Mail Orders Filled

Sole Portland Agents
BUTTERICK PATTERNS

Lipman-Wolfe's Great October Sales

Mail Orders Filled

Sole Portland Agents
PELLARD TAIL'D SUITS

Sale of Bonnet Black Taffeta

5000 yards of the famous "Bonnet" Black Taffeta, the best of the looms of France, acknowledged by all silk connoisseurs the best black taffeta made, at sale prices:

21½-In. Bonnet Taffeta, $1.00 Quality, 79c
24-Inch Bonnet Taffeta, $1.25 Quality, 95c
36-Inch Bonnet Taffeta, $1.75 Qual., $1.45

Supply present and future needs at the lowest prices ever quoted.

Women's 75c Stockings 48c

2000 pairs extra fine Black Cashmere Stockings, merino heels and toes, double soles. Regular 75c values..... 48c

50c Stockings 35c Pair

Women's ribbed extra fine Cashmere Wool Stockings, merino heels and toes, 50c values..... 35c

$1.50 2-Clasp Glace Kid Gloves 95c

$2.75 Kid Gloves, 8-button, $1.69

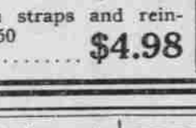
300 dozen 2-clasp Overseam Glace Kid Gloves, all new and perfect fitting, every size in black, white, tans, brown, red and grays. Regular $1.50 values everywhere, Lipman-Wolfe special..... 95c

Full 8-button length Kid Gloves, every size in black and white, just the wanted length to wear with long sleeves; regular $2.50, $2.75 values, on sale at $1.69

Hornback Alligator Bags

These are the genuine Hornback Alligator Bags that are so stylish and popular. A special purchase of note enables us to offer the choicest bags at about half price. All reduced as follows:

$16.50 Alligator Bags $8.75
$12.50 Alligator Bags $5.98
$11.50 Alligator Bags $5.35



$10.00 Alligator Bags 8-inch $5.00
$ 7.00 Alligator Bags 7-inch $3.98

NOTE—These are one and two-piece Bags. We ask you to compare the values anywhere before making your selection.

Reg. $5 Imported Leather Bags $2.48

Fancy Imported Leather Swagger Bags, with three compartments and outside pocket. One of the new bags. Worth regularly $5.00..... $2.48

Genuine Leather Suitcases, 24-inch or 26-inch, with straps and reinforced corners, canvas lined, extra strong, worth $7.50 regularly. Monday sale..... $4.98

Highest Class Novelty And Tailor-Made Suits

Vals. to $50, $29.80

Novelty demi-tailored Suits, embroidered satin and braid trimmed; also strictly tailored suits in plain broadcloths and fancy mixed materials. Every suit new this season, made in the most elegant and perfect finish. The colors are black, navy, brown, green, wistaria, catawba and a large variety of fancy materials selling regularly up to $50.00; in this sale at only $29.80

Only 100 Suits have been secured for this great sale. It will pay you to be very early Monday. See our big corner window display

Sweaters

$4.50 Val. $2.95

Over 500 Women's New Mannish Coat Sweaters, for outdoor sports, walking, etc., mostly in white. The low price is the result of a manufacturer's overstock and because some are slightly soiled. On the bargain table Monday while they last at only..... $2.95

A Great Sale of Lace Curtains

Lace Curtains of all kinds reduced for this great sale.

Regular $1.50 Lace Curtains, variety	$ .98
Regular $2.00 Lace Curtains, variety	$ 1.59
Regular $2.50 Lace Curtains, variety	$ 1.98
Regular $3.00 Lace Curtains, pair	$ 2.39
Regular $4.00 Lace Curtains, pair	$ 3.15
Regular $5.00 Lace Curtains, pair	$ 3.98

GRUELING DAYS TO END CAMPAIGN

Fight to Be Concentrated in New York, Indiana and Ohio This Week.

BRYAN TO HAVE HARD WORK

Will Go on Stumping Tour of New York State—Republicans Plan 22 Mass Meetings in City. Taft Works With Hughes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The present campaign, which is about to enter upon its last week, is to have a real whirlwind finish. From the highest to the lowest, all the spellbinders of all the parties will be out in force during the next six days and wavering voters will be urged by eloquent advocates to cast their ballots "right."

In practically every state of the Union rallies and mass meetings almost without number have been arranged, but it is in New York with its large number of electoral votes at stake, that the real battle will be waged. There practically all the leading candidates will concentrate their efforts, ably assisted by a large number of forceful and resourceful campaigners.

Hard Fight in Ohio.

Ohio and Indiana also will be given considerable attention. Among the speakers who will urge the voters of Ohio to support Mr. Taft will be several members of Mr. Roosevelt's Cabinet—Secretaries Root and Garfield and Postmaster-General Meyer—and the Republican candidate for President himself will deliver two formal addresses at Cleveland and Youngstown on Monday.

Vice-President Fairbanks will head the Republican forces in Indiana, which will include Senators Beveridge and Hemenway, E. H. Osman, Consul-General of the United States at Constantinople; John L. Griffin, United States Consul at Liverpool, and Representative Gardner, of Michigan.

William J. Bryan, after four days in New York State, will close his long, hard campaign by a series of speeches in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana.

New York Center of Struggle.

Both Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan were in this city tonight.

All the forces the Democratic National Committee can summon have been brought to bear to secure the electoral vote of New York State for W. J. Bryan. Led by the Presidential candidate himself, who will speak four days in this state, an army of orators will be sent into every county and town. Mr. Bryan went to the cities and towns in the southern tier yesterday and after two days' campaign in the greater city he will stump cities and towns that line the east shore of the Hudson River, which seldom are visited by Democratic candidates in search of support.

The Democratic campaign in the state, it is planned, will receive its impetus from the meetings here tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden, and in Brooklyn Tuesday. Besides these meetings many others at which Mr. Bryan will speak have been arranged in different parts of the city. Tammany Hall has planned to make the Madison Square meeting the greatest demonstration given the candidate in this campaign.

Work Cut Out for Bryan.

Monday forenoon will find Mr. Bryan visiting cities and towns in the near vicinity of New York after a flying visit to Paterson, N. J. Tuesday will be spent in Brooklyn and Wednesday the Nebraskan will turn up-state.

Following a meeting in Syracuse Thursday night, Mr. Bryan will leave the Empire State to devote the closing days of the campaign to Ohio, Illinois and Indiana.

Meanwhile all the prominent campaigners the Democratic State and National Committeemen can muster, have been sent to the 61 counties of New York State and to the doubtful states of the Middle West. Among the leading speakers in New York State for the week will be ex-Judge Parker, John Sharp Williams, Senator Bacon, of Georgia; Governor Hoke Smith, of Georgia; Governor J. H. Higgins, of Rhode Island, and Governor Ansel, of South Carolina.

Republicans Plan 22 Meetings.

The Republican windup of the campaign in New York City calls for 22 mass meetings to be addressed by speakers of National reputation; a parade of the Republican clubs of Greater New York and a big parade of the Business Men's Republican Association.

The big Republican event of the week will be the Madison Square Garden meeting Wednesday night, October 28, at which Mr. Taft and Governor Hughes will be the principal speakers. The others will be Senator William Alden Smith, of Michigan; George A. Knight, of California, and United States Assistant District Attorney Atwood, of Chicago. Mr. Taft and Governor Hughes will address four day meetings October 28.

Other Republican meetings of the week will be addressed by Secretary Root, Secretary Cortelyou, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Straus, Attorney-General Bonaparte, James S. Sherman, the Vice-Presidential candidate; Senator Dolliver, Congressman Herbert Parsons, of New York, and Congressman Francis Burton, of Pennsylvania.

WOULD LOSE REVENUE

Revenue Bureau Opposes American Wines in Medicines.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The Internal Revenue Bureau is strongly opposed to the contention of the California grape-growers for a reversal of the committee's ruling of March 25, 1908, which inhibits the use of fortified American sweet wines in the manufacture of proprietary medicines or compounds. To do so, in the opinion of officials, would be to violate the law and to deprive the Government of many millions in revenue annually. This would be accomplished, it is pointed out, by the general substitution in the manufacture of proprietary medicines, etc., of non-taxable sweet wines, which have been reinforced by the addition as a preservative acid, of non-taxable grape brandy for spirits which are taxed $1.10 per gallon. The purpose of the law which does not require a tax to be paid on grape brandy when used for this specific purpose is said to have been solely for the encouragement of the grape and sweet-wine industries.

Commissioner Capers has received a letter from Senator Perkins, of California, advocating the reversal, and transmitting a copy of a resolution recently adopted by the Manufacturers' and Producers' Association of California, and the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress at San Francisco. It also urges the reversal of the objectionable ruling.

SEVEN CHOLERA CASES

Disease Makes Fresh Start Among Natives in Manila.

MANILA, Oct. 26.—Seven new cases of cholera were reported in this city for the day ending Sunday night. The slight increase in the spread of the disease is ascribed by the authorities to the many gatherings of the people on Saturday night and Sunday, and the feaste that accompanied the assemblies. The situation is not considered to be grave, as the Health Department feels that it has the epidemic well under control, expressing no alarm over the increase.

It is probable that the Government will further restrict the gathering of the natives and also the sale of dangerous foods. It is believed that the cockpits located in the suburbs of the city, where it is difficult to maintain a strict watch over the sale of foodstuffs, are responsible for the slight increase in the number of cholera cases noted at each week-end.

PRAISE TO AMERICAN GIRL

Janet Spencer Complimented on Voice by Royalty.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—Miss Janet Spencer, contralto, of New York, sang at a charity concert with Miss Geraldine Farrar at the Royal Toeater here today and made a remarkable impression. Crown Prince Frederick William and the Crown Princess asked that she be brought to their box and, after congratulating her, said that she ought to be in opera, as they had heard few such voices.

GAFF INTO HASKELL

Interior Department Sends Letter to Indians.

ACCUSED OF FALSEHOOD

Statement Advises Osage Indians and Five Civilized Tribes That Oklahoma Governor Fraudulently Got Their Lands.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 25.—A statement was received here today at the office of the Commissioner of the Five Civilized Tribes, from the Interior Department at Washington, with instructions to publish the same for the information of the Osage nation, directly concerned, and the Five Civilized Tribes, incidentally interested, and to take every necessary step to bring it to the notice of the individual Osage Indians.

The statement is in answer to Governor Haskell's recent charges for the information of the Indians of the Osage nation, and says:

"Governor Haskell's recent open letter to the President charges that the President acted unfairly to the Osage Indians in the matter of fixing the royalty for the lease of their oil lands to the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil Company. Governor Haskell's statements are deliberate falsehoods; nor does he suggest a possible remedy. As his disregard of truth is wilful, no reply will be made to him personally, but President Roosevelt and Secretary Garfield are not willing that the Osage Indians should not know the truth about these matters. In order that they may not be deceived by Governor Haskell's false statements. For this reason they send to the Indians the truth about each of the charges he makes."

The statement takes up Haskell's charges in detail and analyzes them to show their "deliberate untruth." The statement concludes:

"Haskell attempts, by deliberate and reiterated falsehood, to give the false impression that he is championing the interests of the Indians. The Department knows of but one matter in which he has shown a practical interest in Indian affairs and this was when he procured plots of valuable township lands from the Indians, the methods of which procurement are declared to be fraudulent in suits filed against him and now pending in the courts to recover for the Indians the land which he has thus procured."

KEEP CLEAR PARTY TANGLE

Exclusion League Members Refuse to Indorse Democratic Ticket.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—After five hours of heated debate in the course of which the chairman found it necessary to have several unruly persons ejected from the hall, the San Francisco branch of the Pacific Coast Exclusion League, by a vote of 98 to 14, today adopted a substitute for the resolution offered last week indorsing both the National and state tickets of the Democratic party, the substitute reaffirming the non-partisan attitude of the league and leaving to the discretion of the members the support of such candidates as they believe will best safeguard the coast from Oriental invasion.

DROUTH BROKEN IN EAST

First Rain in Pennsylvania for Nearly Two Months.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 25.—The drouth, which has continued in this state for nearly two months, has been completely broken in some sections, while in the other localities judicious showers have been falling for nearly 24 hours.

Boy Drowns in Slough.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—The body of Alfred Anselini, 8 years old, missing from his home since yesterday forenoon, was found this morning in a slough near his home, on the banks of which he had often played.

HUGHES HAS REPLY

Answers All Questions Propounded by Chanler.

ASKS RIVAL TO DO SAME

Concludes by Challenge to Democratic Candidate to Come Out and Tell Where He Stands on Issues.

MALONE, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Governor Hughes today at a Republican meeting in Malone gave his answers in full to the ten questions put to him by Lieutenant-Governor Chanler in a Newburg speech reported today. The ten questions and the replies were as follows:

1. Are you in favor of a constitutional amendment providing for the election of United States Senators by the people?

A. I am.

2. Are you in favor of the re-election of United States Senators Platt and Depew?

A. This is not a question for the Governor, but for the Legislature.

3. Why did you refuse to appoint a railroad man upon the Public Service Commissions? Was it because there was no practical railroad man in the State having the ability, in your opinion, to fill such a position?

A. I did appoint a competent railroad man upon the Public Service Commission of the Second District, which has general supervision of the railroads outside the counties composing Greater New York. He was a man of large and varied experience in the different branches of practical railroading.

I refer to James E. Sague. One of those who recommended him to me was Lieutenant-Governor Chanler.

4. Are you in favor of the personal identification registry law throughout the state, or are you in favor of it only in the Democratic City of New York?

A. I am in favor of a personal identification registry law wherever frauds exist of such a character and to such extent as to make such a remedy desirable.

5. Why did you conspicuously omit in your speech of acceptance an expression of your approval of the Republican state platform?

A. I did not conspicuously or otherwise omit in my speech of acceptance an approval of the Republican state platform. Portions of the platform I referred to specifically, and in other cases, I discussed and approved the policies which were indorsed by the platform and which had been prominent features of my administration.

6. Why did you not call Mr. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican National Committee, and Mr. Bliss, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, as witnesses in the insurance investigation and ascertain from them what money they received from the insurance companies and what use they made thereof?

A. Because I had brought out the facts showing contributions made by insurance companies for political purposes. The function of the Armstrong investigation committee, which I represented, was to investigate the affairs and conditions of life insurance companies and not the transactions of political committees.

7. Was not your nomination in 1906 and your renomination in 1908 at the instance and dictation of President Roosevelt, a reward for your action in omitting to compel a full disclosure when it appeared that Mr. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican National Committee, had received large sums of the money of policy-holders of life insurance companies?

A. There is not a particle of truth in the suggestion.

8. Why did you oppose some limitation upon the amount of salary which might be paid to Presidents of life insurance companies and why was there no limitation in the insurance law which you prepared?

A. Because it was not thought wise to attempt to fix such details in the statute but instead to provide limitations of total expenses and of first year expenses which would insure economical management while leaving proper freedom within these limits to the companies to manage their affairs.

9. Is it not a fact that the effect of the insurance law prepared by you is to limit the compensation and salary of clerks, agents and minor employes generally in life insurance companies, while placing no limitation upon the extravagant sums paid to the higher officials of those companies?

A. All expenses must be brought within the limits of total expenses and of first year expenses respectively.

10. During your term as Governor, how many laws which the courts have declared unconstitutional have you signed?

A. The only law which I have approved which has been declared to be unconstitutional, so far as I know, was one demanded by the party with which my opponent was associated. This was known as the recount bill. I signed it because I desired to see an important question promptly settled. And this law, though finally set aside by the highest court, was held to be constitutional by a majority of the judges of the Appellate Division in the Second Department, among them being the distinguished Democratic jurist, the Hon. William J. Gaynor.

"Now, Mr. Chanler," concluded the Governor's reply, "come out and tell us where you stand on the issues of the campaign, and what you want done with the Public Service Commissions."

In the original challenge, Lieutenant-Governor Chanler declared:

"After you have answered these questions it will still remain for the people of the state to determine whether personal bias and official narrow-mindedness shall dominate the activities of this cosmopolitan state, or whether a broad and liberal policy, giving consideration to all the diversified interests and elements in this, the Empire State of the Union, shall prevail."

The Governor's reply produced a great sensation here, and the crowd taken off its guard, received each of the ten brief statements with cheers.

IS OVERCOME BY SMOKE

Manager Jones Carried From Burning Mine in Automobile.

CANNONSBURG, Pa., Oct. 25.—While directing the men fighting fire that broke out yesterday in the Pittsburg-Buffalo Company's Hazel mine, near here, H. P. Jones, general manager of the company, was overcome by smoke and had to be taken from the scene in an ambulance.

Three shifts of 50 men each are battling with the blaze, but the heat is so intense that they can work but five minutes at a time. The fighters are gaining slowly upon the flames and expect to have them controlled by tomorrow. The damage is said to be heavy, but officials make no estimate tonight.

Sullivan Lands in Jail.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Frank Sullivan, the alleged absconding manager of the O. K. barbershop, in this city, is now lodged in the Umatilla County jail, having been arrested in Spokane last Thursday evening by Sheriff Taylor, of this county. Sullivan mysteriously disappeared from Pendleton last May and coincident with his disappearance a shortage of $60 was discovered in the shop's accounts.

A palm which grows in South America has a leaf measuring 50 feet long and 12 feet broad—the largest in the world.

A Little Journey to the Politicians

Arthur A. Greene Gains a Variety of Impressions by a Visit to Republican State Headquarters.

BY ARTHUR A. GREENE.

THE present National campaign, which is just now taking a brace for the last lap, locally at least, is not exactly a wild orgy of enthusiasm. It has not been what a purist would call a "rabble rouser" and as the result of certain visits paid by me to the state headquarters of the two big parties, I'm constrained to say that things are being conducted on about the same nerve-racking, high-pressure schedule as usually characterizes a concatenation of the state W. C. T. U. or the annual convention of Journeymen Undertakers.

This is not an intimation that the Republican and Democratic committees are not doing effective work, for it would appear that each of the parties in interest is snatching many brands from the burning and each is saving our glorious common country to the uttermost.

But the methods are not the methods of the glorious, lung-testing past. Modes have radically changed and the busy bee in gum-shoes has succeeded the roaring lion. Brass bands and flambeaux and huzzas haven't done much ice-cutting in politics since the first McKinley campaign and this one is the most noiseless within the memory of a young man whose ken goes back to Garfield and Arthur.

Whatever issues may be at stake they do not appeal to the emotions and the careers of the opposing candidates have been so hum-drum that the voter has no call to do hero-worshipping. One might as well throw up his hat and wave banners at a meeting of the City Council where representatives of rival paving companies were urging the merits of their wares. It's plain business this year and has resolved itself into a bread-and-butter affair.

A full dinner pail is a good and useful thing, but it's too practical and sordid to become hysterical over. The mighty issues growing out of the Civil War which made American politics the most picturesque game in the world have joined the mighty dead who expounded them in the golden age of the '70s and '80s. There are no giants in these days. To one who recalls the never-to-be-forgotten campaign of '84, the present one seems flat, stale and unprofitable. There is no wild, pulse-stirring chant like that historic refrain, "Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine" the slogan which aforetime stirred the zealots who loved him to idolatry and was a challenge of battle to the Democratic enemy.

Now it's a plain matter of the day's work and the ancient blood-feud between the parties is forgotten.

On the second floor of the Chamber of Commerce building is a big barn-like room, with a desk or two in it and sundry piles of lithographs and tracts. This is the place where the enlisted men of the party are received at Republican state headquarters. Opening off this ill-conditioned apartment is a smaller room a trifle more ornate in which Clifton N. McArthur, secretary and acting chairman of the committee really conducts the campaign which he says will carry Oregon for Taft by at least 20,000 majority. The irrepressible "Pat," legislator-elect and leading candidate for Speaker of the next Legislator is, at the tender age of 22, the youngest campaign manager in the United States. He is doing the work like a veteran, however, and there's no question but he's the boss of the whole shebang, either. Men much older in years and in the iniquity of politics defer to his judgment and if the state does go right, as everything indicates it will, Judge Taft and the Mighty Powers will owe "Pat" more than almost any other man in the state.

McArthur loves politics as a gambler loves his dice. However, ambitious he may be, and whatever his activity may profit him, he would play the game with the same avidity if he were the veriest "piker," tacking up prosperity posters.

Aside from the chairman there doesn't seem to be much "doing" at headquarters. A half dozen of the faithful are usually to be found loafing around the big room discussing bad cigars and the prospects of carrying Lonesome Township, Curry Cunty.

I looked over the patriots in the outer room after having perused the various posters which adorn the walls, announcing that the Honorable Bill Yell will address the American people in Sonders' chicken coop at Atom, Wasco County, Monday night, and I couldn't see them; really I couldn't see them.

The committee has done a lot of work however, without making much noise about it. McArthur tells me the campaign, all told, will have cost less than $5000 when the election is over. A force of employes which has ranged from four to 15 has been employed and they've not been asleep.

I'm informed that they've sent out four tons of literature, save the mark, and have distributed 75,000 Taft and Sherman buttons. More than 60,000 lithographs showing the two party candidates in white lawn ties have been disposed of. In order to realize what this means it may be stated for the benefit of those who are in a delicate condition mentally, that if these lithographs were piled one upon the other they would make a solid column of Republican expectancy higher than the Wells-Fargo building, and if placed end to end, their combined length would equal that of T. T. Geer.

More than 3000 personal letters have swelled the postoffice receipts and during the entire campaign enough hands have been shaken to pay off the National debt. Something like 100 rallies have been held, the most important one being the Beveridge affair at the Exposition building in Portland which laid it over any similar meeting in the annals of the state.

Of course, Oregon with only four electorial votes is only a white chip in the game of National politics, but even white chips help some and the party organization is striving valiantly, if quietly, on limited means to deliver the goods to Big William and "Sunny Jim" a week from next Tuesday.

Hard Coughs

We publish the complete formulas of all our medicines. We are proud of them. We have nothing to conceal; no secrets to hide.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

REVISED FORMULA

If your doctor fully endorses your taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for your hard cough, then buy it and use it. If he does not, then do not take a single dose of it. He knows all about this splendid medicine for coughs and colds.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

J. C. AYER CO., Manufacturing Chemists, Lowell, Mass.