prospective market" is being asked. It is proper that this question should be properly considered and intelligently answered, and to this purpose three days will be given in the coming convention.

THE "LAW-GIVER" AND FREE SPEECH. This is the liberty when free-born men have to be content with a law-giver. Having to be content with a law-giver. What man is there in a state that thins of a law-giver, translating from Euripides.

Of course the urenic mind never forgets the long contest—centuries long—for free speech and free press. Of Milton and Spinoza and Bruno and Savonarola, the urenic mind knows nothing.

NOTE WHAT IT MEANS. On all occasions when political, social or labor questions arise in clubs, organizations and unions, the more radical members of such bodies come to the front, and a shouting majority may not comprise a majority of the members.

QUESTIONS OF JUDICIAL PRACTICE have arisen in connection with industrial disputes. We deem that the parties to all judicial proceedings should be treated with impartiality.

OREGON'S EARLY VOTING. Oregon's first vote for President was cast in 1850. There were four candidates. Lincoln received 5270 votes, Breckinridge 5008, Douglas 3981, Bell 183.

PORTLAND'S BOATBUILDING PRESTIGE. Portland's prestige as a boatbuilding center has been growing. More than fifty years have elapsed since the old Eliza Anderson was built in this city.

COLLEGE RIOTS. No doubt there are persons of shabby mentality who will speak of party and politics in connection with the performance at the University of Washington last Sunday morning.

THE COMMERCIAL ASPECT OF HORTICULTURE in the district covered by the coming convention of horticulturists of the Pacific Northwest will receive the special attention of this body.

host of others which first took the water in this city, were all record-breakers in their day, and all served to advertise the work of the Portland builders.

AMENDMENT IS NECESSARY. The registration of the state, that shows so large a Republican plurality, is—peculiar, let us say. In fact, there is a good reason why the Republican party should not be so large.

FARMERS' PROSPERITY IN JEOPARDY. Neither the influence of a coming Argentine crop of large dimensions nor a free selling of what remains of the American crop, seems to have much effect in breaking the market.

WHERE THE LABOR VOTE STANDS. Poll of Mills and Mines is Favorable to Taft. Labor World (Pittsburg, Pa.) It can be safely said that the campaign of Samuel Gompers in behalf of William Jennings Bryan has failed.

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune.

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune. Every once in a while during this presidential campaign has appeared a cynic who has done gross injustice to President Roosevelt and which he must have been frequently tempted to riddle in one of his characteristic letters.

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune. This allegation has been repeated by the small fry on the Democratic side, and at one time even the leading contributors for corporations is, as he would say if he were writing a letter, a "simple falsehood."

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune. The gravamen of these charges lies in the assertion that corporations had been blackmailed into contributing and in implication, which has taken on the character of a confession, that they have been promised certain immunities or favors or have been assured they would receive some kind of protection.

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune. The assertion that Mr. Cortelyou had any knowledge gained while in any official position whereby he was enabled to secure and divulge any contributions from any corporations, is a falsehood.

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune. These extracts are given from the fact sheet at the close of the campaign of 1904 for the purpose of showing that what the President denied was that any corporation had been blackmailed into contributing a political contribution.

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune. It is reported that several persons who lost money at La Grande through the Scriber bank-stall will, for that reason, vote for Bryan. Doubtless they expect Bryan to pay their money back.

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune. Certainly Oregon is in the doubtful column, as Chairman Mack says. There is much doubt as to whether Taft's plurality will be 10,000 or 15,000, or more.

TRUST AID WAS NEVER DENIED. But No Blackmail on Corporations, Said Roosevelt in 1904. Raymond's Letter in Chicago Tribune. It ought to be possible for a perfect lady to get a cocktail without visiting a saloon. We venture the assertion that Mrs. Howard Gould never enters a saloon.

SPokane, Wash., Nov. 2.—Thrown from her footing in the aisle of a Spokane and Inland Railway car by a sudden lurch, 4-year-old Carrie Mills fell backward, her head striking with violent force against the iron brace of one of the car seats.
