Man Who Bitterly Fought Him

RIGHT ON EVERY QUESTION

Reappearance of Old New York Leader Arouses Democratic Enthusiasm — Bryan Predicts Victory and Scores Taft.

BRYAN'S DAY'S WORK.
Leaving New York City in the morning, Mr. Bryan made a series of speeches up the Hudson valley. He began at Hastings, and went on to Tarrytown, Ossining, Peekskill, Cold Springs, Poughkeepsie, and Rhinecliff, Hudson, and Rhinecliff, in the afternoon.
In the evening he spoke at Albany, where ex-Senator David B. Hill, who fought his nomination in 1896, publicly gave adhesion to his leadership. Then he went on to Schenelecty and ended the night with a great meeting at Troy.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 28.—This feature of W. J. Bryan's tour up-state today was the appearance on the platform here tonight of ex-United States Senator David B. Hill. It was the first time in several years that Mr. Hill had attended such a gathering, so, when he stepped forward as chairman to introduce Democracy's leader, the great crowd that packed the hall where the meeting was held arose to a man and cheered enthusiastically.
"Although not connected with politics," Mr. Hill said, "I reiterate that I am heartily in favor of the Democratic State and National ticket. I am not so partisan, however, that I would support the party, whether right or wrong, but permit me to say that I support the National ticket in the campaign because in my judgment the Presidential candidates who honor us with their presence here tonight, is absolutely right upon every contested question in this campaign. It is time for a change in the administration of the government, a change of measures and men. Our candidate owes the nomination not to any one man or set of men, but only to the people themselves. I have no doubt that President himself and not a dummy for any man. He will not be led around with a string like a great big caged bear." Calls Bryan His Friend.
Mr. Hill, referring to the Republican charge that a panic would follow Mr.
Bryan's election, declared that it would not be a business panic, but it would be a panic on the part of the hundreds of thousands of Federal officeholders and public officials who will have to surrender their places to the victorious party.
He concluded his encomium of Mr.
Bryan by saying:
"Our candidate is your friend. He is my friend. He is the friend of the laborer and the people. He has been the courageous, sincere and constant friend of labor ever since he has been in public life. He is as incorruptible as he is brave, and he can neither be purchased nor intimidated."
Glad Hill's by His Side.
The Democratic candidate received an ovation when he rose to speak. He was cheered to the echo and the large audience reluctantly obeyed his gesture to become quiet. He expressed his appreciation of the cordial welcome he had received "in the capital city of our Nation's greatest state," and replied to Mr. Hill by saying:
"I appreciate the generous words employed by Senator Hill in presented me to you. One of the pleasures of this campaign is the unity that manifests itself in the Democratic party."
"I believe," he continued, "that we are going to win a great victory, and my friends, I am glad that Senator Hill is fighting by my side, prepared to share with me the joy of a Democratic triumph. This victory would be incomplete if it were a sectional victory."
Lays Stress on Publicity.
Mr. Bryan said he would present "some evidence that will convince you of the soundness of our position." First, however, he urged support of the Democratic state and Congressional tickets, and Congressional tickets—made a plea for the Democratic platform and program, and then he turned to the question of publicity.
"I have said," he said, "that we are going to win a great victory, and my friends, I am glad that Senator Hill is fighting by my side, prepared to share
with me the joy of a Democratic triumph. This victory would be incom-

DOES NOT NEED MUCH SLEEP Bryan Learns Something and Then Claims All in Sight.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Mr. Bryan was in excellent spirits when he started on his trip up-state this morning. "I have had a delightful and busy time during my stay in New York," he said, "and I think I have learned something. I have learned that we waste a great deal of time in sleep. Always before I had supposed that a man must have eight hours of sleep a night, but I find that you New Yorkers thrive on five hours."
"What do you think of the signs, Mr.
Bryan?" he was asked, as he climbed into an automobile for the trip to the station, where he went to take the train.
"I think the signs are improving all the time," he replied.
"Do you expect to carry New York State?"
"I certainly do. And I expect to carry the entire Middle West as well as some of the Eastern States. We will have enough and more. Nebraska is sure, and so, I think is Ohio."

DOUGLASVILLE, Ga., Oct. 28.—Thomas E. Watson, People's Party candidate for President, in a speech here tonight attacked what he termed the "standpat Republican Senate," which he said would block remedial legislation should the Republican party be victorious. He also accused Mr. Bryan, calling him an "extremely dangerous candidate for the South because of his views on the negro question."

NEED REAL RAIL-SPLITTER

Independence Candidate Says That Greatest Issue Before Public Today Is Standard Oil—Bryan Is Given Scorching.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 28.—At a well attended meeting of the Independence party tonight, Thomas L. Hisgen, Presidential nominee, made an address which was followed by speeches by M.
M. Howard, of Alabama, and C. L. Pe-lock, of Boston. Mr. Hisgen said, in part:
"If I judge the people rightly, my friends, they are getting tired of half-splitting candidates. I would like to go back 40 or 50 years and have another real rail-splitter.
"The great issue before the people today is the trust issue, the Standard Oil trust. I have tried to tell you how the Standard Oil Company reaches up into the high places of our government and controls our lawmakers and the policies of the country."
"I want to ask you what Mr. Bryan or Mr. Taft has done? What have they risked for the benefit of the people? Mr.
Bryan, if he is defeated this trip, will write another book and instead of calling it 'The First Battle,' he will call it 'The Third Battle, and Lost.'
"And Mr. Taft, on the other hand, Mr. Hearst said the other day, 'He is nothing more or less than a big, good natured, well-to-do man who goes to Africa and kills all the lions and comes back and makes me will have another eight years of him.'"
