ALL FALSEHOODS, DECLARES CANNON

Says He Didn't Pack Committee to Prevent Report Condemning Him.

SENDS LETTER TO BISHOP

Illinois Congressman Reiterates Denial of Attempt to Hold Up Legislation—Not in Position to Prevent Action.

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 30.—Speaker Cannon today, at the request of Rev. F. M. Bristol, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Indianapolis, addressed him an open letter in answer to the question put to the Speaker, "Did the Speaker prevent the House from taking a vote on the Littlefield bill?"

Mr. Cannon, in his letter, had this to say:

"I did not prevent the House from considering the Littlefield bill or voting upon it, and I will add that I had no power to prevent the House from doing either, for, as Mr. Littlefield says in his letter to me, dated September 12, there are no rules, there is no committee on rules, and there is no Speaker than can prevent a majority of the House from taking up any measure and acting upon it at any time.

Says Speaker Powerless.

"In the first session of the Sixtieth Congress the Littlefield bill was not reported from the committee on judiciary. The Speaker had no power to compel that committee to report that or any other bill referred to under the rules or to prevent the committee from reporting any bill over which it had jurisdiction. The committee not having reported the bill, the Speaker, as a matter of course, did not prevent the House from considering it or voting upon it.

"No motion was ever made in the House to take up that bill for consideration, nor was any recognition asked for that purpose. It was in the power of any member of the House if he had with him a majority, by raising the question of consideration, to have brought the Littlefield bill before the House for action, and it was not in the power of the Speaker to have prevented action.

"I have said in my speeches and I repeat it to you, that the bishops of the Methodist Church were misled by agents who wilfully or ignorantly made untruthful reports to them.

Falsehoods, He Declares.

"The Rev. A. Baker, of Columbus, O., is the general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League. I have not the honor of his acquaintance and do not remember of having met or seen him. The Rev. S. L. Nicholson is the legislative superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League in Washington. I have met him.

"These two men seem to be responsible for the misstatements that have been circulated. The league and the churches which employed these agents had a right to the truth, but they did not get it from them.

"They both state that, as Speaker, I packed the judiciary committee to prevent the report of the Littlefield bill and specify I did not appoint in the 60th Congress Representative Pearre of Maryland to the committee on judiciary for the reason that he favored the Littlefield bill. These, each and all, are false, deliberate falsehoods, which have been repeated in the face of denials from the Speaker, Mr. Littlefield and the Republican members of the judiciary committee."

"Rev. Mr. Nicholson, over his own signature published a statement that the Littlefield bill was favorably reported to the House during the first session of the 59th Congress; that the Speaker promised Mr. Littlefield that if he would let it rest on the calendar until after the Congressional elections of 1906 he should have recognition to call it up at the beginning of the second session of that Congress. To show the utter untruthfulness of this statement, it is only necessary to say, and I believe I have mentioned it above, that the Littlefield bill was not reported until the second session of the 59th Congress, or to be specific, on January 24, 1907, within five weeks of the close of that Congress and three months after the Congressional elections of 1906. The Rev. Mr. Nicholson is either an agent who guesses at what he ought to know, or he deliberately lied.

"I have never courted a war with the Methodist Church or its leaders. I know its power for good, and I have had some experience in this campaign with the power of misrepresentation when it finds lodgment in the minds of bishops and is mistaken for truth.

NOT ONE SINGLE OILY DOLLAR

Hitchcock Denounces Statements of Mack as Absolutely False.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—After reading tonight the statement of Norman E. Mack, in which the Democratic National chairman charged that the Republican organization had received a contribution from the Standard Oil Company, Chairman Hitchcock, of the Republican National committee, dictated the following:

"The statement that the Republican National Committee has received financial assistance from the Standard Oil Company is absolutely false. The committee has not received, directly or indirectly, from that organization or any of its officers a single dollar.

Supplementing his formal statement, Mr. Hitchcock said:

"Not a dollar from that source (the Standard Oil Company) has been received by the Republican National committee. The whole statement is absolutely without foundation. Not a dollar has been received from any officer connected with the Standard Oil Company.

"I never heard of the Rockefeller statement until late today. When our sworn list of contributions is published after the election, according to the state law, it will show the falsity of the charge that the Republican National committee has received a dollar from any corporation, any trust, or any officer of any corporation or trust."

BARGAIN, DECLARES MACK

Democratic Chairman Bases Conclusion on Rockefeller Interview.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Charges were made today by Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, that the declaration of John D. Rockefeller for Taft for President was the result of a deal between the Republican National Committee and the Standard Oil interests, whereby National Chairman Hitchcock received large campaign contributions and Mr. Rockefeller the promises. Mr. Mack said that undoubtedly the $29,000,000 fine of the Standard Oil Company would be fixed up in the event of Mr. Taft's election as a part of the bargain. Mr. Mack said:

"The Standard Oil Company has landed where everybody knew it would land. Mr. Rockefeller held back for a bargain and got what he wanted. His declaration for Taft is good for at least 100,000 votes in the doubtful states. I cannot speculate on the exact amount the National Republican Committee received from Mr. Rockefeller, but one can rest assured that they both received their price, Hitchcock getting the money and Rockefeller the promises, which suggests the question whether Taft is with Rockefeller or with Roosevelt.

"We now have an oil trust and the steel trust lined up side by side working for Mr. Taft's candidacy. Mr. Carnegie's statement yesterday on his arrival from Europe that the election of Mr. Bryan would be a National tragedy is not only shocking, but should arouse the indignation of all fair-minded citizens of the country regardless of party affiliation. Mr. Carnegie, I am reliably informed, is not even a voter in this country. Mr. Carnegie has amassed a large fortune as the result, in part at least, of Republican policies, special privileges and a robber tariff, which Mr. Bryan and every true Democrat condemns as so odious and oppressive as to demand immediate reform. Hence the election of Mr. Bryan is denounced by Mr. Carnegie as a tragedy."

Mr. Mack declared that he had learned that the Republican National Committee had a campaign fund of $3,000,000 and that of this sum, $2,000,000 was being used for the purpose of coercion and bribery. The National chairman said further that $200,000 of the Republican campaign fund had been sent into Indiana and that more than that sum had been sent into Ohio.

GREAT THUNDER FOR BRYAN

Candidate Uses Rockefeller Interview to Injure Taft.

NAPOLEON, O., Oct. 30.—William J. Bryan gave out a statement here today commenting upon the declaration of John D. Rockefeller, made in New York yesterday that he would vote for William H. Taft. Mr. Bryan said he was not surprised at the declaration of Mr. Rockefeller, as the Standard Oil Company and the Republican party have been so closely related that many of their interests are identical.

Mr. Bryan's statement follows:

"The morning papers publish a statement from Mr. Rockefeller giving his reasons for supporting Mr. Taft. He says: 'If for no other reason, I support Mr. Taft because, on comparing him personally with Mr. Bryan, his chief opponent, I find the balance of fitness and temperament entirely on his side. The election of Mr. Taft will, I believe, make for law and order and stability of business. He is not a man inclined to rash experiments or to impede a return of prosperity by advocating measures subversive of industrial progress.'

"There are several things about this statement that deserve attention. The first clause says if for no other reason, but there already is a reason. He is for Mr. Taft because Mr. Taft is for him. He is for Mr. Taft because Mr. Taft is in sympathy with the trusts. Mr. Taft has been making speeches for many weeks and he has not yet dwelt upon the iniquities of the trusts or pointed out the injustice done to the American people by them. No wonder Mr. Rockefeller is for Taft.

"Again Mr. Rockefeller says Mr. Taft's election will make for law and order. This is false. Mr. Rockefeller's corporation is the most notorious lawbreaker in the United States and he is for Mr. Taft because he does not want the law enforced. If he thought Mr. Taft would enforce the law against the Standard Oil Company and favored the enactment of more stringent laws against the Standard Oil Company, as I do, he would not be for Mr. Taft. Mr. Rockefeller also says that Mr. Taft's election will make for stability of business. What kind of business? Stability in the trust business is what he means. He thinks that Mr. Taft's election will enable the trusts to get a tighter strangle grasp upon the American people and put their extortion upon a more permanent foundation. He says that Mr. Taft is not a man inclined to rash experiments. He might have omitted the word 'rash' for Mr. Taft is not in favor of any kind of experiments in the way of remedial legislation. He does not propose remedies. He simply glories in the past and wants to leave conditions as they are.

"Mr. Rockefeller says that Mr. Taft would not advocate measures subversive of industrial progress. But what is industrial progress? Is it right to allow one corporation to swallow up or bankrupt all the other corporations and then hold the country at its mercy? Is it industrial progress to destroy competition and close the door of opportunity to the young men of the country? Is it industrial progress to destroy industrial independence and establish a despotism of monopoly?

"The Democrats have reason to be grateful to Mr. Rockefeller for tearing the mask off the Republican campaign and revealing the duplicity that has characterized it. Instead of openly attacking the monopoly, the Republican organization has kept up a pretense of reform and Mr. Roosevelt rushed into the arena and allowed the charge that the trusts were opposed to Mr. Taft to stand. I challenged him to name one trust officer that was supporting me and not being able to find an official he named a St. Louis attorney who, in one case, represented the president of a branch of the Standard Oil Company.

"Mr. Roosevelt, in his eagerness to relieve the Republican candidate of the odium of trust support, accepts this as proof that the Standard Oil Company was supporting me. Now Mr. Rockefeller, head of the Standard Oil Company, comes out openly in support of Mr. Taft and gives reasons that lay bare the false pretenses upon which the Republican campaign has been conducted. If the Republican party were honest, it would announce that, having made arrangements with the trusts for the funds to finance the campaign and having pledged the Republican party to protect the trusts from punishment, it would release the rank and file of the Republican party from further support of the Republican ticket.

"The Republican party cannot serve two masters. Its real master has now stepped forth and asserted his claim to the party's services. No Republican need be deceived any longer as to the indissoluble bond that binds the Republican organization to the predatory wealth of the country. It will be noticed that this statement comes out too late to be used by the weekly newspapers circulated among the masses, but in time to be used in the business centers to influence those business men who look to the big financiers for advice.

"Before taking up another question," he said, "I want to say that we have had another favor granted us this morning. Mr. Carnegie has come out for Mr. Taft. Mr. Carnegie holds the largest block of steel bonds of any man in the United States. He comes out with Mr. Rockefeller. And it was the Steel Trust that went to the White House and got permission from the President to absorb a rival, and the Steel Trust is today supporting Mr. Taft as that helped to secure his nomination."

HELP FOR BRYAN BY ROCKEFELLER

Candidate Uses Oil Magnate's Interview as Club to Hit Taft.

GROWS RAMPANT IN OHIO

Says Rockefeller Supports Taft Because Taft Supports Trusts—Hot Altercation With Interrupter at Bowling Green.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 30.—After traveling up and down and across the state of Ohio today, W. J. Bryan arrived here at 8:30 o'clock tonight and was the recipient of a great demonstration. A dozen or more marching clubs escorted the Democratic candidate to the Central Armory, where he spoke to a vast concourse. Later he went to Grays Armory and spoke to another crowd of immense proportions.

Beginning at Napoleon early this morning, Mr. Bryan hurled an avalanche of condemnation upon the heads of John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie at every point where his train stopped. He had observed in the morning papers authorized statements by the two financiers that they were supporting Mr. Taft. Of Mr. Rockefeller he said that the oil magnate was supporting Mr. Taft because Mr. Taft was supporting him, and he accused Mr. Carnegie of having absorbed a competitor of the steel trust after obtaining the approval of President Roosevelt, and said that the steel trust today was "supporting Mr. Taft, as it helped to secure his nomination."

Today's journey through the state was but a repetition of the visit a week ago. Great, demonstrative crowds turned out everywhere to greet Mr. Bryan.

Northern Indiana will claim Mr. Bryan's attention tomorrow, previous to his arrival at Chicago tomorrow night.

In his speech in the Central Armory tonight, Mr. Bryan discussed the Democratic platform, laying great stress on the planks relating to the guarantee of deposits, publicity of campaign contributions and the trusts. The latter two topics provided him with the theme of attacks on financiers, the President and Mr. Taft. The Standard Oil Company and the Steel Trust, through Messrs. Rockefeller and Carnegie, were credited with supplying the funds for the Republican campaign.

Not content with his strictures upon those named, Mr. Bryan had something to say about Secretary Root, who is credited with having said that Mr. Bryan's election would be a menace to the country. He remarked:

I see Mr. Root has made an argument against the election of Senators by the people. I am not surprised. No man in public life has more reason to fear an election at which the people vote.

He also thinks my election would be a menace to the country. That is not surprising. He began his legal career with Boss Tweed and has been so intimately connected with the lawbreakers ever since that he would naturally resent the Democratic idea of enforcing the law impartially against offenders.

GREAT SERVICE TO DEMOCRATS

Bryan Says Rockefeller's Declaration Helps His Cause.

BOWLING GREEN, O., Oct. 30.—Keeping up his attacks on John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie, both of whom have announced publicly their support of Mr. Taft, William J. Bryan here today spoke to a big crowd.

"Do you understand now," he said, "why Mr. Taft is not willing that their contributions shall be published before election?"

Mr. Bryan was comparing the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties on the tariff question and laid great stress on the fact that the Democrats were demanding reduction while the Republicans promised revision. This led to a hot dialogue between a man in the crowd perched on the seat of a wagon and the Democratic candidate.

"How will reduction of tariff help the unemployed?" he asked.

"Are you a Republican?" Mr. Bryan inquired, "and what is your name?"

"Never mind that," answered the man, "answer the question."

"That," said Mr. Bryan, "gives you a fair sample of his idea of justice. He knows who I am, but I have no right to know who he is."

"I made 127 speeches for you all over the United States. Will you answer my question?"

"Well, sir, you ought to be making speeches this year. Tell me who you are."

The crowd by this time began to hiss the man and cried: "Go ahead, Mr. Bryan."

"Well, my friends," said the Democratic candidate, "if he is ashamed to tell you, he ought not to be out making speeches. When a man goes to another man's meeting and asks a question, he ought to be man enough to tell who he is."

"What's that got to do with it? You cannot answer. Why does not your platform answer the unemployed proposition?"

"My friends, give me your attention," said Mr. Bryan. "He wants to know about the unemployed problem. I believe that the unemployed problem is due to the fact that there is unfair distribution of the wealth created and, when we try to remedy the evil, that man helps to elect a Republican to keep this unemployed problem before the country."

The crowd wildly cheered a burly man who tried to haul the disturber out of the crowd. Continuing Mr. Bryan said:

My platform mentions remedies and it mentions all the remedies that are within reach. We say elect Senators by the people and let the Senators be responsible to the will of the people. We say destroy the trusts and open the door of opportunity and give the young men a chance in this country. We say take out of the price the extortion that the trusts have put into it. We say lessen the expenses of government and leave money in the pockets of the people. We say lower the tariff and take the burdens off the consumers. We say protect the savings of the people in the banks. These are some of the methods we have of giving employment to the unemployed.

ROCKEFELLER KERN'S TARGET

Oil King's Support of Taft Made Basis of Much Sarcasm.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie were made the target for shafts of ridicule by J. W. Kern, in a speech here tonight. "A precious pair of disinterested patriots," he called them for their championship of the Republican leaders. He said:

Like good generals, the Republican party leaders have been holding the flower of their army in reserve for the crucial moment when the issue of battle is in doubt. The old guard is now being rushed to the firing line. The division headed by Andrew Carnegie reached the front yesterday. Today John D. Rockefeller brings up his army corps.

Mr. Kern's comments were called forth by the published statement by Mr. Rockefeller that he expects to cast his vote for Mr. Taft, and were made before one of the biggest audiences he has addressed during the campaign. Mr. Kern continued:

Carnegie makes an appeal to the people, the very people whom he has been plundering for more than a quarter of a century, to stand with him for Taft, to the end that the plundering may continue through the generations of the future.

What does Rockefeller say? He declares that Mr. Taft has the proper temperament to suit him and that from his (Rockefeller's) standpoint he is entirely fit to be President of the United States. "I am supporting Mr. Taft," he says further, "because his election will make for law and order." Great God, for law and order! John D. Rockefeller, whose company was the recipient of that great judicial prize package, a $29,000,000 fine a few months ago!

Rockefeller and Carnegie—what a precious pair of disinterested patriots are these two men, who now, side by side, charge to the front in behalf of Taft and good government! Is there nothing in the spectacle to move you, my Republican brother? You have heard the animadversion of Roosevelt upon Rockefeller as a man who has broken more laws and trampled upon the rights of the people more than any other man in this country. Does it mean nothing to you that Carnegie and Rockefeller should find a reason for supporting the Republican candidate? "My Dear Harriman" had already thrown his support to Taft before the appearance of Rockefeller and Carnegie on the scene.

Mr. Kern left the city at 11:30 tonight to be on hand for the opening of the last day of his Indiana canvass tomorrow at Princeton.

Other contributions reported received today were:

USE AUTO WITH AIRSHIP

HUGE GAS BALLOON CARRIES UP 24-HORSEPOWER CAR.

Aerial Trip Lasts Two Hours—Aviators Return to Starting Place in Machine.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—Something new in aeronautics was attempted here today when a monster balloon with a capacity of 110,000 cubic feet of gas shot up into the air with an automobile placed where a basket is usually suspended. The ascension was made at 4 P. M., the balloon carrying two occupants, Carl G. Fisher, of Indianapolis, and C. L. Bumbaugh, of Springfield, Ill.

The idea of the aeronauts is to be able at will to load up the balloon in the automobile. The machine used was a new 24-horsepower four-cylinder touring car, and when stripped of all unnecessary equipment, weighs 1500 pounds.

The balloon descended near Southport, Ind., a distance of seven miles from Indianapolis, after being in the air two hours and ten minutes. The automobile was freed from the balloon and the aeronauts came to Indianapolis in it.

"The trip was without incident," said Fisher. "The only trouble was the lack of air currents. We hunted for them high in the air, but there were none stirring. In landing we came down close enough to the ground to drop a drag rope, and several of the men in the crowd that had gathered grabbed it and pulled us easily to earth. The automobile did the landing without the least mishap and was in perfect condition."

BURNING STEAMER IN PORT

Passengers Driven by Intense Heat to Promenade Deck.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Oct. 30.—The steamer S. V. Luckenbach, from New York for San Juan, arrived here last night with fire in her hold still burning. All her passengers and crew, 31 in number, are well.

The fire was discovered at 4 o'clock on the morning of October 26, when the vessel was 580 miles south of Sandy Hook. The passengers were at once awakened and the small boats were brought out, prepared and made ready to lower away in case it should become necessary to abandon the steamer.

At 6 o'clock in the morning of the 26th, the steamer Philadelphia, of the Red D. Line, was sighted and the plight of the Luckenbach was signaled to her. The Philadelphia answered: "I am coming alongside."

She drew near and acted as a convoy until the Luckenbach reached here. Both vessels came into port together.

The heat and smoke from the fire forced the passengers to withdraw from their cabins, and temporary cots and eating tables were placed on the promenade deck for them. The officers did not dare open the hatches to combat the fire in the fear that the draft thus created would fan the flames.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER DIES

James Kerr, Who Defeated Guffey at Denver Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—James Kerr, Democratic National committeeman from Pennsylvania, died at 12:40 o'clock this morning at New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mr. Kerr was the leader of the anti-Guffey faction in Philadelphia which contested the seats of the delegates of that faction in the Denver convention last July. The Guffey delegation was unseated, mainly through the influence of W. J. Bryan, after a bitter contest, and the Kerr faction was seated. Mr. Kerr was then elected National committeeman.
