POLICY TO BE CONTINUED BY BOARD OF TRADE.

Only One Vote Is Cast Against Market in Options at Meeting of Grain Firms.

The Board of Trade will continue to deal in grain futures. The members of the grain department held a meet-ing in the rooms of the Board yester-day afternoon and decided upon this tiep.

There has been some agitation lately There has been some agitation lately as to whether or not the best policy would be the elimination of future trading. The large grain export firms were opposed to this feature of the boards work and when several months ago, it was decided to take up the speculative end, the exporters withdrew their support from the board. Since then the attendance has not been large and interest in the board has wared. With the recent aunouncement that the Merchants Exchange would soon provide a sample market, a crisis in the affairs of the Board of Trade seemed imminent and it was decided to put the question plainly up to the members whether they wanted a future or only a cash they wanted a future or only a cash a thorough discussion of the question as to whether the trading in futures should be continued or not, and when it was put to a vote, the resolution to continue operations as in the past was carried with but one dissenting vote. Letters from 20 country members on the subject were submitted at the meeting, only three of which were opposed to a continuation of trading in time gentracts.

While there was not much said on the subject, the inference was plain that the grain men present objected to being dictated to by the large export houses of this city. They expressed themselves as determined to stand by the Board and support both the cash and the future functions of the institution.

the institution. In the meantime the Merchants' Exchange is going ahead in its prepara-tions and early in November will begin operations as a cash grain market. As most of the grain dealers are members of both exchanges, there is some curiosity to see which institution they will support. The one that gets the better attendance naturally will become the grain center of the local trade. Two grain markets cannot very well exist in one city.

Where Bullets Frew.
David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the Civil War, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: 'The good Electric Bitters have done is worth more than $500 to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cared me. I now take them as a tonic and they keep me strong and well soc at Woodard, Clarke & Co. drugstore. Where Bullets Flew.
