SOUNDS PRAISE OF TAFT AND HUGHES

Roosevelt Predicts Their Election.

LETTER TO HERALD'S EDITOR

Both Stand for High Order of Government.

HAVE BROAD SYMPATHIES

Stand for Inflexible Standard of Honesty in Public and Private Life-President Scouts Charge That Hughes Is Narrow.

Roosevelt has sent to C. B. Wolffran. editor of the New York Herald, a letter dated October 27, praising William H. Taft and Governor Hughes and predicting the success of Mr. Taft and the Governor's re-election. The letter which was made public here, is as folows:

"I thank you for your remembrance of my birthday. Will you let me take this opportunity to thank you in return for the admirable work you are doing for clean and honest government by your support of Taft and Hughes? "I have profound faith in the good sense and conscientious devotion to duty and to high ideals of my fellow-Americans of German birth or German parentage. I am certain that they will ge right, if only the facts can be clearly presented to them, and, thanks largely to your efforts, the facus are thus being clearly presented.

Stand for Good Government.

"Mr. Taft stands in the Nation and Mr. Hughes stands in the state for that high order of governmental efficiency, and that high standard of governmental honesty, the union of which is abso lutely esential in order to secure good government

"Each adheres and has always adhered, in public and private life, to the most inflexible standard of honesty and fair dealing as between man and man. Each represents what is best in American citizenship. Not one word of any kind can be truthfully sald against the private or public character of either, Men of Broad Sympathies.

"Each has the broadest sympathies need say that the accusation that Gov- of St. Louis, counsel for the labor leadernor Hughes is a narow and illiberal man is preposterously false. I believe the Buck Company that they would adelection and the other in the state is themselves and would submit the car assured by overwhelming majorities, and I thank you for the way in which In view of this position, they submitby your efforts you have contributed ! to bring about this result.

TAFT NOT ENEMY OF LABOR

Donnelly Tells President Only Professional Labor Men Back Bryan.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.-President Recesevelt today made public a long let ter from Samuel B. Donnelly, ascretary of General Arbitration Board of the New York Trades, in which Mr. Donnelly upholds the position of the President's rep resentations of the record of Judge Taft, as set forth by him in a letter to P. H. Grace, of Binghamton, N. Y., recently.

Mr. Donnelly declares that the Presi dent's letter ably shows that Mr. Taft is not an enemy of labor. From personal knowledge of Mr. Taft's record as Governor of the Philippines and in Pauama, where heh ad extensive relations aupports the President's estimate of Mr Paft's character. Mr. Donnelly cites at interpretation of the Federal eight-hour law reported in 1907 and Mr. Taft's logevity pay increases order of that year instances of the Judge's fairness ward labor, Continuing, Mr. Donnelly

"The professional Democratic labor workers who have been in the job in all recent campaigns are leading the movement in the East. No spontaneous movement against Judge Tart has appeared among the workers, and none but salaried officers are on the stump against him. Those of us who remember the lacratic administration are of the opinion that if Mr. Bryan is elected or the tariff revised on the Democratic proposed plan of a tariff for revenue only,' we will all have plenty of time for jury duty."

Then Morse, With Balance of Only $3100, Draw Personal Check to Copper King's Order for $126,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 .- The apparent determination of Alfred H. Curtis to exonerate himself of all blame respecting the banking transactions for which he and C. W. Morse are now un-dergoing trial in the United States District Court here, became more defined today when, under the prompting of his attorney, Mr. Curtis pro duced a letter written by him under date of June 13, 1907, and addressed to Morse, in which he protested vigor-ously against the continuance of practices instituted by the latter, which in Curtis' opinion constituted a grave nenace to the stability of the bank of North America.

Morse Draws Thousands.

The incident of the overdraft of $210,000 by Morse was made the subject of searching questions by witness' own attorney. Mr. Curtis re-lated the coming of F. Augustus Heinge to him with a request for a loan of $126,000 and his refusal to grant the accommodation. Morse remonstrated with him, saying, "Unless we let them have the money they must go to the wall."

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Oct. 28 .- W. H. Taft and Charles E. Hughes were the attractions at a great Republican mass meeting at Madison Square Garden tonight. The meeting was remarkable in several respects At every mention of Mr. Hughes' name which filled every available space in the auditorum, cheered him for 16 minutes without stopping. Mr. Hughes made a haracteristic address, which was received enthusiastically. But it remained for Mr. Taft to inspire the greatest demonstration. For 19 minutes Madison Square Garden trembled with the stamping of feet and the roar racket, but was powerless to do so. When the noise ceased Mr. Taft began his address. His voice was hourse, but the crowd was satisfied merely to look at him, and his every word was cheered There were a number of other speakers before Mr. Taft and Mr. Hughes, but the throng was impatient to hear the Presidential and state nominees. Parade Ends Remarkable Day.

M. Morin says the day of aerial vehicles is here, but that there is no place in Paris for them to land. There is, he says, too much traffic in the streets, and public places are blocked with monuments, so he is glad to be the first to remedy the difficulty and neourage progress. Iron uprights projecting over the roof form the support of a large shed with a second moveable roof, which can be opened on the approach of the flying-machine There is also a space in the building for a toolshop and a reservoir of gasoline. M. Morin has sent invitations to Wilbur Wright and Santos Dumont to inspect the first structure of this kind ever built.

LONDON, Oct. 28.-Suffragette disturbnces have driven the police to the unusual course of temporarily closing the strangers' and ladies' galleries in the House of Commons. This was announced by the Speaker in response to a question from Premier Asquith and Mr. Balfour, the leader of the opposition, as Parliament was adjourned tonight.

During the evening, while the House was discussing the licensing bill, a sensation was caused by the display of a placard and sudden shrill cries from the ladles' gallery, demanding votes for women while simultaneously a bundle of handbills fluttered down from the strangers' gallery to the opposite end of the chamber and a man shouted:

"Justice to women."
