PLEADS IGNORANCE OF LAW

WITNESS TANGLED ON CROSS-EXAMINATION, HOWEVER.
W. T. Kerr on Stand in Trial of Pacific Furniture & Lumber Co. for Land Frauds.
W. T. Kerr, superintendent for the Pacific Furniture & Lumber Company, indicted with the rest of the defendants now on trial in the "Los Angeles conspiracy" cases, and who pleaded guilty when the case came to trial, was the principal witness yesterday. Kerr was the man who got a number of the citizens of Port Orford to take up timber claims for the company and handled the finances and paid the filing fees. Kerr tried to explain away his actions by saying that he was ignorant of the law, but he was badly shaken when it came to the severe cross-examination by Attorney MacLeone and John Manning. Kerr admitted on cross-examination that $600 of the money that went to pay the entrymen was borrowed on his own per-

ELECTION BETTING BEGINS

ABOUT $4000 WAGERED SO FAR IN PORTLAND.
Prevailing Odds 2 to 1 on Taft, With Largest Bet Known $3500 to $1750.
That portion of Portland's sporting gentry who only wager on elections is beginning to get into action and during the last two weeks something like $4000 has been posted on the Presidential election. In spite of the fact that in the East the odds on Taft have been hovering around 3/4 and 4 to 1, here in the city the prevailing odds have been 2 to 1, with an occasional small bet of 3 to 1.
The largest wager made so far was a bet that was made by two prominent business men as the result of a political talk during luncheon. While the talk was tropical the Taft man wagered $3500 against $1750, that Taft would defeat Bryan. The next largest bet that has reached the ears of the

PAY TRIBUTE TO MARTYRS

Father O'Farrell Chief Speaker at Hibernian Anniversary.
At a meeting of Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Monday night degrees were conferred upon 23 candidates, and an impressive address was made by the Rev. J. M. O'Farrell, state chaplain of the order. A committee, consisting of John O'Hara, D. W. Lane, E. H. Deery, P. J. Smith, James Foley and Edward Ryan, was appointed to make arrangements for the observance of the forty-first anniversary of the deaths of the Manchester martyrs, Allen, Larkin and O'Brien. The exercises will be held on the evening of Sunday, November 23. Father O'Farrell has already been engaged as the principal speaker. Addresses will also be delivered by other prominent

DEATH ROLL IN NORTHWEST

Mrs. Emeline Meeker, Resident of St. Helens for 56 Years.
ST. HELEN, Or., Oct. 20.—(Special)—Mrs. Emeline Meeker, a pioneer of 1852, died at her home in this city this morning, aged 74 years and 4 months. Mrs. Meeker came to St. Helens 56 years ago and resided here continuously. She was a native of Iowa and a cousin of Thomas Benton. In 1856 she married William Meeker, by whom she had five children. The house in which Mrs. Meeker died was built in 1851, out of the first lumber-cut structures to be erected in Columbia County.
