remains to be seen whether the smaller firms will be willing to give it up for the sake of conciliating the larger dealers.

GRAIN MARKETS HOLD STEADY.

No Changes in Cereal Prices in Local Market.

There is a steady undertone in all the local grain markets, but business is not of large proportions.

There were no changes of importance in grain prices at the Board of Trade and no sales.

The range of futures was as follows (f. o. b. warehouse, Portland):

WHEAT.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
Nov. ..	$ .90	$ .91¼ A	$ .90	$ .90 B
Dec. ..	.90¾	.91¾ A	.90¾	.90¾ B

CRANBERRY CROP IS A SHORT ONE

Some Growers Holding, Anticipating Higher Prices.

The cranberry crop has been practically all gathered and is being fast absorbed by the market. It is now evident, it is said, that there will be a shortage of about 40 per cent, as compared with the yield of last year, and prices are gradually climbing. Prominent men in the trade estimate the yield of this year and last to be about as follows:

	1908.	1907.
Cape Cod, barrels	200,000	282,000
New Jersey, barrels	45,000	115,000
Wisconsin, barrels	12,000	22,000
Total for country, bbls	257,000	419,000

Some of the growers are said to be turning down orders in anticipation that the demand from Eastern States, not yet at its full, will create better prices, and also stating that they are already oversold.

GRAPES HIGHER IN CALIFORNIA.

Local Market, as a Consequence, Is Firmer. Demand Good.

The feature of the fruit market yesterday was the firmness of grapes, due to advances in California. Prices there have advanced 10 to 15 cents, because of rain in the Santa Cruz Mountains which destroyed a part of the crop. The local supply of California grapes has cleaned up well, except a car which arrived Monday in bad order and is still on the track. There is a good movement in Eastern Concords, which are steady at 37½@40 cents, while local Concords move out at 15 cents.

A car of mixed vegetables and some steamer stuff arrived, including artichokes, peppers, eggplant, cucumbers, sprouts, beans and peas.

Receipts of Produce.

Produce receipts as reported by the Board of Trade: Apples, 337 boxes, 1 car; grapes, 202 crates, 1 car; peaches, 206 boxes; berries, 7 crates; grape fruit, 29 crates; lemons, 162 boxes; oranges, 2 boxes; pears, 2 boxes; persimmons, 5 boxes; pineapples, 6 crates; pomegranates, 6 boxes; quinces, 71 boxes; artichokes, 18 boxes; beans, 1 drum; cabbage, 5 sacks; cucumbers, 23 boxes; celery, 9 crates; eggplant, 9 crates; lettuce, 6 boxes; onions, 23 sacks; potatoes, 18 sacks, 1 car; sweet potatoes, 1 car; peppers, 47 boxes; tomatoes, 21 crates; vegetables, 32 drums; cream, 2019 gallons; milk, 710 gallons; butter, 72 cases; eggs, 81 cases; cheese, 8 cases; clams, 14 boxes; crabs, 15 boxes, 2 barrels; fish, 67 boxes; oysters, 57 sacks, 21 boxes; froglegs, 1 tub; smelts, 1 box; chickens, 85 coops; turkeys, 2 coops; ducks, 1 coop; pigeons, 2 coops; hogs, dressed, 222; veal, 86; mutton, 6; meat, 2 cars; lard, 1 car; hops, 96 bales.

Cheese Prices Tend Upward.

Cheese is very firm in the local market and prices have an upward tendency. There is a strong demand from California for Oregon cheese and also a fair inquiry from the North.

Butter was quoted steady to firm yesterday at the former prices.

There was a good demand for poultry, especially chickens. Receipts were fair but cleaned up well.

Eggs were firm at previous prices.

Bank Clearings.

Clearings of the Northwestern cities yesterday were as follows:

	Clearings.	Balances.
Portland	$1,109,827	$ 81,182
Seattle	1,732,451	220,321
Tacoma	754,107	42,868
Spokane	1,132,325	95,821

Hop Market Inactive.

The local hop market was practically without life yesterday, and reports from Salem were of no business passing.

Jack McNeff, who came in from Yakima, says that of the crop of 8000 bales in that section, 1687 bales are unsold.

A German statistician has calculated that the steam power in present use on this globe is equal to 120,000,000 horse power. The coal needed to supply this steam for a year would make a freight train extending ten times around the earth.

CAMPAIGN FOR RISE

Stock Values Being Gradually Elevated.

MANY RUMORS ARE AFLOAT

Alleged Changes Imminent in Harriman and Hill Affairs—Pennsylvania to Order—Rails and Equipment.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Operations for the rise were resumed in the stock market today, but on a somewhat limited scale and in a restricted field. Speculative attention reverted again to the group of high-priced dividend-paying railroad stocks which has been the effective leader of the market during most of the Summer.

There was at the same time a renewal of various rumors of intended projects involving these properties in one way or another. The intentions of Mr. Harriman and of Mr. Hill toward the railroad systems with which their names are associated form a field for wide-reaching conjecture whenever this subject comes up for discussion. Today's rumors did not differ materially from those that have done duty before in connection with rising prices of the stocks to be relegated to the background or to meet with denial when the price movement comes to a stop. The one most heard today was that pointing to an intended extra dividend disbursement on Northern Pacific. It was urged in favor of the view that the amount was to be 10 per cent; that the difference between the present Northern Pacific stock and privileges for the new stock was kept at about 10 points. It might be asked why the new stock should rise on the prospect of a dividend disbursement in which it is not to share, but this question did not change the convictions of the traders as to the significance of the 10-point difference between the old stock and the new stock any more than did the publicly expressed disclaimer of J. J. Hill some weeks ago of the warrant for the reports of an extra dividend.

The similar, though smaller, disparity between stock and the new warrants in the case of St. Paul, with no talk heard of an extra dividend, was also passed over.

In the case of the Harriman group, there was heard a revival of many reports which were bluntly discredited by E. H. Harriman on his return from his Summer vacation. The Union Pacific segregation plan, a proposed retirement of Southern Pacific preferred stock, a proposed dividend increase on Southern Pacific and so on for variety, was talked of as a probable coming event. Nothing else was procurable on these points.

The foreign political situation was better, but the effect of this on foreign markets was very moderate, trading in London, Paris and Berlin being called dull and restricted.

A good effect was produced by the statement from President McCrea, of the Pennsylvania, that his company would soon place orders for rails and equipment on the usual scale. The price of copper hardened at the local metal exchange and trade reports for an increased demand for that metal were favorable. Union Pacific sold at 168⅞, which was the highest price touched this year, excepting on September 9, but with the 2½ per cent quarterly dividend not then deducted. The strong tone of the market was maintained to the closing.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $4,604,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET.

Prices Current Locally on Cattle, Sheep and Hogs.

There were no changes in local livestock prices yesterday and conditions generally were about the same as the day before, except that the hogs received were of somewhat better grade than those lately sent in. The undertone of the hog market, however, was weak. Cattle and sheep were steady with a good demand for the best offerings. Receipts for the day were 120 cattle, 240 sheep and 270 hogs.

The following prices were current on livestock in the local market yesterday:

CATTLE—Best steers, $4; medium, $3.25@3.50; common, $3@3.25; cows, best, $2.75@3.25; medium, $2.25@2.50; calves, $3.50@4.50.

EASTERN WOOL MARKET FIRM.

Active Demand and Much Confidence in the Future.

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—The improvement in the local wool market which began a month ago continues with an active demand, prices firm and increased confidence in the situation. The inclination is apparently growing to hold onto stock. Fine Montana clothing is selling freely at 17 and Utah fine medium at 14½c. Quite a little Oregon and Eastern staple has been transferred at 18½c, while good Northern California is quoted at 17c. Other lines are also in demand.

WHEAT IS PILING UP

Accumulation of Stocks Weakens Markets.

FOREIGN DEMAND SMALL

Prices at Chicago Are Unsettled, but in General Are in Favor of the Bears—Mills Buying Sparingly.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—The wheat market was unsettled, showing sudden spurts of strength and then veering around to weakness, with the general tone in favor of the bears. Rapid accumulation of stocks of wheat throughout the world and a comparatively slack export demand, together with the wet weather in this country, was the chief factor in creating the bearish sentiment. According to a report compiled by Bradstreet's, the world's visible stocks of wheat increased 7,500,000 bushels for the week, compared with 8,400,000 bushels increase last week, and an increase of 4,100,000 bushels the corresponding time last year. There was some export demand in evidence, but the amount of actual business closed was small, the total reported being 40 boatloads, which included a few loads of low-grade wheat from Winnipeg. The demand for cash wheat in the Northwest was less urgent, the mills taking only the best of the offerings. Rain was reported as being quite general west of the Missouri River, and this storm was said to be extending eastward. The Weather Bureau predicted rains for the greater part of the Winter wheat belt within the next 48 hours. The market rallied about ⅜c from the low point of the day on covering by shorts late in the session, and closed fairly steady at only slight variations from yesterday's closing prices. Final quotations of December were at 98½c and on May at $1.01⅞@1.02.

The corn market was weak almost all day. Cash corn at the sample tables was unchanged to ½c lower. The market closed weak at net losses of ½c to ⅝c, with December at 63⅜@63½c.

Oats were weak all day. A decline of ½c in the price of the cash grain helped to weaken the options. At times prices were ⅝c to 1c below the previous close, with December at 47⅛c.

Provisions were weak early in the day, but became steadier later in the session on buying said to be for the account of local packers. Realizing in October ribs caused a slump in that product late in the day, closing prices showing a net loss of 62½c. The market in general was 2½c lower to 5c higher.

FANCY POTATOES SCARCE

FIRST-CLASS STOCK IN LIGHT SUPPLY AT SEATTLE.

Yakima's Advance to $23 Per Ton. Eastern Grapes Decline—Turkeys Clean Up.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—There is a marked shortage of first-class potatoes on the local market, Yakima potatoes selling as high as $23 per ton.

The market is practically cleaned up on peaches and some sales were made this afternoon at $1. October Krummels are the only variety of good size and quality remaining. Heavy shipments of New York Concord grapes brought the price down today. The best quality is bringing 37½ to 40 cents per basket. The high price on Tokays is now $1.

Tomatoes are still plentiful and are selling at from 35 to 50 cents, according to quality.

Turkeys are coming in more plentifully, but the local demand keeps the market cleaned up. Efforts of British Columbia dealers to get 25 tons for the Canadian Thanksgiving were unavailing, as there is no surplus stock on this market.

Spot bluestem sold at 94 cents on the Grain Exchange today, but closed a half cent higher. Other wheat, oats and barley remained unchanged.

Dairy Produce in the East.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—On the produce exchange today the butter market was steady. Creameries, 20@26c; dairies, 18@23c.

WIFE AND FURNITURE GONE

Charles Gill, Held Under Indictment, Finds Home Deserted.

Charles Gill, the alleged bad check artist, has, to all appearances, been deserted in his hour of need by his wife. Presiding Judge Gantenbein fixed his bail at $1000. In casting about in his mind for a means to obtain the money, Gill recollected that he had at his home a paper calling for money from his father's estate in Europe. He informed the court that if given an opportunity he could obtain the cash by presenting the paper to the local consul. He thought he could have the bail fixed up in about an hour.

So Deputy Sheriff Leonard was detailed to accompany him to his home. When Gill reached home the rooms were empty. None of his belongings were to be found. Articles of clothing which he needed were gone, as well as well as the looked-for paper. He was returned to the County Jail.

Gill was indicted for passing a bogus check for $20.50 on Mrs. M. E. Becker, proprietor of the Palais Royal, a women's furnishing establishment.
