EISELE TEN-MILE CHAMPION

Wins National Honors—Lee Collapses After Finish.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—John T. Eisele, a Princeton graduate wearing the colors of the New York Athletic Club, won the National ten-mile running championship of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States at Catic Park, L. I. yesterday.

W. Bailey of the New York Athletic Club finished second, George Bonhard of the Irish-American Athletic Club third, and James Lee of the Boston Athletic Club fourth.

THORNTON HAINS WAS PRESENT AT THE TIME OF THE SHOOTING AND IS CHARGED WITH HAVING ASSISTED HIS BROTHER IN THE COMMISSION OF THE CRIME BY HOLDING OFF AT THE POINT OF A REVOLVER, MEMBERS OF THE BAYSIDE YACHT CLUB WHO HAD ATTEMPTED TO GO TO THE ASSISTANCE OF ANNIE. BOTH BROTHERS ARE UNDER INDICTMENT FOR MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE.

WHILE THORNTON HAINS, UNHAPPENED, COLLAPSED AND WITH A STRAND OF ROPE ABOUT HIS WAIST DOING DUTY AS A BELT, WAS RELAYING HIS GRIM STORY, THE CAPTAIN, GAUNT AND UNKEMPT, STOOD LESS THAN TEN FEET AWAY, HIS LONG, MOKING BATHROBE TRAILING THE FLOOR, HIS EYES STARING FIXATED AT THE WHITE WALLS OF HIS PRISON. HE TOOK NO PART IN THE CONVERSATION.

FEARED ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

"THERE HAVE BEEN SO MANY UNTRUTHS IN circulation about Peter and myself," said Thornton Hains, "that I must ask the Associated Press to set us right in the eyes of the world. I am not a desperado and neither is Peter."

"ON THE DAY OF THE SHOOTING I IMAGINED ANNIE TO BE IN Mount Vernon. Neither Peter nor I had any idea that we would run across him at Bayside. Ever since the terrible night when my brother's wife admitted her love for me with Annis, I had been Peter's constant companion. General Hains feared that Peter would kill himself, and so he gave him over to my care. I took him with me to live and, in order to take his mind off his troubles, I took him out with me days at a time, cruising in a little motorboat that I had."

WHY THORNTON CARRIED GUN.

"THEY HAVE MADE MUCH OF THE fact that we went armed," he continued. "As far as Peter was concerned, I did not know he had a gun with him. It was not until after the shooting that I learned that I realized the situation. As for me, the gun I had was the same I carried for 14 years. Most of my life has been spent at sea, where primitive passions rule, and men in their cups need more than words to subdue them."

"THEY HAVE ALSO SAID THAT, WHEN WE arrived at the yacht club, our first move was to ask whether Annis was there. There was never anything said further of the trouble. We had not been on the ground long, however, before the name of Annis came to our ears. I immediately began to urge Peter to come away. He could not be persuaded and after a while I gave up trying."

HIS VERSION OF SHOOTING.

"IT WAS SO UNEXPECTED AND IT ALL happened so quickly that I was powerless to interfere. As soon as the first shot was fired, Peter was expected at the door. A dozen men rushed for him and I saw the big boatman grab him by the throat and send him striking Annis. It was then I pulled my gun."

"I CERTAINLY HAD NO FEELINGS OF AVERSION or regard for Annis, but I had saved him from being shot by Peter once before and I would have done so again if I had had the chance."

PETER DETERMINED TO KILL.

"THE NIGHT THAT PETER'S WIFE MADE the written acknowledgment of her misconduct with Annis she urged that I get word to Annis of what had happened. Annis was expected at the door the next day and she wished to warn him to stay away. She wrote the letter and gave it to me to mail. Peter had seen the letter and he was, however, and guessed to whom it was addressed. Before I could remonstrate with him he had torn it open and read its contents. He said to me: 'All is over between Peter and me; he knows everything. Don't come to-morrow.'"

"PETER PUT THE LETTER IN HIS pocket and said: 'I want him to come. I have something to say to him.'"

"FROM HIS TONE I KNEW THAT HE MEANT to shoot Annis on sight. Washington determined that the only way to prevent a meeting between the two was to drug Peter. I went to Dr. Wilson, the post surgeon, and got him to give me a double dose of chloral. When we got back to the house, I persuaded Peter to take it, keeping him in ignorance of what it was. When Annis came the next day, Peter was still under the influence of the opiate. Annis saw Peter's wife and left again for New York. Twenty minutes after he had gone, Peter awoke."

BITTERLY FOUGHT TO TIE

Washington and Pullman Give Fine Football Exhibition.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The game between the University of Washington and Washington State College ended in a tie, 6 to 6. Each team made a place kick and a safety, but failed to cross the goal line.

THE CONTEST WAS BITTERLY FOUGHT and was one of the greatest exhibitions of the college game ever seen in this city. During the first half, Washington had the better of Pullman, but the latter's greater weight told when the game advanced, and within the white line Pullman was outmaneuvered by Washington.

WASHINGTON TRIED FOR GOALS from the field six times and Pullman tried three times. Three times during the game the ball was brought within Pullman's 10-yard line, once to the 1-yard line, but the heavy Pullman line was impregnable at critical times. Washington's goal was never seriously threatened. On the whole the score very well represents the comparative strength of the teams.

FOR WASHINGTON COYLE STARRED in returning punts and advancing the ball, and Ecken and Muckeltons played great games. Deaner played a magnificent game at tackle for Pullman, and Cave, Wexler and Halm did good work. Deaner's kick was the only one seen on a local gridiron and is as classy a player as he is big.

With reference to requesting Governor Willson to issue requisition papers upon Governor-elect Marshall of Indiana, after he takes his seat, for the return of W. S. Taylor and Charles Finley for trial upon the indictments pending against them in the Franklin County Circuit Court, charging them with complicity in the murder of William Goebel.

Taylor was the Republican contestant for the governorship of Indiana, and Secretary of State in the previous administration, his term having expired several weeks before the murder of Goebel occurred. The Republican Governor of Indiana since the murder have refused to deliver the two men to the Kentucky authorities for trial on the ground that they would not be given fair trials.

SOUTH NEED HAVE NO FEAR

With Enforcement of Laws Little Danger of Cut in Representation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A Washington special to the Times says, that President Roosevelt's views on Southern representation in the House are given in a letter to Wm. W. R. Meredith, president of the Virginia Bar Association, made public today. The letter, which is dated October 27, says in part:

"I DO NOT BELIEVE THERE IS A SINGLE instance of any consequence who seriously dreams of cutting down Southern representation and I should have no hesitation in stating anywhere and at any time that, as long as the election laws are constitutionally enforced without discrimination to color, the fear that Southern representation in Congress will be cut down is both idle and absurd."

KILLED IN BLIND TIGER

Affray at Birmingham Causes Three and Perhaps Four Deaths.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 8.—A raid on an alleged blind tiger tonight cost the lives of Policeman Little, Mr. Womack and a child of J. W. Harris, who were instantly killed. J. W. Harris was fatally injured.

The raid occurred at Third avenue and Eighth street. Policeman Little and Policeman Jones had gone to the suspected place, which is a private residence. Jones remained in front of the house, while Little knocked at the back door. When Womack, who was stopping there, opened it and saw the officer, he began firing. Harris, who owned the house, heard Jones coming from the front and also began shooting; the officer returning the fire. Harris was fatally shot and his child was struck by a stray bullet.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—An attempt to rob Big Four train No. 18 from Cincinnati last in Columbus at 2:55 o'clock was foiled last night by the prompt discovery of the presence of two robbers on the dining-car by a porter. As a result one man, Harry G. Emmit, aged 38, a resident of 49 East Mound street, Columbus, is believed to be dying at Protestant Hospital and a man who says his name is Patrick Mah
