Cub Leader Goes to California After Row With Murphy.

CHICAGO. Nov. 3.—Frank Chance and his wife departed for the manager's Winter home in California last night, leaving the breach between the Cub leader and President Murphy unhealed. So far as can be ascertained, no effort has been made by either side to heal it. The manager did not call at the club's offices to say good-bye, and if he had done so would not have found President Murphy there; the latter remaining at his home in Oak Park on account of sickness. CHICAGO, Nov. 3.-Frank Chance and chance appeared to believe that an effort would be made during the Winter to trade him to the Cincinnati club, and declared he would be glad to go there. He made it plain that the next move in the matter would have to be made by President Murphy

"I would go to the Cincinnati team if they traded me," said the Cub leader just before boarding his train, "but I would not go to any other club in the league. I would rather stay in California than do that. I am going to buy an orange grove out there right away, anyway, and won't have to come back."

Arrested for Counterfeiting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Four men are locked up here following a raid on a house in Fifty-sixth street, in which the police claim to have found a complete counterfeit outfit and a quantity of spurious coins, most of them 50-cent pieces. The men arrested give their names as William Farlow, Henry Clark Thomas Ray and William Sweeney. Parlow is said to have made a confession, taking upon himself all the responsibility, but the other men being found in the house, were also arrested.

Secretary McArthur Informs National Committee of Oregon's Handsome Majority Added to Taft's Overwhelming Victory.

There were amiles and plenty of red firs last night at Republican headquarters; in fact there was so much red fire that it interfered with the flashing of buildins and C. N. McArthur, secretary of the Republican State Central Committee, ordered this part of the Taft victory celebration stopped so as to give the large crowd on the street below a chance to read Taft is snowing Bryan under. Because there were so many places over the city that were flashing the returns and because the weather was so perfect outside, the crowd was small inside. Shortly after 5 o'clock, Secretary McArthur received a telegram from Chairman Hitchcock, announcing that Taft would carry New York State and making anxious inquiry about the results in Oregon. There were smiles and plenty of red fire carry New York State and making anxious inquiry about the results in Oregon. The news that Taft had carried New York State was received with great satisfaction by Secretary McArthur and he wired Hitchcock that Oregon would give Taft at least 20,000 and he explained that the polls in the state did not close until 7 calcals.

Only a few of the Republican leaders stayed at the headquarters to hear the returns as they were flashed over the telegraph instrument and by telephone. Congressman Eilia was among the early callers. Mr. Ellis was deeply interested in the outcome in Ohio and in New York and when Taff began to roll up his majority in New York and throughout the state, he expressed deep safisfaction. The vote in Ohio, although Taff's election had been assured by the telegraphic advices. Mr. Ellis was anxious to see how far the state would go. Wallace McCamant was another Republican who arrived at head-quarters early and stayed until all of the graph instrument and by telephone.
