AMUSEMENTS.

HELIO THEATER—(Fourteenth and Washington streets)—Tonight at 8:15 o'clock, John E. Hicks, in the musical comedy, "The Time, Place and Girl."

TRUCK MONEY ON LABOR HERE AND GET RICH.—Working men and women, merchants, professional men or capitalists will wait a long time for another opportunity to make money such as is offered at the new textile town of Gordon Falls at this time.

ACCUSED OF STEALING CHECK.—Dan Norden is on trial in the Justice Court for the theft of a check which has an unusual history. The check was drawn on the Merchants National Bank of this city for $41. It was signed by Newton Coulter and made payable to J. W. Evans.

ONE QUAIL COST $100.—It cost Victor Tarbell, the steward of the Hot-Brau restaurant, $100 to get a quail for the Municipal Court yesterday for having served a quail to a customer. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

TRIAL DRAWS TO A CLOSE.—The land-fraud trial of the defendants in the Pacific Furniture & Lumber Company is slowly drawing to a close and United States Attorney John McCourt stated yesterday at the close of the day's court session that he expected to have all of the evidence for the prosecution in by Friday afternoon.

WILL HOLD ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Mothers' and Teachers' Club of the Brooklyn School will be held in the assembly hall of the schoolhouse at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. At that time the election of officers will be held, reports will be received and a programme for the year will be adopted.

LECTURES ON CHARITIES.—The women of the Universalist Church and their friends are to be the guests of Mrs. A. Altman, at 289 Margin street, Thursday, at 2 o'clock. After the business meeting of the Florence Maudslayi Mission Circle, J. Tetscher, Jr., Chief Probation Officer of the Juvenile Court, will give an address on "Our City Charities and How We May Co-operate in Their Work."

DR. WILSON TO SPEAK.—A meeting will be held tonight in the Third Presbyterian Church, East Thirteenth and East Pine streets, in the presence of the Presbyterian education. Rev. J. R. Wilson, of Portland Academy, will speak on a topic connected with the general object of the meeting. The public is invited.

CARS TO USE NEW BRIDGE.—Preparations are being made to run streetcars across the Union-avenue bridge over Sullivan's gulch in the near future. The double tracks across the bridge have been connected up with the street rails, and yesterday iron posts for the trolley wire were being placed.

STREET MEN.—Why send East for campaign fobs, when you can buy them right here? Buy one dozen or ten at a time and pay half what you would pay the manufacturers. I have a lot on hand that must be sold at once. H. W. Little, care Olds, Wortman & King.

NEW SANATORIUM.—Established by Dr. Ingelborg Ober, chiropractor, Belmont and Forty-ninth streets. Elegantly-furnished rooms for patients. Nervous diseases and rheumatism a specialty.

BEER PAYING BUSINESS.—In town for size of capital invested, $200; profit, $200 or more each month. Must sell. W. 226, Oregonian.

FOR RENT.—A few nice offices in the Oregonian building. See Superintendent, room 202.
