BULLET-HOLE IN HEAD

Old Schoolmate Stumbles on Body

Wealthy Hunting — Member of Wealthy Family, He Probably Committed Suicide.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—The body of Fred C. Ammann, 21 years of age, and son of wealthy parents, at the present time in Germany, was found today in a clump of bushes in Clenden Canyon, a mile from his home in the suburb of Hollywood, with a bullet hole through the head. It had evidently been there for many months and was nearly devoured by coyotes. It is believed to have been a case of suicide.

The young man disappeared last July and had not been seen since. The discovery was made by Emil Le Boeque, a former schoolmate of Ammann, while he was hunting quail in the canyon.

Boeque saw a quail fly into the clump of bushes and peering around looking for the game, found the body of his friend.

The family of Ammann is very wealthy. It is a German family of numerous members and had resided in Hollywood several years. More than a year ago the family sold out its property in California and returned to Germany, Fred Ammann included.

PARALLEL CASE TO OREGON'S

Compulsory Pledge Adopted in June Open to Same Objections.

THE PROVISIONS OF THE OREGON primary law relating to the popular endorsement of Senator, differ only slightly from those of the North Dakota statute. As originally adopted, the primary law in this state permitted legislative candidates voluntarily to subscribe to either of two pledges or "statements," but that course was entirely optional with the legislative aspirant. He could sign Statement No. 1, which obligated him to support for Senator the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes in the general election preceding the session of the Legislature, when a Senator should be elected. The other statement presented in the primary law pledges the legislator subscribing to it to support for Senator the candidate of his party receiving the greatest number of votes in the general election immediately preceding the election of Senator by the State Legislature.

Here, as in North Dakota, is the election of this state last June adopted a law expressly instructing and directing members of the Legislature to vote for the people's choice for Senator. A great many politicians discussed the subject yesterday after hearing of the North Dakota decision and insisted that the measure adopted in this state should be unconstitutional in that regard. The text of the instruction amendment adopted in this state, and which makes compulsory the support of the people's choice for Senator by members of the Legislature, is as follows: "That we, the people of the State of Oregon, hereby instruct our Representatives and Senators in our Legislative Assembly, as such officers, to vote for and elect the candidates for United States Senator from this state who receive the highest number of votes in the general election."

It is argued by those who have investigated the subject that under the findings of the North Dakota Supreme Court, as stated in the instruction amendment in this state is just as objectionable from a constitutional viewpoint as that feature of the North Dakota statute which has been held invalid.

SUMPTER ROAD NOT UNDER INTERSTATE COMMISSION, IS CLAIM.

BAKER CITY, Or., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Officers of the Oregon Lumber Company in this city, say that the action being taken against the company in this state by the Interstate Commerce Commission is in reality a suit to determine the matter of jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission over the Sumpter Valley Railroad. The suit charges the Oregon Lumber Company with failure to use safety appliances on the company's railway in Oregon. Representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission visited this city some time ago and contended that the railway should maintain the safety appliances provided by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The railway company contends that it is not an interstate railway, and is not subject to any control of the Commission. The Oregon Lumber Company contends that it is not a company in this state by the Interstate Commerce Commission act means a very large expenditure, which can be saved if the result of the litigation now begun will establish the fact that the road is not in the jurisdiction of the Commission.

FAKE BATTLE WITH YAQUIS

Reported Encounter Near Hermosillo Never Took Place.

NOGALES, Ariz., Oct. 30.—After a thorough investigation of the reported killing of 40 Yaquis, including Chief Bule, in an encounter at Hermosillo, it has been found that the foundation for the report exists. There have been no encounters with the Yaquis since the battle of August 20 at the Rancho Carrizal between the Indians under Chief Bule and the soldiers, in which 15 Indians, including Bule, were wounded and several killed.

Government Orders Monterey Work Stopped Till Matter Settled.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Oct. 30.—Word has been received from Monterey that the War Department has ordered all construction work stopped pending the settlement of a controversy between the office of the military post and the Monterey water works which desire to raise the rate charged the presidio for water from 17 and 20 cents per 1000 gallons to 25 cents per 1000 gallons. The average rate paid for water by military reservations is from 4 to 10 cents per 1000 gallons.
