

BOTH ADHERE TO FINAL ESTIMATE

Hitchcock and Mack Give Forecasts, Democrats Claiming Landslide.

ODDS, HOWEVER, ON TAFT

New York Man Wagers $30,000 Against $5000 Obilain Will Be Elected - Few Other Presidential Bets.

(Continued From First Page.)

Campaign in Utah closed tonight with meetings of both parties in nearly every city, and with a dozen or more in Salt Lake City and county. Both parties confidently claim the state, the Republicans by 20,000 for the National ticket, the Democrats by 5000.

BOTH CLAIM SAME PLURALITY

Colorado Among Doubtful States. Watchers Against Fraud.

DENVER, Nov. 2.—At state Democratic headquarters 17,000 is given as the probable plurality for Bryan and the Democratic state ticket. Republican leaders give the same figures as their estimate of the plurality for Taft and their state candidates. Both parties claim to the three Congressmen and the Legislature, which will elect United States Senator.

ADMITS MONTANA IS CLOSE

Republican Chairman Reduces Estimate—Democrats Claim 10,000.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 2.—Probably the most significant feature of the 11th-hour political activities in Montana is a greatly reduced estimate of the state Republican chairman. Last Tuesday Chairman Lanstrum claimed that Montana would give Taft, and Edward Denham, for Governor, and the rest of the state ticket majorities ranging from 8000 to 10,000. Today Mr. Lanstrum's estimate places the plurality for Taft and Sherman at not less than 3000 with 5000 for Denham.

WIDE RANGE GIVEN OHIO

Taft Estimate 40,000 to 250,000. Bryan Claims It by 5000.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.—Both parties in Ohio express confidence, but both are willing to admit that there might be some surprises. Although State Chairman Garber claims the state for Bryan by 5000, the strongest Democratic faith is in the state ticket, where that party has put forth its greatest efforts.

ILLINOIS FOR TAFT EASILY

Bryan Claims It, but Little Doubt of Outcome.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Illinois was claimed by both Republicans and Democrats today. Chairman West, of the Republican State Committee, asserted that the Republicans will re-elect Governor Denney, and would carry the state for the National and state tickets by 200,000. Chairman Rosenstain, of the Democratic State Committee, claimed to be confident that the Democrats would score a victory in Illinois and would elect for Governor Adlai E. Stevenson, former Vice-President of the United States. The Democrats would have a majority in the state of between 60,000 and 70,000, he said.

WHO GETS BRYAN'S STATE?

Republicans Lay Claim to Nebraska by 15,000.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 2.—The campaign in Nebraska will be closed with two rallies in this city tonight. William J. Bryan will speak from the balcony of the Lincoln Hotel, and the Lincoln Club will hold a rally at the Auditorium.

MINNESOTA IN THROES OF DOUBT

ST. PAUL, Nov. 2.—Both parties in Minnesota are confident. Chairman Brown, of the Republican committee, declined to give out an estimate as to how many votes J. F. Jacobson would lead Governor Johnson. He said Republicans were confident of securing six out of nine Congressional districts of the state.

INDIANS FOR THE ASKING

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Both the Republican and Democratic parties claim Indiana. Conservative estimates are of the opinion that neither will carry the state by large pluralities.

IOWA SAFE BY 75,000.

DES MOINES, Nov. 2.—Chairman Clint Price, of the Democratic State Central Committee, says Iowa is in the doubtful column, with chances bright for a Democratic victory. Chairman Franke, of the Republican committee, estimates public majorities at 75,000.

ARIZONA WILL BE CLOSE

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Arizona will vote tomorrow for delegate to Congress, 12 members of the Legislative Council, 14 members of the Legislative Assembly and for county officers.

BOTH HOPEFUL IN KANSAS

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 2.—Bryan's whirlwind tour through the state is the Democratic trump card today, while all Republican candidates will speak at their respective homes this evening.

MOVE TO PROTECT BALLOT

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—Political activity in Missouri today is largely centered in the efforts of police and election officials in the large cities to make investigations of registration frauds.

INTEREST IN STATE TICKET

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 2.—Interest is centered in the head of the state ticket, in which both parties profess confidence. The Democratic state ticket includes the Governor T. Homan, who will be elected Governor by at least 25,000 plurality.

REPUBLICANS STRONG IN JERSEY

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 2.—The Republicans claim Taft will win the state by at least 35,000 plurality, while the Democrats' figures early today still stood 25,000 plurality for Bryan.

FOR TAFT BY SMALLER MAJORITY

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 2.—Republican forecasts indicate that Taft will carry Wyoming by 5000, a reduction of over one-half from Roosevelt's majority four years ago.

BRYAN SURE OF ONE STATE

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 2.—The Republicans have not been very active during the campaign, and Mississippi will give Bryan probably a large majority.

HEAVY FOR TAFT IN WISCONSIN

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 2.—The Republican chairman's latest figures are 300,000 plurality for Taft and Sherman in Wisconsin. The Democratic chairman says 5000 plurality for Bryan.

BOTH CLAIM KENTUCKY

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 2.—The Bryan men in this state declare that their candidate will poll 15,000 more votes than Taft, while Republican managers claim the state by 10,000.

WEST VIRGINIA PUZZLING

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 2.—The West Virginia situation is puzzling. The Republicans claim the state by 10,000 and the Democrats by over 15,000.

TEXAS SOLID FOR BRYAN

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 2.—The Democratic leaders claim the state by enormous majorities. A Prohibition constitutional amendment will probably carry.

OLD MAINE SOLID AS BEFORE

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 2.—Maine people are not concerned about the vote in the state, believing it to be Republican by the usual plurality, which is about 25,000.

BOTH CLAIM MARYLAND

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—Both the leading parties claim Maryland, the Democrats by at least 8000, the Republicans by a handsome majority.

HEAVY RAINS DOWN SOUTH

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—Heavy rains in Louisiana today caused some apprehension of a light vote.

THREE SUBMARINE BIDS

Navy Department Soon to Award Contract for Torpedo-Boats.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Bids were opened at the Navy Department for the construction of eight new submarine torpedo boats, for which Congress has appropriated $3,500,000.

MINNESOTA IN THROES OF DOUBT

ST. PAUL, Nov. 2.—Both parties in Minnesota are confident. Chairman Brown, of the Republican committee, declined to give out an estimate as to how many votes J. F. Jacobson would lead Governor Johnson. He said Republicans were confident of securing six out of nine Congressional districts of the state.

INDIANS FOR THE ASKING

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Both the Republican and Democratic parties claim Indiana. Conservative estimates are of the opinion that neither will carry the state by large pluralities.

MINNESOTA IN THROES OF DOUBT

ST. PAUL, Nov. 2.—Both parties in Minnesota are confident. Chairman Brown, of the Republican committee, declined to give out an estimate as to how many votes J. F. Jacobson would lead Governor Johnson. He said Republicans were confident of securing six out of nine Congressional districts of the state.

INDIANS FOR THE ASKING

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Both the Republican and Democratic parties claim Indiana. Conservative estimates are of the opinion that neither will carry the state by large pluralities.

INDIANS FOR THE ASKING

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Both the Republican and Democratic parties claim Indiana. Conservative estimates are of the opinion that neither will carry the state by large pluralities.

SOLDIERS CHECK BOYCOTT RIOT

One Chinese Shot and Killed During Honkong Fight.

EARS OF OTHERS SPLIT

Secret League Offers to Pay Slayers of Traitor Merchants $200.

CHANCELLOR MAY PERSIST

Many Rumors Von Buelow Will Resign.

IRISH ATTACK BRITISH RELATIONS

With Kaiser William.

BEHLIN, NOV. 2.—

In spite of the fact that Crown Prince Frederick William visited Chancellor von Buelow this morning, which is an indication that the Chancellor retains the imperial favor, many rumors are current that the Chancellor will persist in retiring.

IRISH ATTACK BRITISH RELATIONS

With Kaiser William.

BEHLIN, NOV. 2.—

In spite of the fact that Crown Prince Frederick William visited Chancellor von Buelow this morning, which is an indication that the Chancellor retains the imperial favor, many rumors are current that the Chancellor will persist in retiring.

POSTAL DRAIN IS HEAVY

Federal Expenditures in October Due to Postoffice Demands.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 2.—

The comparative statement of the Government receipts and expenditures for October, 1908, shows an increase in receipts of $1,711,000 and an increase in expenditures of $7,000,000 as compared with September, 1908.

TURNS GUNS ON HEARST

Mack Accuses Him of Fighting Bryan to Get Revenge.

NEW YORK, NOV. 2.—

For the first time during the campaign, Mr. Mack turned his attention to the Independence party today and made an attack on Mr. Hearst's position in this campaign. He charged that Mr. Hearst has organized a party to defeat Mr. Bryan because of personal jealousy and a desire for revenge because Mr. Bryan had not aided Mr. Hearst in his Presidential aspirations four years ago.

MINERS FIGHT FATAL DUEL

One Killed, Other is Exonerated by Coroner's Jury.

SAN BERNARDINO, CAL., NOV. 2.—

Matthew Wells, miner, engaged in a pistol duel Saturday at Palo Verde in the extreme eastern end of Riverside County on the borders of the Colorado River, with another miner and settler named Griggers. The latter was shot and killed.

MADE GRANT CIGAR DEPOT

Son Tells How Father Became a Confirmed Smoker.

DETROIT, MICH., NOV. 2.—

Major-General Fred D. Grant, who is presiding at the court-martial now in session at Fort Wayne, in the western suburbs of this city, said to some friends here that the cigar that initiated his father, the late President U. S. Grant, into the tobacco-smoking habit, really figured quite strongly in the winning of the battle of Fort Donelson.

quite strongly in the winning of the battle of Fort Donelson.

Speaking of this incident, General Grant said: "My father was in conference with Admiral Foote on the latter's flagship and had just accepted a cigar from the Admiral when word came to him that the left flank of his forces was being repulsed. Hurrying ashore and galloping on a fleet horse to the battlefield, he succeeded in rallying his forces so completely that chaos was turned into victory. General Buckner had to comply with my father's demand for an unconditional surrender."

THE NEWSPAPERS TOOK UP THE FACT

ship to the battlefield without taking Admiral Foote's cigar from his mouth. The dispatches from the front told the field had come onto the battlefield 'cool and collected, and peacefully smoking a long, black cigar."

"PEOPLE WHO READ THE STORY BEGAN

sending congratulations and presents of cigars. Tens of thousands of cigars came. It made a confirmed smoker of him. But he did not smoke as many cigars as people imagined he did. Sometimes one cigar that he would frequently smoke was all that he would smoke from breakfast to luncheon. It was the fact that he almost constantly held a cigar between his fingers that made people describe him as a great smoker."

GENERAL GRANT SAID THAT HIS FATHER

tried to acquire the smoking habit at West Point just because the rules forbade smoking. His attempts at smoking while he was a cadet, however, made him very sick, and when he left West Point he practically gave them up. During the Mexican War, General Grant said, his father took a liking to the Mexican cigars and found that they agreed with him, but when he returned to the North he again dropped the habit of smoking, to resume it after the Fort Donelson incident.

THE NEWSPAPERS TOOK UP THE FACT

ship to the battlefield without taking Admiral Foote's cigar from his mouth. The dispatches from the front told the field had come onto the battlefield 'cool and collected, and peacefully smoking a long, black cigar."

"PEOPLE WHO READ THE STORY BEGAN

sending congratulations and presents of cigars. Tens of thousands of cigars came. It made a confirmed smoker of him. But he did not smoke as many cigars as people imagined he did. Sometimes one cigar that he would frequently smoke was all that he would smoke from breakfast to luncheon. It was the fact that he almost constantly held a cigar between his fingers that made people describe him as a great smoker."

GENERAL GRANT SAID THAT HIS FATHER

tried to acquire the smoking habit at West Point just because the rules forbade smoking. His attempts at smoking while he was a cadet, however, made him very sick, and when he left West Point he practically gave them up. During the Mexican War, General Grant said, his father took a liking to the Mexican cigars and found that they agreed with him, but when he returned to the North he again dropped the habit of smoking, to resume it after the Fort Donelson incident.

THE NEWSPAPERS TOOK UP THE FACT

ship to the battlefield without taking Admiral Foote's cigar from his mouth. The dispatches from the front told the field had come onto the battlefield 'cool and collected, and peacefully smoking a long, black cigar."

"PEOPLE WHO READ THE STORY BEGAN

sending congratulations and presents of cigars. Tens of thousands of cigars came. It made a confirmed smoker of him. But he did not smoke as many cigars as people imagined he did. Sometimes one cigar that he would frequently smoke was all that he would smoke from breakfast to luncheon. It was the fact that he almost constantly held a cigar between his fingers that made people describe him as a great smoker."

GENERAL GRANT SAID THAT HIS FATHER

tried to acquire the smoking habit at West Point just because the rules forbade smoking. His attempts at smoking while he was a cadet, however, made him very sick, and when he left West Point he practically gave them up. During the Mexican War, General Grant said, his father took a liking to the Mexican cigars and found that they agreed with him, but when he returned to the North he again dropped the habit of smoking, to resume it after the Fort Donelson incident.

THE NEWSPAPERS TOOK UP THE FACT

ship to the battlefield without taking Admiral Foote's cigar from his mouth. The dispatches from the front told the field had come onto the battlefield 'cool and collected, and peacefully smoking a long, black cigar."

"PEOPLE WHO READ THE STORY BEGAN

sending congratulations and presents of cigars. Tens of thousands of cigars came. It made a confirmed smoker of him. But he did not smoke as many cigars as people imagined he did. Sometimes one cigar that he would frequently smoke was all that he would smoke from breakfast to luncheon. It was the fact that he almost constantly held a cigar between his fingers that made people describe him as a great smoker."

GENERAL GRANT SAID THAT HIS FATHER

tried to acquire the smoking habit at West Point just because the rules forbade smoking. His attempts at smoking while he was a cadet, however, made him very sick, and when he left West Point he practically gave them up. During the Mexican War, General Grant said, his father took a liking to the Mexican cigars and found that they agreed with him, but when he returned to the North he again dropped the habit of smoking, to resume it after the Fort Donelson incident.

THE NEWSPAPERS TOOK UP THE FACT

ship to the battlefield without taking Admiral Foote's cigar from his mouth. The dispatches from the front told the field had come onto the battlefield 'cool and collected, and peacefully smoking a long, black cigar."

"PEOPLE WHO READ THE STORY BEGAN

sending congratulations and presents of cigars. Tens of thousands of cigars came. It made a confirmed smoker of him. But he did not smoke as many cigars as people imagined he did. Sometimes one cigar that he would frequently smoke was all that he would smoke from breakfast to luncheon. It was the fact that he almost constantly held a cigar between his fingers that made people describe him as a great smoker."

GENERAL GRANT SAID THAT HIS FATHER

tried to acquire the smoking habit at West Point just because the rules forbade smoking. His attempts at smoking while he was a cadet, however, made him very sick, and when he left West Point he practically gave them up. During the Mexican War, General Grant said, his father took a liking to the Mexican cigars and found that they agreed with him, but when he returned to the North he again dropped the habit of smoking, to resume it after the Fort Donelson incident.

THE NEWSPAPERS TOOK UP THE FACT

ship to the battlefield without taking Admiral Foote's cigar from his mouth. The dispatches from the front told the field had come onto the battlefield 'cool and collected, and peacefully smoking a long, black cigar."

"PEOPLE WHO READ THE STORY BEGAN

sending congratulations and presents of cigars. Tens of thousands of cigars came. It made a confirmed smoker of him. But he did not smoke as many cigars as people imagined he did. Sometimes one cigar that he would frequently smoke was all that he would smoke from breakfast to luncheon. It was the fact that he almost constantly held a cigar between his fingers that made people describe him as a great smoker."

GENERAL GRANT SAID THAT HIS FATHER

tried to acquire the smoking habit at West Point just because the rules forbade smoking. His attempts at smoking while he was a cadet, however, made him very sick, and when he left West Point he practically gave them up. During the Mexican War, General Grant said, his father took a liking to the Mexican cigars and found that they agreed with him, but when he returned to the North he again dropped the habit of smoking, to resume it after the Fort Donelson incident.

THE NEWSPAPERS TOOK UP THE FACT

ship to the battlefield without taking Admiral Foote's cigar from his mouth. The dispatches from the front told the field had come onto the battlefield 'cool and collected, and peacefully smoking a long, black cigar."

"PEOPLE WHO READ THE STORY BEGAN

sending congratulations and presents of cigars. Tens of thousands of cigars came. It made a confirmed smoker of him. But he did not smoke as many cigars as people imagined he did. Sometimes one cigar that he would frequently smoke was all that he would smoke from breakfast to luncheon. It was the fact that he almost constantly held a cigar between his fingers that made people describe him as a great smoker."

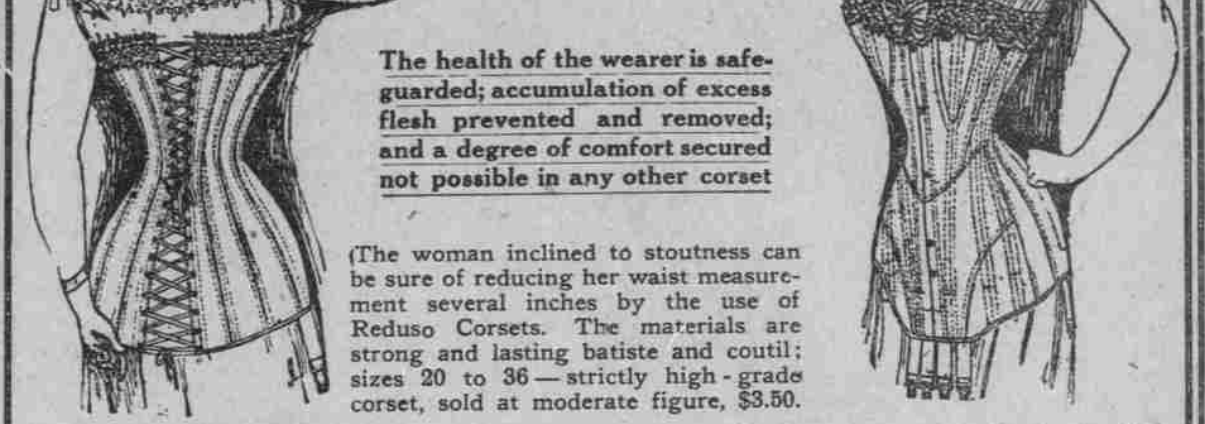

GENERAL GRANT SAID THAT HIS FATHER

tried to acquire the smoking habit at West Point just because the rules forbade smoking. His attempts at smoking while he was a cadet, however, made him very sick, and when he left West Point he practically gave them up. During the Mexican War, General Grant said, his father took a liking to the Mexican cigars and found that they agreed with him, but when he returned to the North he again dropped the habit of smoking, to resume it after the Fort Donelson incident.

Lipman-Wolfe's W. B. Reduso Corsets

Give Stout Figures the Slender Lines

Which Fashion Favors

The art and science of the corsetiere achieved their most notable triumph in the production of Reduso Corsets.

The health of the wearer is safeguarded; accumulation of excess flesh prevented and removed; and a degree of comfort secured not possible in any other corset.

(The woman inclined to stoutness can be sure of reducing her waist measurement several inches by the use of Reduso Corsets. The materials are strong and lasting batiste and coutil; sizes 20 to 36—strictly high-grade corset, sold at moderate figure, $3.50.

$3.50 W. B. Reduso Corsets $1.75

This is a special introductory sale for this week only. The illustrations are exact pictures of W. B. Reduso Corsets for stout women as worn by living models. We have sold thousands this year at the regular price of $3.50 pair. $1.75

$1 W. B. Corsets at 79c | $2 W. B. Corsets at $1.19

The season's newest model, made with high bust and extreme long back. A perfect fitting corset and daintily trimmed. Only 10 dozen will be sold at 79c

Made of fine quality coutil with long back and hip, high bust, and gives the desired long slender lines. The best value ever offered in a corset for $2. sale. $1.19

Our Store's Greatest Lace Sale

For all this week we have planned the greatest lace sale of the year. For months we have been gathering merchandise for this occasion from the New York and foreign markets. Everything in laces and trimmings is represented—Valenciennes, Torchon, Net, Venice, Baby Irish, Cluny, Princess, Chantilly and Novelty Laces of all descriptions. This is a golden opportunity for you to supply your wants for some time to come.

New and desirable tucked effects for waists and sleeves; neat Baby Irish and Venice effects; dainty Net Top and Cluny patterns; Persian bands and shadings; beautiful Allover in Net and Venice, 18 to 45 inches wide; also silk Ring Dot and Spot Nets in Tocco and Filet Mesh; narrow Baby Irish in edges, insertions, medallions, etc.; wide Princess flounces; imitation Irish that can hardly be detected from the real, Applique Sets, Etc., Etc.

We have arranged the above described laces into four sale lots at prices that seem ridiculously low compared to the real values. See big display windows on Washington street.

Lace Sale, Values to $1.25 Yard, 23c

Laces of all descriptions, from net top, edges, etc., to 18-inch allovers.

Lace Sale, Values to $2.25 Yard, 69c

Venise, Baby Irish, Net Top Laces, etc., including silk dotted nets and allover nets, 18 to 45 ins. wide.

Lace Sale, Values to $3.75 Yd, $1.23

Every variety and description of lace; black, white, cream, eoru and colors.

Lace Sale, Values to $6.50 Yd, $2.45

Every variety and description of lace; black, white, cream, eoru and colors.

Lace Sale, Values to 25c Yard at 3c

Imitation Torchon Laces and Insertions, from 1 to 4 inches wide, in a variety of pretty designs.

Lace Sale, Values to $1 Doz. Yds, 29c

A special assortment of French and double-thread Valenciennes Laces and Insertions, up to 2 ins. wide.

Lace Sale, Values to 50c Yard at 5c

A special lot of imitation Cluny, Filet and Net Top Laces and Insertions, in white, cream and eoru.

Women's Tailor-made Suits $26.75

Real Values $45, Sale Price $26.75

On account of before-election business conditions in the East, our buyer secured these handsome, stunning Suits for a special sale that no Portland store can equal in value or beauty of style. There's a clear saving to you of $18 on every suit

Highest-class tailor-made Suits of fine all-wool broadcloths, in black, navy, brown, olive, wine and smoke. Some are made in the newest 36-inch length plain tailored styles, others are trimmed with satin or braid.

The Jackets are all lined with taffeta silk. The skirts are made in the newest flare shapes, plain and fancy trimmed to match the jackets. Superbly tailored suits selling regularly to $45.00. For special sale. $26.75

$1.25 Table Damask at 89c

Extra weight bleached Table Damask 72 inches wide, regularly $1.25 the yard, sale price. 89c

Napkins to match above, size 22x22 inches, regularly $4.50 dozen. $3.45

Pattern Cloths at $3.45

Pattern Table Cloths, 2x2 1/2 yards, border on four sides; regular $4.50 value. $3.45

Napkins

To match above, 22-inch, regularly $5 dozen, sale $3.75 Dz.

G. P. Rummelin & Sons

126 Second Street, Bet. Washington and Alder

Fur-Neckwear and Muffs

Made in Alaska Mink Russian Sable Alaska Lynx Royal Ermine Alaska Sable Sable Fox, Etc.

FUR RUGS and ROBES

FUR AUTO COATS, GLOVES, CAPS

Store Open Saturday Evenings. Send for Catalogue.

