TROUBLE FOR LABOR

Politics Will Be Basis of Fight in A. F. of L.

SOCIALISTS TO FIGURE

Matter Will Come up at Convention in Form of Resolutions Condemning Gompers for Recent Political Work.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 6.—Politics will furnish the principal topic of discussion at the convention of the American Federation of Labor. It is said by local union leaders to be probable that the federation, with its 2,800,000 members and more than 1,500,000 voters, will adopt a permanent political policy through an amendment to its constitution. There will be vigorous opposition from the beginning to action binding the federation to any political policy, and an effort probably will be made to bind the organization to keep entirely out of politics, both local and National, in the future. The matter will be brought up soon after the convention assembles in the form of resolutions both approving and condemning the action of President Samuel Gompers and the members of the Executive Board in supporting the Democratic ticket in the last campaign. These resolutions will be referred to the committee on resolutions, and will not be generally discussed until nearly the end of the meeting.

The fight against politics in the organization will probably be led by Socialist members, who have always opposed the introduction of political questions into the federation. They will be backed by a number of Republicans who have opposed the action of the federation leaders in the present campaign and by many delegates who consider the recent campaign sufficient proof that the federation can accomplish nothing in National politics. It is not thought, however, by those who have kept closely informed on labor matters that the opposition will be strong enough to prevent the convention from deciding definitely on a vigorous political policy.

GOMPERS UP FOR HEARING Must Face Federation and Explain Political Activities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Ready to answer before the convention, attacks which have been made upon him for his course in the recent Presidential campaign, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, left today for Denver, where the 28th annual meeting of that body begins next Monday. In an interview printed in the Post today, Mr. Gompers is quoted as saying that he is not a candidate for reelection in the sense that he seeks the office, although he would be glad to serve again if it is the will of the convention. "I am, however, in the American Federation of Labor to stay," said Mr. Gompers. "and if I don't stay as president, I shall stay in the ranks. I believe in the course I have pursued and think I have done right. I have endeavored to give voice to the wrongs labor has endured, and I have endeavored to have them righted. I was told at the beginning of the campaign that a gentleman high in the councils of the Republican party said he would burn bushwood behind me so fast that I would be eaten up by the fire. I know I risked that when I began the fight in the cause of labor. "More criticism than has been thrown against me during the last few days undoubtedly will arise. There was a lot of it during the campaign, notably the story that a Cabinet position awaited me. I said as early as last August that there was no office within the gift of the people or of the Government for which I was a candidate, or which I would accept. I meant that then and I mean it now."

Shoots Girl Five Times.

HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 6.—As the result of a double shooting affray at the residence of Mrs. B. Camele, 150 Rebecca street, last night, Chester Johnson is dead and Roscoe Outint is in the hospital with five bullet wounds in her body, and may not live. Johnson did the shooting. He had been keeping company with the young woman against the wishes of her parents. He left a note reading: "If we cannot live for each other, we can die for each other. Perhaps people will now be sorry they parted us." Mrs. Outint and her husband ridicule the theory that there was any part between Johnson and the girl to die together.

Man Whom Czar Wants Extradited Is Member of Secret Revolutionary Society, Says Comrade in Struggle.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—A dramatic story was told today at the hearing of the new extradition proceedings brought by the Russian government against the refugee Jan Janoff Pouden. It was a tale of the adventures of Pouden in Russia and of his flight for life from the soldiers.

The facts were brought out in the testimony of Mrs. Trina Shepto, a young woman who now lives in Roxbury, Mass., although she originally came from Riasgab, in Livonia, Russia, where Pouden had lived. In answer to question by counsel the witness described the objects of a secret organization to which she and Pouden belonged.

"We had an election," continued Mrs. Shepto, "and chose members to fight for the defense of the people. Everything went along smoothly until the dragoons came and the town officers fled and went into hiding." She said the literature of the secret society had been left in her charge and that the soldiers came to her house and threatened to whip her and her mother unless she gave up the records. "Pouden came to my house," she continued, "and I gave him something to eat. While he was eating, the soldiers came, but he escaped. The soldiers whipped us and threatened to kill us if we did not tell them where Pouden was." Mrs. Shepto then told of the Black Hundred, who she said were robbers and murderers who went about the country in the name of the Russian Democratic party. The witness said that she finally had to come to this country in order to save her life.

RETURNS STOLEN MONEY Arrested Cashier Gives Back $8020 of Funds He Took.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—George W. Hopkins, cashier of the State Savings and Commercial Bank of this city, who was arrested after the discovery of a shortage of $8000 in his accounts and his admission that he was responsible for the disappearance of a much larger amount of the funds of the bank, has returned to Manager Haag $8020 which he had at his home. He is still in custody while experts are making an investigation of the books at the bank which were under his control. The officials of the institution, it is said, are not inclined to prosecute Hopkins, unless it is shown that he has taken more than the amount missing, which they think will not exceed the sum recovered. The detective, however, assert that Hopkins confessed last night that he had lost about $12,000 on the races and in living a high life. His young wife collapsed when she heard of her husband's plight and is still suffering from nervous prostration.
