WILL ATTEMPT TO BEAT CHAMBERLAIN

Efforts to Be Made to Elect Republican Senator, Despite Statement One.

LEADER BADLY NEEDED

Senator Fulton Dislikes to Head Fight, as Do Other Republicans, but May Have Leadership Thrust Upon Him.

Next in the procession of political dotings in Oregon will be the meeting of the Legislature, in January, and the election of United States Senator. With the Presidential election passed by the question now of chief interest is whether Republicans will be able to defeat Chamberlain, Democrat, who poses in the role of popular nominee for United States Senator, having defeated the Republican candidate, H. M. Calk, in the election last June.

But in the five months following the June election, several things have taken place to convince many Republicans that the people of Oregon are willing to turn from Chamberlain, Democrat, to some Republican who can command the public confidence. Latest and most important is the 16,000 plurality for the Republican candidate for President over the Democratic candidate, for whom Chamberlain stood and who he announced was receiving his support, although for political reasons he declined to take the stump for the Nebraskaan.

Fraudulent Registration Helps.
 Another matter is the uncovering of fraudulent registration of many Democrats as Republicans, in order to nominate Calk over Fulton in the Republican primaries by more than enough Democrats to give Calk the Republican nomination.

Still another matter is the recent decision of the Supreme Court of North Dakota, nullifying that part of that state's primary law which binds members of the Legislature to vote for the popular choice for United States Senator. One more matter is the evident fact that many more Republicans than the number of Chamberlain's 1600 plurality over Calk, voted for Chamberlain in order to defeat Statement No. 1 for all time—which binds Republican members of the Legislature to disregard the National Constitution and the choice conferred by it upon them, and to elect Chamberlain, Democrat, to represent in the United States Senate a state that is overwhelmingly Republican and that announced its preference for Republican policies in the National Government, to the extent of 16,000 plurality for Taft.

Make Attack on Chamberlain.
 And yet another matter of importance is the attack soon to be made on Chamberlain in the courts for having taken from the state, during the six years of his Governorship, a large aggregate sum of money as unlawful salary and fees, the same way as Secretary of State Dunbar is charged with having done, to the extent of more than $100,000.

The Republican opposition to Chamberlain needs a candidate for whom all its elements can unite. That candidate has not yet appeared. It looks to Senator Fulton, but he says neither that he will nor that he won't, but announces a strong aversion to heading the fight. The element then looks to T. B. Wilcox, of Portland, and gets the same response. Some talk is heard of S. A. Lowell, of Pendleton, and some of W. C. Hawley, Representative in Congress from the First district, M. C. George, of Portland, is still another, also C. A. Johns, of Baker City, and Dan J. Malachuk, M. L. Pipes, S. B. Houston, of Portland, and others.

Fulton Says He Will Fight.
 Fulton has made known that he will put up all the fight he can to beat Chamberlain and to elect a Republican.

Ralph Williams, National committee member, announced that he will do the same after the Presidential election. Foes of Chamberlain look to Fulton to lead the fray, and he appears as its natural chief and director. According to his own remark, he does not occupy this position willingly. But in the light of political conditions it is naturally his. Possibly these conditions may force Fulton to seek the Senatorship for himself. In the view of many persons he is the only man who could unite a considerable part of Republican strength and withal is the most suitable man of any.

Petitions for Caucus.
 As evidence of the people's wish to elect a Republican Senator, it is quite likely that petitions will be directed to members of the Legislature, signed by electors and circulated generally throughout the state.

If there were one commanding figure in Republican ranks, probably the petitions would call on the legislators to support him in preference to Chamberlain. But as such a person has not appeared, the petitions may call on them to join a Republican caucus for selection of a Republican candidate and to elect him to the Senatorship. This is one of the methods proposed for adopting Statement One Republican legislators justification for electing a Republican Senator.

There are yet two months before the Legislature for Senatorial politics to take shape. Nothing yet has been done in Republican ranks to defeat Chamberlain. The latter hopes that factional wrangles will defeat attempts of Republicans to unite for his defeat.

HAVE "TAG DAY" EACH YEAR

TOTAL OF $8650 WAS RAISED AT FIRST TRIAL.

Committee in Charge Issues Statement, Thanking All Who Made Day Success.

The total of $8650 above all expenses was raised for the Baby Home last Saturday as a result of the "Tag Day" campaign. This amount is more than sufficient to liquidate all the indebtedness of the home, both a note outstanding and street improvements assessed against the home. Members of the committee which had charge of the "Tag Day" campaign have issued the following statement:

At the last regular meeting of the Baby Home board, one of the members, Mrs. D. C. Burns, suggested a "tag day" to raise funds to meet the expenses of new streets assessed against the home. The idea at that time was new to the board, but it was presented with so much interest and with such successful reports from other cities where it had been tried that it was looked upon with favor and the matter was immediately begun for a Baby Home "tag day" with the result already announced.

The most sanguine expectation, that of raising the street debt, was realized; then it was found that the indebtedness could be cleared, and today it is estimated the whole amount raised was $8650 after the expenses of that printing, it paid. This great success is due to the friends of the home, including the press, the pastors and enthusiastic members of different churches, the Woman's Club, merchants, the owners of the Medical building, the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, Commercial Travelers, advertisers, owners of automobiles, and last but by no means least, the hosts of "tag" sellers and "tag" buyers who thronged the streets throughout the busy day. The proprietors of the Crown Theater added to the fund by giving the proceeds of their entertainment for the hours on Wednesday afternoon.

With the great encouragement received and upon the advice of friends, the ladies came to have an annual "tag day," believing that many welcome an opportunity to contribute in a small way to the maintenance of the Baby Home. We owe a debt of gratitude to all—and to many more who by advice, suggestion, interest and hard work made the raising of the debt possible and we take this means of thanking all.

OPEN MURDER CASE

First Witnesses Take Stand Against La Rose.

STATE OUTLINES EVIDENCE

Fitzgerald Declares That Circumstances Will Prove Defendant Guilty of Murdering Pawnbroker Neuman With Gasps.

Introduction of a set of circumstances which the state says show Jack LaRose to be the man who murdered Hyman Neuman, dealer in second-hand goods, was begun in the State Circuit Court, yesterday afternoon. The forenoon was given over to the making of opening statements. From these it was made clear that the prosecuting officers must depend solely on circumstantial evidence, while the defense will rely on the weakness of the state's case.

Other Assaults Not Mentioned.
 In the examination of witnesses the question of similar gaspsie assaults made by LaRose before and after the Neuman murder did not come up. Attorneys Humphrey and Upton, representing LaRose, intend to resist any effort on the part of the state to bring the other cases into the trial.

The fact that LaRose was caught making an unprovoked and murderous assault on a Chinese the very day after Neuman was murdered and in the same vicinity, would no doubt have its effect on the jury, if admitted in evidence. But it will be contended that the previous and subsequent crimes of LaRose, and of which he has not been convicted, cannot be used against him, since under the law a man is presumed innocent of any crime until proved guilty, no matter how conclusive the evidence. And LaRose hasn't been convicted of anything.

Tells Story of Assault.
 Mr. Fitzgerald said that Neuman was seen alone in his store a few minutes before the assault. He said the assassin entered the place, asked to look at a suitcase, and while Neuman was reaching for one, struck him over the head with a piece of gaspsie. Neuman was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital and died the next day. This was May 12. The assault occurred May 12, a few minutes before 11 o'clock.

At this time LaRose was in the city. Mr. Fitzgerald proceeded. He was in the vicinity of the Neuman store the day of the assault, the day before and the day after.

Declares Two Killed Neuman.

Mr. Upton, in opening for LaRose, said it would be shown that two men killed Neuman and that LaRose knew nothing more about the crime than did the members of the jury. He said that the state's chain of circumstantial evidence would prove to be weak and flimsy and that LaRose's possession of the watches in the case would be satisfactorily explained.

After the jury had viewed the scene of the murder, LaRose going along and looking the place over with calm interest, Benjamin Heckman, dealer in second-hand goods at 33 Couch street, was called as the first witness. He said he was talking to Neuman at 10:30 o'clock the morning of the assault. About 20 minutes later he found Neuman lying in his store unconscious. Dr. Ziegler, City Physician, described the wounds in Neuman and said death was caused by a complex fracture of the skull, the result of a severe blow or series of blows on the head.

Detective Tehebor described the position in which Neuman lay after the assault and the condition of the store. He said he found a piece of gaspsie wrapped with paper lying near Neuman's prostrate form. The gaspsie was submitted and entered as an exhibit. As to the cash drawer in the place, the officer said he observed it was partially open but did not examine it closely. His testimony was not yet complete when adjournment was taken for the day.

Are You a Lard Eater?

Half the time when a person feels blue and out of sorts you may take it for granted that he is a victim of the "lard habit." Lard-cooked food and good stomachs are never friends for long. Lard food is not healthful food and no ordinary stomach can thoroughly digest it.

Lard comes from the pig-sty; Cottolene from the cotton fields of the Sunny South. Lard is greasy, indigestible, and sometimes absolutely harmful; Cottolene makes food digestible, nutritious, delicious. Cottolene is the perfect shortening and frying medium. It is pure and healthful. It contains not an ounce of hog-fat.

Cottolene is today in use by thousands of housewives who would no more think of going back to lard than they would of reverting to tallow dips for lighting their homes.

Cottolene is one of the products which pure food advocates always endorse.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an airtight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.
