BEAVERS LOSE, 3 TO 1

Ferraris, of Los Angeles, and Harkness, of Butte, Make Good Showing in Box With McCrede's Team.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—McCrede tried out a lot of local bush pitchers today, and while the champions beat them, they did it through battery errors and timely swats. There was nothing startling about the contest except Ferraris's double to the top of the left field fence that only missed being a home-run by a few inches. Wheeler, who was never in trouble, but once, and got out of this with three on bases and one out by fanning the last two men in succession.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The Weather Bureau at Washington has decided to take part in the aeronautical contests to be held in New York on election day under the auspices of the American Aeronautic Society with an exhibit of various sorts of apparatus by which meteorological observations are taken. It is also expected there will be a series of races between aeroplanes, the first ever held in the United States.

DARKNESS MAKES THE GAME

WILLIAMS AVENUE AND HAWTHORNE GET 5 EACH.

Contest Marred by Much Wrangling With Referee and by Spectators Crowding on Field.

In a game marked by much rowdiness, confusion and surging of the crowd, the game at a late hour and it was evident from the start that there would not be time to finish. Williams-Avenue kicked off and the Hawthornes eleven was forced to kick after two ineffectual attempts to gain. The punt was poor, and the Williams-Avenue boys had the ball on the 35-yard line. With the aid of several good goals around the ends the ball was managed to keep its goal-line safe. The game was continually stopped by the spectators crowding around the players and also by the Williams-Avenue eleven wrangling in evidence when the Hawthorne-Avenue was on the offensive for the greater part of the game and it was not until well into the latter part of the second half that the Hawthornes' quarterback finally hit on the play that was a sure ground-gainer for his team. Runs around the ends had been broken up by the feet of the Hawthornes' forward passes in the middle of the field and Philbin on the next play took the ball through tackle on a cross-back for 30 yards.

Darkness Ends Game.

The same play was tried again with Ostrander carrying the ball, and the little half-back succeeded in covering the necessary 25 yards for a touchdown. This was the first time the ball was brought to kick the goal and win the game. It was so dark by this time that it was difficult to tell whether the ball went over the goal or under and the referee finally decided that it was no goal. The ensuing squabble took so much time that it was impossible to continue the game and it was called.

Columbia Rolls Up Big Score on Portland Academy.

FAST BALL BY CATHOLICS

Twenty-two Points Are Won in First Half and Substitutes Add Another Touchdown on Portland Academy.

TODAY'S FOOTBALL GAMES IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST.

Oregon vs Idaho, at Moscow. Oregon vs Cruba vs Multnomah scrubs, at Eugene. Multnomah vs The Dalles, at Portland.

BY W. J. PETRAIN.

Columbia University literally wiped up Multnomah Field with the Portland Academy football team yesterday afternoon. The final score of this first meeting between the old-time rivals was 28 to 0 in favor of the Catholics.

Goal Never in Danger.

Columbia played a strong, aggressive game throughout. At no time was the goal of the victorious players threatened, and the contest was fought almost entirely in Portland Academy territory. The game was a revelation in more ways than one, for the well-known aggressiveness of Portland "Tiger" players did not show nearly as much class as when they faced the East Side team on the opening day of the season. In fact, the Academy players disappointed their most steadfast admirers by their apparent lack of ginger and determination.

Walker, Seufert and Ennis Star.

Too much praise cannot be accorded Captain Walker and Quarterbacks Seufert and Ennis, who alternated in that position for Columbia during the game. For these three lads directed the plays that early gained the collegians the ascendancy. Walker was an avalanche whenever he carried the ball, and Ennis, with his clever dodging and accurate throwing of the forward pass, simply took the Academy players off their feet. Joe Campbell also proved a strong factor in winning Columbia's large score by his splendid judgment of forward passes in the first half. The only Portland Academy player who seemed in the right place was Quarterback Cobb, and to this active little fellow is due the fact that the score was not larger.

Plucky Players for Academy.

For Portland Academy, aside from Cobb, Summers, Huesner, Tegart and Norris did well and tried in vain to offset the inevitable defeat made apparent by the ease with which Columbia registered the first score: J. O'Brien, G. R. ... (Philbin) ... (Andrews) ... (Stone) ... (Stout) ...

FORM NEW BASEBALL LEAGUE

Montana, Idaho and Utah Towns Members of Organization.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Advisers received here from Anaconda, Mont., indicate that there is a well-defined movement on foot for the organization of a new baseball league in which Butte, Helena, Salt Lake, Boise, Optima, Pocatello or some other Montana city will be entered for 1909.

The promoters of the scheme were not ready to announce it when it leaked out in Montana. The territory of Butte is under protection of the Northwestern League, but if the Northwestern League abandons Butte, as it is believed here will be done, then the way will be clear.

CLUB TEAMS PLAY TODAY

MULTNOMAH AND THE DALLES PROMISE GOOD GAME.

Portland Eleven Is Confident of Victory, but Will Probably Have Hard Fight.

The Multnomah Club's senior football squad held a rousing practice last night, in preparation for the game against The Dalles Athletic Club team, scheduled for Multnomah Field this afternoon. Today's game will begin promptly at 5:30 o'clock, and both teams entertain hopes of victory. Multnomah is confident of the outcome, and is merely speculating upon the score the club will roll up against the visitors from the Upper Columbia country. On the other hand, the Dalles admirers are making no boasts of large scores, but seemingly content themselves with announcing it as their opinion that their team will defeat Multnomah. This afternoon's game is one that has long been looked forward to by The Dalles, for in years past good teams in this field, but has never played with the Portland club. Therefore, when the two teams come together this afternoon, the visitors can be depended upon to put up the fight of their lives.

When the team faces The Dalles this afternoon, George Carter will be captain, as usual. Some changes will be made in the other positions during the game, but at the whistle they will face the opposing line about as follows: Prizel and Conant, guards; Oswald and McKeen, ends; Stott, quarter; Smithson and Roy, halves; and James, fullback; Smith, Woodland, Knudson, Austin, Slaker, Whitlock and Litt will be sent in during the game. Next week the squad will be strengthened by the addition of two crack players, Austin, Slaker, Whitlock and Litt will be sent in during the game.

Northern Pacific Plans to Control East Side of River.

This will make tributary to the Northern Pacific practically the same country which the North Coast expects to open up. The plan is said to Kennewick north into the Richland country; thence to Klona on a westerly grade, where it will cross the Yakima River. The towns of Grandview, Cranmer, Outlook and Sunnyside would, in this event, be on the main line. The Malheur, Prussia, Ahts and a number of other small stations left on the old line.

FRESH AIR FATAL

H. B. Mitchell Leans From Window, Falls, Neck Broken.

Seattle sports are figuring on taking another fall out of the pockets of the Rose City society on a hand-to-hand wrestling match between Ed O'Connell and "Doc" Roller. When the new Multnomah Club instructor came West he announced that he was on the job to meet all comers and although he weighs a scant 150 pounds, he said he would not be adverse to taking a chance at the famous grappling bill dispenser of the Sound City.

WAS VISITOR IN CITY

Formerly of The Dalles, Merchant Leans From Window and Loses Balance—Surgeons at Hospital Uncertain of Recovery.

Leaning out of the window at 323 Tenth street last night at 10 o'clock to get a breath of fresh air, H. B. Mitchell, a middle-aged merchant, who formerly lived at The Dalles, Or., lost his balance and fell from the second story to the back yard, where he was found in an unconscious condition. His breath of fresh air may cost him his life, for he is seriously injured, and it is believed that his neck was broken by the fall. The surgeons attending him are uncertain as to his recovery.

ELKS CLUB ENTERTAINS

Ladies' Night Is Occasion of Excellent Programme.

Attractive as are the rooms of the Elks Club at all times, there was added charm last night, for instead of being peopled with mere men, the wives, sisters, mothers and sweethearts of the members made up the audience at an entertainment given in their honor. After a programme in the lodge room, the full audience came down to the clubrooms, where they were joined by Elks and escorted to refreshment tables and then sat in the easy chairs and divans listening to music furnished by an orchestra.

ALBANY DEFEATS CHEWAWA

College Eleven Scores Seven Points Against Indian Team.

ALBANY, Or., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Albany College won a fast football game here this afternoon from the Chewawas Indians by a score of 7 to 0. With a series of long end runs Albany carried the ball down the field near the end of the first half and Rogovsky slugged around tackle for ten yards and a touchdown. He missed the goal.

YOU MEET TWO MEN THEY impress you well, one as favorably as the other. "Men to be trusted" you think. There comes a critical time—you need a friend. One man fails. The other stands by you, helps you—proves out. It is the same with shoes. Different lines resemble each other, style features are identical. One line does not stand trouble the other does. The Gotzian Shoe stands the test. It "fits like your footprint."
