INSPECT COUNTY'S AGRE—County Commissioners Lightner and Barnes paid a visit to Claremont Tavern yesterday to look over the county's property. In the early $6's the Springville townsite, opposite $5. John, was laid out including a town square of one acre. The county recently vacated the townsite, and the acre reverted to the county. Since the townsite was laid out the Northern Pacific railway has been laid across the county's acre, and Claremont Tavern stands haif in it. Shumaner & Hoch, the owners of the tayern, are negotiating for the purchase of the one-third acre on which it tageds has dear agreement and builders.

A serious accident last to the scene.

KNOCKED DOWN BY CAR—C. Roy, who lives in the Cambridge building, 266 Morrison street, was the vletim of a painful accident last night while crossing the alippery street at Sixth and Morrison.
He was struck by Car & westbound, on the Mount Tabor line, and knocked violently to the payement. Badly shaden up and bruised, but not seriously injured, he was assisted to his apartments.

WILL Go Arouno Hora.—Dr. Samuel C. Slocum and wife, of Portland, will sail from San Francisco next week for Europe on the street of Mrs. Slocum. It is the Intention of Dr. Slocum to spend a year in Europe in post-graduate work in medicine.

Unitarian Church Social.—The Willthe tayern, are negotiating for the pur-chase of the one-third acre on which it stands, but do not wish to pay more than $250. The Commissioners value the land at $2500 an acro, as it adjoins the railroad and is close to the river.

at 1920s an acro, as it adjoins the railroad and is close to the river.

Railroad Man Weds.—G. F. Sheran, the city passenger agent for the Rock Island, stole a march on his many friends along railroad row last week and quietly slipped away to Vancouver and was married. His bride was Miss Florence Brown, of Woodburn. Mr. Sheran is one of the youngest passenger agents along railroad row. Had his brothers in the craft discovered his plans, there is no doubt they would have caused Mr. Sheran and his bride no end of embarrassment. Their attentions were avoided by the carefully inid plans of Mr. Sheran, and his associates knew nothing of the match until he told his friends about it yeaterday. The couple have taken apartments at Eighteenth and Couch streets and commenced housekseping.

CLUB NAMES CEMBITTEES.—The East Side Business Men's Club has appointed the following committees: Funds for Rose Carnival.—H. H. Newhall, George Dilworth, E. R. Gelinsky, W. H. Mac-Monies and C. A. Bigelow; parks, C. A. Bigelow, C. H. Raffety and H. H. Newhall; Grand avenue car service, H. H. Newhall, E. R. Gelinsky and G. T. Atchley. The Rose Festival Association will co-operate with the officials of the East Side organization in raising funds. Later money will be raised for decorating the streets of the East Side. Chairman Bigelow says that the management of the Hose Festival has promised to include the East Side in its general arrangement and hopes for hearty co-operation of all the people.

LECTURE AGAIN POSTFONED.—After two postponements of an announced lecture by Dr. W. T. Williamson before the Ad Club of Portland, notices were sent out yesterday of the fact that Dr. Williamson yesterday of the fact that Dr. Williamson was unable to come last night. The reason assigned is that the doctor is in attendance as an expert witness upon a murder trial at Everett. The notice reads: "Telegram just recived—Dr. Williamson still detained on murder trial at Everett, so we have to postpone again. We will announce date soon as we get Dr. Williamson corrailed in Portland." The subject of the lecture is "Suggestion the Chief Force in Advertising."

ARCHITECTURAL EXHIBITION.—While the next exhibition of the Portland Architectural club probably will not be held until about March of next year, there is already considerable activity among the members to prepare for the event. As at present outlined, the exhibition is to be of more importance, both in extent and character of exhibits, than anything the club has heretofure undertaken. At the last meeting of the club the matter was discussed in an informal way and plans suggested to make the Spring exhibition one that will be an object lesson not only to students of architecture, but to the public generally. Most of the exhibits are expected to be contributed by Portland architects, but endeavors probably will be made to have other cities of the Coast represented.

CARS COLLIDE ON GRADE.—Stippery car

Coast represented.

Cans Collide on Grane.—Stippery car tracks caused a slight collision between two cars last night about 6 o'clock on the west approach to the Burnside street bridge. No one was injured, but a good-sized crowd in each car received a shaking-up and scare. A Woodlawn car had started up the heavy grade leading to the bridge from Front street and came to a standstill. Even the brakes applied, it slipped backward and bumped into a Broadway car which was moving slowly upgrade. A pane of glass was broken in one of the cars. Owing to a report that a serious accident had occurred, two ambulances were sent to the scens.

GOGORZA TONIGHT.

Baritone Created Sensation in Vic toria on Election Night.

Up in Victoria, where their election reached no less a degree of excitement than it is doing here, the Gogorza concert was scheduled to take place the night after the election, and as his recital was under the auspices of the smart British Festival Society, all the members took to laying their election wagers in Gogorza concert ticketa. Gogorza sang in Victoria two years ago when he was through the Northwest, and as usual, left the most favorable impression there, so that his house the other evening was crowded with a brilliant and well-dressed throng of music lovers. The recital here will begin premptly at 8:30 o'clock tonight and the programme to be presented by the great haritone is really a thing of beauty, and contains the names of such writers as Schumann, Brahms, Alvarez, Massenet, Tours and others. The concert tonight is under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman.
