Eighteen Speeches in Day.

Mr. Bryan made 18 speeches during the day, and everywhere he went-plowing at three through mud and rain and in a rush to keep his many engagements-he was greeted by some of the largest and most enthusiastic audiences of his tour. The Democratic candidate's eventful day The Democratic canoniate's eventral day began at 3 A. M., when he addressed the night workers from the steps of the City Hail. Then followed a Broadway meeting at 19 o'clock and a forenoon trip to Brooklyn to address an atillence of laboring men in and about Market Square. From Brooklyn Mr. Bryan hurried across to Long Island City, then to Jersey City. where three speeches ended the New Jersey campaign.

Traitors Among Workingmen.

Although he had had but two hours hep out of 36, Mr. Bryan spoke with all f his characteristic vigor and good unnor. In all of his speeches today Mr. Bryan warned the workingmen against the traitors among them. He asserted that every laboring man who voted the Republican ticket would vote to repudiate the things that labor demanded in the Denver platform. He held up Mr. Taft as the chemy of labor and assalled him to every concriticity the reference to as the openny of labor and assalled him at every opportunity. His references to the guaranty of bank deposits brought shouts of approval at all of his meetings. Mr. Chanker shared everywhere in the welcome that was accorded Mr. Bryan in his principal Brooklyn speeches de-livered at the rink. Mr. Bryan first dis-cussed publicity of campaign contribu-tions.

difference between an aristocrat and a Democrat is that the aristocrat feels in duty bound to keep the people from hurting themselves, even if to do no he has to prevent the people from con-trolling their own government, while a Democrat says not that the people will make any mistakes, but that the people have a right to make their own mistakes and that nobody has a right to make their mistakes for them."

He scored Mr. Knox for his attitude while Attorney-General regarding Littlefield anti-trust bill, which,

Mr. Bryan flayed Mr. Taft for his silence at certain pinces where he de-livered speeches on the subject of guar-anty of bank deposits and his attitude on the trusts. He closed with another denunciation of the Fresident for Inter-fering in the campaign. Mr. Bryan will leave tomorrow morn-ing over the New York Central for Schemetady. Albury and Troy.

Flaberty, ex-Shoriff and anti-McCarren leader, at luncheon. Later in the day it was planned for Senator McCarren to bring the Fresidential candidats to Brooklyn in an automobile to address several meetings, one of which at least was arranged by Mr. McCarren's op-ponents.

Although Mr. Bryan did not reach his hotel until after a o'clock this morning, he was up a little after 9 o'clock and had conferences with many Democrats. including Mr. McCarren and Perry Belincluding Mr. McCarren and Perry Bel-mont. Mr. Bryan said that he feit very well after his 2-hour speaking trip yes-terday and declared it was the most stremouts he had ever had. He began his day's speaking tour at the rooms of the Order of Acorns in Broadway, where Lieutenant-Governor Chanler was also a speaker. As hour

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by Na-tional Chairman Norman E. Mack and by Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Mack. Mr. Bryan eulogized the workers of the country, and spake at some length on the various issues of the campaign. Mr. Bryan said that to him the meeting was one of the most interesting of the campaign. "If," he said, amid great cheering, "I have gained a place in your confidence, it is simply because I have taken you into my confidence. If you are willing to trust me, ft is only because I have to trust me, it is only secanse 1 nave shown my willingness to trust you. I do not say that the people will make no mistakes. I do say that I do not know of any reason why I should make a mistake against the people or look at questions except from the standpoint of the people. "We believe it will never he safe to have monopolles until God sende us angels to take charge of them, and from our experience with those in charge, we are inclined to believe that they come not from above, but from below." Taking up the labor question, he de-tailed the planks of the Denver platform and said he could not understand why Mr. Taft was so bitter against trial by jury. He hopes the time would come when employers would not threaten their employes, when every employer would recognize that the responsibility of etti-zenship rested upon the employe as well ag upon the employer. as upon the employer.
