

BRAIN RESTS FOR DAY IN NEW YORK

Visits Home of Nathan Straus and Dines with Herman Ridder.

HARD WEEK AHEAD OF HIM

Candidate Claims He Is Gaining Support From All Classes—Receives Greeting From Rhodes Scholars at Oxford College.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—After a week of hard campaigning, W. J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for President, rested today in this city. The candidate had breakfast in his personal car as it was dashing through New Jersey, and arrived at 10:30 A. M. at Jersey City, where he was met by National Chairman Mack and Nathan Straus. Almost immediately the party crossed the ferry to New York.

Campaigning Comes Easier.

Mr. Bryan declared tonight that, with the exception of being very tired, he was feeling well.

"I am finishing the campaign better than I have ever finished one," he said. "My voice has stood the strain well and I do not think I have lost weight."

Mr. Bryan said that some of the forecasts he had seen in the morning papers today did not agree with the reports that he had been receiving.

Straw Votes Show Gains.

Mr. Bryan said that all the straw ballots that had been taken in the country showed Democratic gains. "But," he continued, "of course the accuracy of the straw ballot depends upon the way it is taken and the way the names are selected. You select a list of names to send postal cards to, you receive many answers, but you have no way of finding out how the ones who did not answer are going to vote. The trouble comes when you try to average the votes of the ones who have not responded with the votes of the ones who have responded."

Gains From All Classes.

"This year the Democrats have gained in every state. Heretofore we have made gains in some states and have lost in others. This year there are gains throughout the whole country and gains in every occupation. There are gains among farmers, and these gains are very marked. There are gains among business men, professional men, and especially among college men. That is the interesting point in this campaign compared with the other campaigns that I have had anything to do with."

Greeting From Rhodes Scholars.

Mr. Bryan today received the following cablegram from Oxford College, England: "W. J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for President, New York, is cordially greeted, after debate, enthusiastically support you for President and wish you success." (Signed) "AMERICAN CLUB."

TAFT CAN LOSE NEW YORK

There is a remote possibility that something may occur in any one of them to make the result in Iowa, probably especially as they are claimed by Bryan, but they are set down in the doubtful column. Only because of this fact are Missouri and Kentucky placed in the sure Bryan column. Both these states are reasonably doubtful, but for purposes of this calculation are conceded to Bryan.

One Possible Way.

As stated at the outset, it is quite probable that Taft will carry New York, Ohio and Indiana, but if he should lose all three states, he might yet be elected by various combinations. For instance, Taft could be elected in the following manner: Colorado 173 Colorado 173 Illinois 27 Kansas 10 Maryland 10 Montana 8 Nebraska 8 North Dakota 4 West Virginia 2 Total 244

Such a combination would give Bryan two votes to spare.

There is no one rash enough to claim that Bryan could carry all the states on this list, and therefore, in all reason, if Bryan is to be elected, he must carry Illinois to offset the smaller states on this list which will almost certainly go for Taft.

New York to Taft, he must take out of the doubtful column at least 10 votes to win the election. He will not need all of the doubtful states, but he will need most of them, for, with New York in the Republican column, there are but 120 doubtful votes left, and Illinois is most essential to his success, for with New York and Illinois both eliminated, Bryan must carry every other doubtful state. He could be elected in the following manner:

Table with 2 columns: State and Votes. Includes Colorado (173), Illinois (27), Kansas (10), Maryland (10), Montana (8), Nebraska (8), North Dakota (4), West Virginia (2), Total (244).

How Bryan Might Win.

If Bryan should carry Illinois and Ohio he could then concede to Taft Colorado, Maryland, Nebraska and West Virginia, and still have one electoral vote to spare, or he could substitute North Dakota and

EX-TAMMANY CHIEF WILL VISIT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Richard Croker, Democratic candidate for President, rested today in this city. The candidate had breakfast in his personal car as it was dashing through New Jersey, and arrived at 10:30 A. M. at Jersey City, where he was met by National Chairman Mack and Nathan Straus. Almost immediately the party crossed the ferry to New York.

Richard Croker.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Richard Croker is coming back to New York, but only as a guest. It is not likely that the freedom of the city will be presented to him, as was the case with the late Mayor. Croker made a neat fortune while here and he is content to live the life of a country gentleman in the Berkshires. He seldom visits the United States and one of the reasons is that whenever he turns his steps this way, rumor has it that he is coming back to govern us again.

Montana for Nebraska, and win by two electoral votes.

Situation Has Clarified.

It is not to be denied that the Republican outlook is steadily improving. Iowa, once doubtful, is no longer a source of anxiety to the Republican leaders, Ohio is Illinois. Even Ohio, where utter chaos has reigned for long, affairs are taking a more favorable turn and that state is today claimed by the Republicans. The situation in Iowa, with some good ground for the Republican majority; it is the home of the Republican candidate; the bitterness between factions is almost completely forgotten for the time being, and Taft, at least, is satisfied he will carry his own state.

That Bryan himself has fears about his own state, is evidenced by the fact that he will have made 10 speeches in various parts of the state before election day.

Premier Laurier confident of Liberal Victory.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.—A general election will be held tomorrow through the Dominion of Canada to choose a new Parliament. At present the Liberal party, led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, holds control of the Canadian government, and it has done so during the past 12 years, and nothing has developed during the five weeks' campaigning just closed to indicate to the impartial observer that any change is imminent.

Debs Eulogizes Lincoln

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 25.—When Eugene V. Debs and his "Red Special" arrived in Springfield today Debs requested that without delay he be permitted to visit the tomb of Abraham Lincoln. Standing by the sarcophagus surrounded by a group of Socialist candidates for state office, Debs delivered a eulogy of Lincoln. When introduced to an audience of 100 people at the Courthouse this afternoon he was introduced as the "Abraham Lincoln of modern times."

DECLARES HE WILL CARRY OWN STATE

Taft Says if He Did Not, He Would Not Reside to Be President.

IS GRATEFUL TO HUGHES

Says Youngstown Speech Is Classic and Hopes Governor Will Win Out—Talks Freely Regarding Outlook in Various States.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—W. H. Taft reaches New York at 10:30 tonight from Gary, Ind., where he closed the campaign in that state last night.

The 18-hour journey afforded the candidate complete rest from talking. He said he felt in first-class physical condition, although somewhat hoarse. H. W. Taft met his brother at the station and took him to his residence, where he will spend the night.

The first lap of Mr. Taft's Eastern campaign will begin tomorrow with a run to New Haven, Conn., which will begin at 4:30 o'clock, and in the evening Mr. Taft will address a meeting in Brooklyn.

Mr. Taft is planning to take a brief rest after the election. "I have campaigned in 23 states," said Mr. Taft tonight, "I expect to carry all of them with the exception of those south of Mason and Dixon's line. The situation looks better than at any previous time and I shall enter the last lap of the campaign with a great deal of interest and enthusiasm."

Mr. Taft talked freely during the evening to various callers. In all cases expressing confidence in the outcome of the campaign. Asked to particularize as to results in the various states, Ohio, for instance, Mr. Taft said he had not a doubt but that Ohio would be strongly for him.

"If I could not carry my own state, I would not deserve to be running for President," he said.

Concerning North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia Judge Taft said his visit to those states had strengthened his belief that one of these days a Republican Presidential candidate would carry any one or all of them. Kentucky and Missouri, the candidate said, were reasonably doubtful, but Maryland would go Republican.

Mr. Taft was asked for his opinion on the effect of the speech-making trip. He said: "I feel deeply grateful to Mr. Hughes. He made a great impression all through the West. His speech at Youngstown, Ohio, is a classic. I hope the people in this state will appreciate that what he did for me, in going out there to help me fight my battle, shows him to be worthy of their support. I feel very deeply interested in his election."

After this Mr. Taft referred to the situation in Ohio.

"If Massachusetts should go Democratic then Ohio might," he said, "but I doubt it. Only such a miracle as that which Republican states reversing their vote, could make me believe Ohio is not safely in the Republican column."

VOTING IN CANADA TODAY

Premier Laurier confident of Liberal Victory.

Makes Appeal for Indorsement of Improvement Policies—Many Electors From States.

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.—A general election will be held tomorrow through the Dominion of Canada to choose a new Parliament. At present the Liberal party, led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, holds control of the Canadian government, and it has done so during the past 12 years, and nothing has developed during the five weeks' campaigning just closed to indicate to the impartial observer that any change is imminent.

Most authorities, however, agree that the Liberals will be shorn of some of their strength should they again be returned to power. Sir Wilfrid made his appeal to the electors to be enabled to complete the work begun under his administration, most notably the building of the national transcontinental railway. He appealed for a renewal of confidence on the ground that his government had given to Canada 12 years of unexampled prosperity.

Hon. J. Borden, leader of the opposition forces, and his party have their fight almost wholly on a question of electoral purity and administration reform.

Premier Laurier has ignored the scandals, declaring them too trivial to merit his attention. It is estimated that not less than 100,000 settlers from the Western States have immigrated across the border into the prairie provinces of the Dominion since the last general election.

The manner in which these new electors will distribute their votes may have something to do with determining the result.

DEBS EULOGIZES LINCOLN

Afterward Introduced to Audience as "Lincoln of Modern Times."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 25.—When Eugene V. Debs and his "Red Special" arrived in Springfield today Debs requested that without delay he be permitted to visit the tomb of Abraham Lincoln. Standing by the sarcophagus surrounded by a group of Socialist candidates for state office, Debs delivered a eulogy of Lincoln. When introduced to an audience of 100 people at the Courthouse this afternoon he was introduced as the "Abraham Lincoln of modern times."

Debs declared that the "slave power which loathed and despised Lincoln was no more heartless than the power of capitalists, which today holds the workingmen of the nation in bondage."

LIBERTY SOON EXPECTED

TSCHAIKOVSKY, RUSSIAN REVOLUTIONIST, TO GET BAIL. Trial Will Not Take Place for Many Months and Prisoner Will Go Abroad.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 25.—Owing to delays due to banking formalities, the money raised for Tschaikevsky's bail has not been received, but the family expects to receive the remittance by tomorrow afternoon and believes that Tschaikevsky will be at liberty tomorrow evening or Tuesday morning.

The Russian revolutionist will go abroad immediately, traveling by way of Finland. He wishes to visit his mother in Kazan Province, but his family has received an intimation that it would not be wise for him to remain in Russia pending his trial.

The Crown Attorney stated today that it would be six months and probably a year before Tschaikevsky was brought before the court. The accusation, he said, had not been formulated, as new evidence was constantly cropping up. Tschaikevsky was taken back to the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul this morning. He is in good health and is buoyed up by interviews with his wife and daughter.

The officials directly in charge of the aged prisoner have shown him many kindnesses and have winked at violations of several fortress regulations, for which his family has been deeply grateful.

FIRE DRIVES WOMEN OUT

Building in San Francisco Tenderloin Burns With Small Loss.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—A fire started by the overturning of a grease pot in a chop suey kitchen on the lower floor of the Hotel Vendome of the tenderloin distributed caused a panic among the 250 female inhabitants of the place. The women were caught asleep and they rushed to the streets clad in their night garments.

Several were rescued from perilous positions by firemen and police and the officers also prevented many from trampling on one another as they rushed from the smoke filled building. The property loss was only about $800.

LEAVE SHEEP TO PERISH

Blizzard Causes Fearful Suffering in Saskatchewan.

MEDICINE HAT, Saskatchewan, Oct. 25.—The first trains since Monday reached Medicine Hat, from the East last evening. Riders got in from the district, stretching to the United States border, with fearful tales of hardships created by the storm.

Donald Cameron, a shepherd, with two others, were caught and forced to leave their sheep to perish and seek safety themselves. Cameron, however, became exhausted and died. After being 60 hours without sleep or nourishment, the other two reached a ranch in safety. It is feared that many other herders have perished.

NOTED FOREIGNERS INSPECT MEAT

Dr. Robert Koch, of Berlin, and Dr. Bernard Bang, World's Greatest Authority on Bovine Tuberculosis, Give International Tuberculosis Congress Results of Investigations.

The recent International Tuberculosis Congress, just closed in Washington, D. C., brought to public notice most strongly the splendid results of United States meat inspection. So important is this inspection considered, and so successful as operated in the packing plants, that many notable Europeans, including Dr. Bernard Bang, of Denmark, the world's leading authority on Bovine Tuberculosis, and Dr. Calmette, Director of the Pasteur Institute, Paris, will remain for awhile in America, visiting and studying American packing houses.

J. J. Ferguson, widely experienced in these matters, attended the Congress, and in his report of its conclusions, says: "Every country making systematic efforts to control tuberculosis was represented by leading scientists, officially appointed by their Governments, whose reports will bring the results of the Congress directly to the men who make laws."

"The Congress was divided into 7 sections.—Section 7 discussed origin, progress, and control of animal tuberculosis, with especial reference to economic losses and relation to public health. Dr. Robert Koch, of Berlin, and Dr. Bernard Bang, the world's greatest authority on Bovine Tuberculosis, gave the section results of their latest investigations.

Dr. Koch affirmed its confidence in the present system of meat inspection and healthfulness of the product from American packing houses. The danger of infection through U. S. inspected and passed meats was declared to be very remote.

It is a comforting thought, surely, in the midst of unfavorable disclosures regarding foodstuffs, to know that at least our meats—those stamped "U. S. Inspected and Passed"—are wholesome. The benefit to Portland of a large packing plant under Government inspection regulations cannot be over estimated.
