

FARMERS TO HELP BUILD RAILROAD

Independent Line From Walla Walla to Wallula Practically Assured.

WILL REACH OPEN RIVER

Branch Line Will Extend to Dayton, in Palouse Wheat Belt—Dr. Blacklock and J. H. Morrow Interested in Proposed Railway.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—In accordance with plans recently formulated by local capitalists, farmers and open-river enthusiasts, H. D. G. Cox, who was appointed special representative to secure rights-of-way for a steam railway line from this city to Wallula, one way and Dayton another, a distance of 70 miles in all, made a report today that so far he has been entirely successful.

It was at first proposed to build an electric line, but this idea had been abandoned, and it is likely the line will be operated by steam power. It is proposed to secure grading for the road by contributions of work from farmers, the latter to take their pay in stock in the new concern.

FINDS JEWELRY AND THIEF

Clatskanie Marshal Arrests Man Who Looted Store.

CLATSKANIE, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Booth's jewelry store was broken into last night and almost all the goods in the display window stolen. The robber broke a pane of glass and grabbed what he could get, and disappeared before the family, who lived above the store, were able to get downstairs.

A stranger, feigning drunkenness, was found lying on Benson's depot platform early this morning by the city marshal, and near him was a tiny gold heart. The marshal took him in custody and upon searching the premises, found a sackful of the loot pushed into some tiling pipe belonging to the railroad company.

CALEDONIANS AT FOSSIL

Many Portland People Attend Annual Meeting of Club.

CONDON, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The annual gathering of the Fossil Caledonian Club began its sessions here last night with a concert programme given before a large assemblage of the Scotch from all parts of Gilliam, Wheeler and adjoining counties and a delegation of some 50 from Portland.

Some of the well-known members and leaders of the organization in attendance are: Major James H. McDonald, Frank Hennessy, Jock Coleman and Charles R. Thompson, Misses Lena Harwar, Alice Jaston and Jessie Thompson, Mrs. W. R. Thompson and Messrs. Hood and Rennie, of Portland; Editor James S. Stewart, of Fossil, and William Rettle, of Wheeler County.

RESIGNS JOB TO QUALIFY

Presidential Elector Finds He Must Give Up Federal Position.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Discovering at the eleventh hour that if he retained his office as United States Court Commissioner he could not qualify as a Taft Presidential elector, Frank Dallam, the pioneer editor of Loomis, Wash., hurried to Spokane last night and gave up his office as Commissioner.

SALMON SEASON FAILURE

Gillnetters Forced to Abandon Fishing on Lower Columbia.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Fall fishing has been nearly abandoned on all parts of the river. The catches of the gillnetters have not been large enough to justify their continuing. The fall season has been a dismal failure from start to finish and no class of gear has made any money. The same is true of the few canneries that have operated.

HANSARD GETS FULL SENTENCE

ALBANY, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—G. B. Hansard, convicted Tuesday of violating the law prohibiting the carrying of a dangerous weapon, was sentenced today to the penitentiary for a term of 30 days in the County Jail. Judge Burnett imposed the sentence after denying a motion for a new trial. Hansard will appeal to the Supreme Court. This is his eighth conviction since Linn County went "dry."

WOMAN MAKING VOTES FOR TAFT

Railroadmen Cheer His Speech Which Is Given at La Grande.

VISITS AT O. R. & N. SHOPS

Employees Listen Eagerly to Speaker's Reference to Judge Taft's Court Decisions in Favor of Rights of Workingmen.

LA GRANDE, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The Republican campaign in Linn County closed with a monster rally in the opera-house, addressed by Judge Henry McGinn, of Portland. During the day Judge McGinn visited the large railroad shops in this city. As a result there were many employees of the O. R. & N. present to hear his remarks on the judicial decisions of Judge Taft in favor of the rights of the laboring man.

RIDDLES BRYAN'S THEORIES

Judge Lowell Calls Candidate Apostle of Romantic Dreams.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Despite the hard rain, several hundred Republicans came out tonight to attend the only rally of the campaign at the Shively Theater. Judge Lowell, of Pendleton, was the speaker and prior to his address Mrs. Inogen Harding Brodie sang patriotic songs from the platform. Judge Lowell was given a cordial reception and was especially strong along these lines.

"In 1896," said Judge Lowell, "most men, whether in the past or not, but the Bryan of that period was not the Bryan of 1908. With wealth and years have come the cunning of the politician, and he seems to have made peace with all the forces which he earlier attacked as evils. Today he stands for nothing and his very rings not with the bells of conscience, and he is but the advance agent of political delirium tremens, the apostle of romantic dreams."

BUTLER BACK AT CONDON

Returns Home After Speaking for Taft in Valley Towns.

CONDON, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—R. B. Butler, Republican Presidential Elector, returned to Condon last evening after having spent the last few days in all the principal towns throughout the Willamette Valley. Mr. Butler speaks in the most favorable manner of the enthusiasm shown for the Republican cause in the valley.

BOARD DIVIDES ITS WORK

PREPARES TO GET DATA ON STATE GEOGRAPHIC NAMES.

Oregon Commission Organizes at Corvallis and Asks Aid of People in Its Activities.

CORVALLIS, Or., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The recently appointed commission to revise the geographic names of Oregon held its first meeting yesterday at the Administration building of the State Agricultural College and effected an organization by electing Will G. Stroh, of Portland, chairman; Professor Joseph Schafer, of the State University, Eugene, secretary, and Professor J. B. Horner, of the State Agricultural College, Corvallis, treasurer.

It was decided to issue an address to the people of Oregon setting forth in full the objects and objects of the people, but it will be prepared to help the people to select appropriate names where none exist, to eliminate embarrassing duplications, and to settle any possible existing disputes in regard to place names.

It is understood that the board has no desire to change names firmly established in the thought and affection of the people, but it will be prepared to help the people to select appropriate names where none exist, to eliminate embarrassing duplications, and to settle any possible existing disputes in regard to place names.

WINS BY DROP-KICK Pacific Scores Championship Victory on Willamette.

Varsity's Work Surprise Players Score Yardage at Will Around Ends of Methodist Eleven, Whose Goal Was Several Times in Danger.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove, Or., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Pacific University today won the football championship among the non-conference colleges of Oregon by defeating Willamette University, of Salem, by a score of 4 to 0. Because of the splendid showing of the Methodists against the University of Oregon, Pacific's victory was somewhat of a surprise, and reveals unexpected strength of the local team.

The visitors put up a plucky fight, but Pacific succeeded both in running their ends and breaking through the line, as well as gaining on exchanges of punts. Willamette failed to make yardage during the first half. Almost the entire game was played in Willamette's territory, and at no time was Pacific's goal in danger.

Drop-kick Makes Only Score. Willamette kicked off to Gwynn, of Pacific, and by a series of end runs and line bucks the ball was worked down to the Methodist's 20-yard line, where Captain Humphreys kicked a new drop-kick, making the only score of the game. The half ended with the ball on Willamette's 25-yard line. Willamette took a brace during the second half and blocked a place kick of Pacific on the
