

JUDGE HANNA DISOBEY ORDERS?

Question of Fact Raised Between His Honor and Attorney Reames.

GOT NO ORDER, HE AVERS

Supreme Court Telegraphed Order for Stay of Execution, but Judge Hanna Says No Word Reached Him.

JACKSONVILLE, Or., October 26.—(To the Editor.)—In the Oregonian of October 22 there appears an article under the caption "Who is to Pay the Costs?" which is so incorrect and so unjust to myself that I feel compelled to set the record straight by the following from the article: "The Supreme Court yesterday granted a stay of execution in the Coos case and Clerk Moreland of the Supreme Court notified Sheriff Jones by wire that this stay had been granted. Sheriff Jones laid the notice before Circuit Judge Hanna, who sentenced Coos, and Judge Hanna ordered the sheriff to disregard the notice and proceed at once to the penitentiary."

Says Statement is False.

This statement relative to myself is absolutely false. On the 24th day of September, H. M. Coos was convicted of statutory rape. The defense asked time to file a motion for a new trial and the motion came up for hearing on October 19. The motion was then denied and Coos was then sentenced. A motion for stay of execution was asked for by the attorneys for the defendant and denied. Late in the afternoon of October 20, while the sheriff was engaged in a criminal trial, County Judge J. R. Nell came to me and in a whispered conversation informed me that the sheriff was ready to start for Salem with Coos and that he was rumored that the Supreme Court had ordered a stay of execution upon the sheriff. I asked him if he had received any notification confirming the rumor. He replied he had not. I then told Judge Nell to let him go ahead unless he received some notice from the Supreme Court and he replied that he had not. I then told him that if he at any time or place received any order from the Supreme Court to obey it at once.

Knew of No Application.

I had no knowledge that the defendant had made an application for any order in the case and did not at that time believe that any order had been made, as it was not to be presumed that any order of that nature would be made in the case. I received a certified copy of a bill of exceptions being presented or at least some certificate from the lower court as to the facts in the case. No order had been signed by me. In my further ignorance I had taken it for granted that if any stay had been granted the court would duty be in order the commitment would be notified.

CAR CHECKER SHOT DOWN

Albert Lewis Wounded by an Unknown Thug at Pasco.

PASCO, Wash., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—While the sheriff was making up a box car on train No. 105 last night, Albert Lewis, car checker, was shot and painfully injured by an unknown hood. According to Lewis' story he had just begun work on the car when a masked man jumped from the shadow and fired two shots at him. Lewis at once fled to the station and threw his hammer at the man. Three posses of armed trappers at once joined in the search with the result that a tramp who refused to divulge his name has been placed in the county jail. The vigorous search is still being carried on. Lewis left for a Tacoma hospital.

SHERIFF MAKES NO DENIAL

Virtually Agrees to Facts as Related by Attorney Reames.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Judge Hanna's letter raises an issue of fact between himself and Clarence L. Reames, of Medford, who was attorney for Coos in the case referred to. The facts as stated in the dispatch to the Oregonian, which Judge Hanna condemns as false, were as given by Mr. Reames when he was in this city on October 21. The account of the proceedings given by Mr. Reames to the Oregonian correspondent was also related to Judge J. C. Moreland, clerk of the Supreme Court, in the presence of Sheriff Jones of Jackson County, and as Mr. Jones did not correct any of Mr. Reames' statements, he virtually agreed with them.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Valuable diamonds belonging to Miss Laing, companion of Mrs. John A. Finch, wife of the mining millionaire, were stolen from the Finch residence, 2340 First avenue, some time last night while the family was downstairs. Whether the thief entered the house by way of the second story, or walked boldly in through the kitchen in the rear and past the servants in a matter which the police are trying to solve. Investigation about the premises disclosed no clues. The doors and windows were closed as usual. Mrs. Laing and Mrs. Finch and Miss Laing were downstairs the greater part of the evening, and the robbery was not discovered until Miss Laing went to her room. She left her jewelry case in a small jewel case on the dresser.

WANT PAY WHILE ON ROAD

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—The convention of the Eighth Division of Railway Mail Clerks opened here today with full attendance. The feature of the meeting was an address by P. J. Schardt, vice-president of the Railway Mail Association of the United States. He said in part: "Postal clerks are the only Federal employees who spend all of their time on the road who are allowed no expense account. We want the next Congress to allow us our cost of eating and sleeping while away from home. In cases where mails are delayed by wrecks, etc., a clerk often is on duty for 60 or 70 hours. We do not expect to get paid for overtime. The business interests of the United States demand that mail clerks be efficient, capable and that they represent the best citizenship of the country."

FARMERS TO RAISE FUND

Benefactors of Open River to Contribute Towards Improvements. SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Nez Perce County, Idaho, farmers, who will be benefited by cheaper freight rates on farm products, will be asked to contribute to a fund for open river improvements when D. J. McGilvery and W. F. Kettenbach, of Lewiston, start out tomorrow to make an automobile canvass of farmers to interest them in a campaign for navigable inland waterways which will directly benefit the Lewiston country by opening the Snake and Columbia rivers for water navigation to the sea. Farmers will be asked to contribute to a fund for building river steamers and otherwise advancing the open-river movement, for with a water rate the farmers will be directly benefited by the water freight rate on all farm products from Lewiston to the Pacific Ocean.
