

MAJORITY ELECTS SHOW BIG GROWTH

Nearly Half Have Registered Vote Above Legal Maximum of Three Hundred.

SOME EXCEED SIX HUNDRED

Precinct Count Shows East Side Has 4284 More Registered Voters Than West Side—Eighth Ward Largest, With 6057.

In spite of the fact that the County Clerk and County Court cut down the size of many precincts last Spring and created many new ones, the Fall registration shows that in some precincts there are now upwards of 600 voters. The law provides that there shall not be more than 300 voters in each precinct. When Mr. Fields and Judge Webster laid out the county's territory it was thought that this provision of the statute would be met by the present precinct lines, but it appears that they failed to make sufficient allowance for the growth of the city.

Thorough Canvass Will Then Be Made for Funds to Help Big Rose Celebration.

The East Side Business Men's Club has thought best to do so formally, through its special committee for the canvass of funds for the 1909 Rose Festival until after the Tag day for the Baby Home and the Presidential election. This attitude has been taken by the committee of which H. H. Newhall is chairman, for the reason that it was felt that it would be unfair to detract from the interest manifested in the fine charity which the Baby Home management is engaged in and that people are also so much absorbed in the outcome of next Tuesday's contest that effective work cannot be done in the meantime.

SATURDAY GLOVE SALE.

Two-pair French Kid Gloves, $1.50 grade; 5-pair, $1.75 quality. $1.25 a pair. All leading Fall shades, black and white, all sizes. Gloves fitted at counter. McAllen & McDonnell, Third and Morrison.

Fine Piano Tuning. F. S. Hillstatter, considered by all tuners and piano dealers to be the most expert tuner and tone regulator in Portland, has charge of the tuning department in the Wiley J. Allen Company.

SPEAKS AT DINNER

Chamberlain Tells Mailmen He Will Be Elected.

GIVES PLEDGE OF SUPPORT

Congressman Ellis Also Promises to Work for Better Pay of Federal Employees on Railways.

"I am going to be United States Senator, boys, and when I go back to Washington I shall do all I can for you," said Governor George W. Chamberlain at the railway mail clerks at the banquet tendered to J. P. Schardt, their National vice-president, at the Commercial Club last night.

Lane Backs Up Pledge. "Our Representatives will have to keep their word," said Mayor Harry Lane, the third speaker, with Democratic possibility. "I'll put myself on record as one who will see that they keep their promises."

Asked to Address Teachers. For the State Board of Education, J. H. Ackerman, superintendent of public instruction, invited the clerks to address teachers' institutes with the idea of instructing pupils in the better and more legible direction of mail.

Addresses were also delivered by John P. Carroll, editor of the Evening Telegram, Charles S. Jackson, Manager of the Evening Journal, and by James E. Mahon, Walter W. Woodruff, Charles E. Kitching, W. A. Crosby and Mr. Adelman, of Spalding, who made many remarks.

DELAY FESTIVAL CAMPAIGN

EAST SIDE CLUBS TO WAIT UNTIL AFTER ELECTION.

Major and United Railways Bond. If the $100,000 bond of the United Railways Company is forfeited, it will be through the efforts of Mayor Lane, apparently, for the City Council yesterday went on record as its duty to enforce all the conditions of bonds and other contracts with the city. The bond was posted to guarantee the construction of a line to Seaside, which the Mayor will ask City Attorney Kavanaugh in the near future to institute proceedings to collect on the bond.

TELLS OF CHARTER PLANS. R. W. Montague Addresses United East Side Push Clubs.

R. W. Montague, member of the Charter Revision Commission, explained to the United East Side Push Clubs last night the progress made on the new charter, discussing at length the general plan, civil service and street improvement provisions.

REURNS FROM MEETING

C. B. AITCHISON BACK FROM COMMISSIONERS' SESSION.

Meeting at Washington, He Says, Was Step Toward Uniform Regulation of Railroads.

Clyde B. Aitchison, member of the Oregon Railroad Commission, has returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended the annual convention of the Interstate Association of Railroad Commissioners.

Emilio Gogorza, in Song Recital

Great Baritone Charms Brilliant Audience at Hellig Theater, Singing Twenty-one Songs in Five Languages.

NEVER has a more talented, satisfying, conscientious concert artist visited Portland than Emilio de Gogorza, who sang 21 songs, and in so doing used five languages, before a brilliant audience last night at the Hellig Theater.

Since his last visit here Gogorza has evidently been working hard at his vocal studies. Some people would say "coaching," but I decline to use this word in connection with vocalism, as it is too suggestive of a treacherous compass, and I can't imagine him singing an artful solo like the "Toreador" song from "Carmen," but he makes up for this in poetic finish and lovely tone.

Amusements. What the Press Agency Saw. "The Road to Yesterday." Tonight.

Major and United Railways Bond. If the $100,000 bond of the United Railways Company is forfeited, it will be through the efforts of Mayor Lane, apparently, for the City Council yesterday went on record as its duty to enforce all the conditions of bonds and other contracts with the city.

Black-Face Coming to Orpheum. Lew Hawkins, who comes to the Orpheum next week, has a collection of songs and stories that are all original and very amusing; he claims they are a sure cure for melancholia.

James J. Corbett Next Week. Great interest is felt in the coming of James J. Corbett to the Baker next week opening at the Grand Opera House and his announcement there has been an unusual demand for seats.

"Midnight in New York" Next. The coming attraction at the Lyric for the week commencing next Sunday afternoon will be that thrilling melodramatic spectacle, "Midnight in New York."

A Dream of Beauty. One of the most gorgeous dancing acts in Vaudeville has been secured by Sullivan & Casidine, who are bringing Lind from the Palais Royal, Paris. This act comes next week. The costumes of Lind are visions of loveliness and are veritable creations.

"Montana Limited" Coming. "The Montana Limited," which Klimt & Gazzard present at the Star Theater week of Sunday matinee, November 1, is an American Western play containing strong heart interest, thrilling climaxes, absorbing story, line comedy.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS. Jovial Fred Warren (of Warren & Blanchard) introducing an impersonation of a colored southerner that is the funniest he has ever seen. He enjoys a wide reputation among play-goers as a leading spirit in the fun-makers of the vaudeville company. He was a shining light with the Primrose-West minstrel in their paucity days.

PREPARE FOR HALLOWEEN

Social Affairs and Usual Pranks Will Mark Its Coming.

Halloween, with the array of quaint superstitions and medieval legends which the name conjures up, will pay its annual visit tomorrow night. Although the day has been losing its significance these many years until few people now bother themselves about the advent of the occasion, preparations are being made for its observance by a small number.

TAKE STRAW VOTE TODAY

Democrat Expects Bryan to Win in Cigar-Store Election. This is the day that "Doc" Anderson will take his straw vote. Beginning this morning a clock Anderson will locate himself at Schiller's cigar store, at the corner of Sixth and Washington streets, and solicit voters. While Anderson is at the store, he will "whop it up" for Bryan, Schiller will have a watcher on hand to see that there are no Democratic supporters. Anderson has hope that during the day Bryan will receive the greatest number of votes.

PLANNING BRYAN RALLY. Gearin and McAllister to Speak at Armory Tomorrow. The Democratic State Central Committee has formulated its programme for the close of the campaign. Tomorrow night the Armory will be the scene of the final rally. Arrangements have been made for the introduction of speeches by William Jennings Bryan and other Democratic orators on the platform, while the addresses of the evening will be made by ex-United States Senator Gearin and E. S. J. McAllister.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR SEAMEN. At the Portland Seamen's Friend Society, corner of Third and Flanders streets, the following programs will be given tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock: "The Olden Days," vocal solo, Mr. Gannon; sleight-of-hand tricks, Mr. Bell; vocal solo, with violin obligato, Mr. Phillips.

PORTLAND, MAINE, CHILD Ill, Weak and Emaciated, Restored to Health by Vinol. "Our little daughter, six years of age, after a severe attack of the measles, which developed into pneumonia, was left pitifully thin, weak and emaciated. She had no appetite, and her stomach was so weak it could not retain food. She lay in this condition for weeks, and nothing the doctor prescribed did a bit of good, and we were beginning to think she would never recover."

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR HAD SAPOLIO. Is especially valuable during the Summer season, when outdoor occupations and sports are most in order. GRASS STAINS, MUD STAINS AND CALLOUS SPOTS yield to it, and it is particularly agreeable when used in the bath after violent exercise.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR THE BEST OF THE BEST ALL HAVANA CIGARS. A. Santaella & Co., Makers, Tampa. The Hart Cigar Co., Distributors.
