PARKER SOUNDS PRAISES

Once More Dubbed Boy Orator, Bryan Accuses Taft of Threatening Panic and Commends His Bank Guaranty Fad. ,

SYRACUSE N. T. Opt. 23.—Having elelivered in this city tonight his last speech of the campaign in the Empire State, W. J. Bryan is new speeding weesward and in the morning will make snother invasion of Ohio. A desture in connection with Mr. Bryan's furrival here was his initiation in his private car into the Order of Mystique Skrewe of Kanoono, a Syracuse boost-pre ciub. According to the rules, he swas given the Indian name of "Heap Big Talk Paponee of the Platte," which interpreted, means "The Boy Orator of the Platte."

The Bryan special arrived here early

The Bryan special strived here early whis evening and found a hig crowd on hand to welcome the candidate. In response to the demand of many present, Mr. Bryan stopped on the station plat-form long enough to shake hands with feveral hundred persons who crowded shout him. He was then hurried away for the two addresses scheduled for the ening. The principal gathering was the Wisting Opera-house, where Alton Parker also spoke. Mr. Parker land ed Mr. Bryan in a speech which con-afned also much criticism for Mr. Tatt

Parker's Fulsome Laudation.

"It gives me pleasure," he said, "to come here tonight, "uneclaily because I am permitted to advocate for a little time the cause of one who has ideals, lofty character and exalted patriotism—the eratic standard-bearer for the Presi-

Bryan.

In his principal remarks, Mr. Bryan called attention to the fact that the campaign was drawing to a close and that the Republicans were resorting to threats of a panic in case he should be elected. He referred to the presence in the city of Mr. Taft and expressed wonder that Mr. Taft had not been able to stave off the panic of 196, when he was in Mr. Roosevelt's Cabinet.

Plea for Deposit Guaranty.

Plea for Deposit Guaranty.

Mr. Bryan caused a storm of applause when, in discussing the guaranty of bank deposits as advocated in the Denver platform, he quoted, in refutation of Mr. Taft's statement that the guaranty of deposits would "ceaken the National banking system, an except from a United States Consular report, as follows:

The well-known thrift of the German prophs has its foundation on facts. The savings banks of Germany have some 10,000,000 pass books out and their amount of deposits is $1,213,000,000. These deposits are practically all guaranteed by the various municipalities of the empire, and the condition forms a bulwark of conditions in the security of private wealth and earnings that cannot be shaken by hard times, panica bank fallures, etc.

"Here is a fact," said Mr. Bryan, "which I present in answer to Mr. Taft's opinion. The German people cannot be accused of carelossness in their banking business, any more than their banking business, any more than the present the second of the carelossness in their banking business, any more than their banking business, any more than they can in other business."

A feature of the meeting was the fact that it was presided over by Thomas W. Meacham, president of the Syracuse Chamber of Commerce.

BRYAN TALKS ON CALAMITY

Money Wasted on Red Fire While Men Are Homeless,

ROME, N. Y., Oct. 29,-"They are talking prosperity and the papers tell us that they are going to have a great hig parade in New York City next Saturday night. They are going to have red fire. They are going to have illuminations. They are going to have illuminations. They are going to have bands, and when I was in New York, I saw them building grandstands along the route for people who will watch the parade. Why don't they take the money and furnish lodgings at night for the hundreds of men whom I saw sleeping on the benches in the park? I had occasion to ride down Broadway two nights, one time at 2 o'clock and another time at 4 o'clock to the morning, and there were not less. 2 o'clock and another time at 4 o'clock in the morning, and there were not less than 20° men sleeping in one park on beaches and they were protecting themselves from the cold by tying newspapers around their limbs. While these men have not the money with which to buy lodgings, the Hepublian party is spending money for red fire in order to prove that it is the party of prosperity. This is the way William J. Bryan concluded his speech at this place today. The meeting was held at the opera-house and Mr. Bryan was introduced by Rev. The meeting was held at the opera-nouse and Mr. Bryun was introduced by Rev. Mr. Peabody, of the First Baptist Church. Mr. Bryan's theme was "Justice," and he said that the Democratic party presented a larger hope of Justice in government than did the Republicans. The crowd niled the hall to overflowing.

Brynn Says He Will Crusnde for Honest Politics.

COHOES, N. Y., Oct. 29.-Refreshed after a good night's rest. William J. Birran opened the last day of his campaign in New York State here early this morning. He spoke in the operabouse to a crowd which filled every sgat, the aisles and lobbies, and was greated with appleause throughout. After urging his hearers to vote for the Democratic Congressional nominee in this district and for the Democratic state candidates. Mr. Bryan predicted election to the Presidency

Mr. Bryan said that before the Denver convention the Republicans were very slient. They said if the Democrats would only nominate me they would have a walkover. Well, at this time we are able to forecast the result, and what is the condition? Mr. Bryan charged that the United States Senate was the bulwark of predatory wealth, and that corporations had controlled the actions of Sanators who were chosen to represent the people. Speaking of the trusts, he asserted that Mr. Tart had not attacked a single trust, because, he said, every trust magnate was supporting him, "and out of the funds the Republicans are preparing to huy every vote that can be bought."

Mr. Bryan vehemently declared that the Republican party, was going backward invised of forward with respect to labor.

Mr. Bryan vehemently declared that the Republican party was going backward instead of forward with respect to labor. He characterized the promise of a revision of the tariff as an attempt to perpetrate a fraud upon the people. His audience appeared to be practically unanimous for the law to guarantee bank deposits, as indicated by the number of hands raised when he put the matter to a

Looks Upon Taft-Chanler Move as Republican Frame-up.

NEW YORK. Oct. 29.—National Chairman Mack deciated his belief to-day that an investigation would show that the "Taft and Chanler Business Men's League," which is seeking to secure the election of Taft for President and Chanler for Governor of the state was being financed by the Re-dent and Chanler for Governor of the state, was being financed by the Republican National Committee.

The league, said Mr. Mack, is circulating sample ballots, showing how to shift the ticket, and is extensively advertising in the local press advising the election of Mr. Taff and Mr. Chanler. None of the regular Democratic organizations, asserted Mr. Mack, was behind this movement, whose promoters have carefully concealed their identity.

The National chairman declares that the appearance of ex-Governor Hill with Mr. Bryan at the meeting in Albany last night would undoubtedly bring many of the old-line Democrats into the ranks

Stand Stiff-Kneed, Says Kern.

ROUNVILLE, Ind., Out. 23.—A crowd that cheered the hearts of the Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate and his co-campaigners packed the Courthouse yard here today and listened to and roundly applauded John W. Kern. Mr. Kern was in better voice than yesterday, and here and at other stopping places entered into a discussion of campaign issues with enthusiasm, which was reflected in the temper of his audience. He urged voters to "stand stiff-kneed" against threats of discharge in the event of Bryan's election.

Charles F. Skelly, secretary to the Police Commissioners, was put on the stand and produced the records showing the application made by Cross through his attorney, W. H. Davis.

Davis was then called, but denied that he had seen or talked to Ruef about the license. Mr. Heney said he considered Davis, although called by the prosecution, an "adverse witness," and sought to attack his credibility. This brought vigorous objections from counsel for Ruef, who characterized Mr. Heney's action as "unheard of," and was frequently sustained by the court.
