

ROOSEVELT IS PROSECU- TOR PLATT'S SEAT

Roosevelt Confers With New York Leaders on Senatorship.

WILLING TO ACCEPT JOB

Wadsworth and Ward Consult President. Who Favors Root, but Will Keep Hands Off—Root Is Noncommittal as Yet.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—It is the opinion in Washington that as a result of a long conference at the White House today between President Roosevelt, James Wadsworth, Jr., speaker of the New York State Assembly, and William L. Ward, Republican National committee man, the man who will be supported by them next January to succeed Thomas C. Platt on March 4, 1909, as United States Senator will be Sibth Root, of Clinton, N. Y., the present Secretary of State.

GOMPERS STILL DEFIANT

(Continued from First Page.) referred to the recent panic and said it was an indictment against our civilization that such a paralysis of industry should be possible and that those responsible "for the unnecessary and wanton misery of so large a mass of workmen" should be held accountable.

Will Not Give Free Speech.

Mr. Gompers made a detailed report on the Buck Stove & Range Company boycott case, in which he and other officers of the Federation were enjoined from publishing any allusion to the dispute with that company and were afterwards summoned for contempt of court in violating the injunction. He then says: "As a citizen and a man I cannot and will not surrender my right of free speech and freedom of the press. It is impossible to see how any man can be denied the right of free speech and free press simply because we are in a strike. It is a thing that we shall be compelled to suppress, refuse to distribute, and refuse to disseminate the official transactions of one of the great conventions of our Federation? I do not know."

Objections to Injunctions.

Injunctions as issued against workmen are never applied to or issued against any other citizen of our country. Injunctions are an attempt to deprive citizens of our country when they are absent of the right of free speech. They are an effort to fasten an offense upon workmen who are innocent of any crime. They are issued in trade disputes to make outlaws of men who are not outlaws in the eyes of the law. These injunctions issued in labor disputes are an indirect assertion of a property right in men when these men are workers engaged in legitimate efforts to better their conditions and interests.

GOMPERS CASE IS POSTPONED

Contempt Proceedings Delayed on Account of Parker's Engagement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The hearing in the contempt proceedings against President Gompers, Vice-President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, growing out of publications following the injunction issued against them in the Buck Stove & Range Company case, has been postponed from tomorrow until next Thursday.

which controls the labor power of its members. He said that 25 workmen in Missouri had also been indicted for violating the Sherman law by adding their fellow-workers to obtain the prevailing rate of wages denied by a shipowner.

Shot at Supreme Court.

The existence of the labor organizations now depends upon the point of view of an administration, or upon its sufferance. That this point of view of the law, as interpreted by the courts, or this sufferance or toleration of the organizations, may be changed at the whim or fancy of a change in the administration of the affairs of our country, no one will deny.

I have already pointed out that the life-long environment of men may prevent their seeing the environment of the judgment, and that the environment of the judgment, which even composes the Justices of the Supreme Bench has been such that they have not been brought into practical and personal contact with industrial problems, that on the contrary, their associations have largely been with business and financial men, that naturally a man absorbed in his point of view from his environment, that is, therefore, quite understandable that the Justices of the Supreme Court should have little knowledge and sympathy with the efforts of the wage-workers to adapt themselves to the marvelous revolution which has taken place in industry in the past quarter of a century.

Labor Bills in Congress.

He then reviewed the bill introduced in Congress to exempt labor unions from the provisions of the Sherman law, and the Pearce bill to restrict the use of injunctions. He declared that what they asked was already law in Great Britain, and recommended renewed efforts to secure the passage of these bills.

Mr. Gompers reviewed the bills for the benefit of labor passed at the last session of Congress. Then he renewed his attack on the Supreme Court with a review of laws which it had declared unconstitutional.

The law of the State of New York limiting the hours of workmen in bake shops to ten hours in interstate commerce. The law prohibiting common carriers engaged in interstate commerce from discharging employees because of membership in a labor organization, or discharging them for any reason.

The eight-hour law so far as it applies to dredges men in Government employ. The Supreme Court has decided in the Arago case, Robert v. Barry Baldwin, that seamen may be forcibly brought to their vessels and forced to work against their will, notwithstanding the fact that they are in a labor organization, or discharging them for any reason.

Entangled in Litigation.

He told of several suits against the Federation now pending, and said it was the evident purpose to entangle the Federation in constant litigation at enormous expense. The assessment for litigation was already almost exhausted, and the injunction cases were still pending. He would not recommend additional assessments or appeals for such expenses. He opposed "assuming to do the impossible—that is, to be represented by competent legal counsel"—but proposed that they should personally appear before the courts and take the consequences. He could see no remedy, "unless there shall be a quickening of the consciences of our judges, who the relief would be put through at this session which Congress can and should afford."

Bitter Attack on Cannon.

He then reviewed the proceedings leading up to the recent political action of the Federation, saying, among other things: "The campaign inaugurated by labor in 1906 being the most conspicuous effort to punish labor's enemies, and aggravated their antagonism. The Speaker, who had 'packed' committees not only against labor but against any other real reformer, and to accustom him to his bitter and relentless determination to block effective legislation, he so appointed his committees as to beat their heads against the impossibility of having bills objectionable to him and the 'interests' he represents from even being reported for the consideration of Congress."

Demand on Conventions.

Then he told of the presentation of identical demands to the National Conventions of the Republican and Democratic parties, and of the adoption of those demands by the Democrats. He denied having attempted to dictate how the Republican party should vote, and said he had members stood up for the right of a member to uphold his individual opinion.

DENY SETTLERS MORE TIME

Delinquent Mindoka Applicants to Forfeit Lands December 1.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Secretary Garfield today announced that he would grant no extension of time to settlers on the Mindoka irrigation project in Idaho who have been backward in making their first annual payment to the Government. Many settlers who should have paid $2.50 per acre on December 1 last have not yet paid up, and unless such payment is made before December 1 next, such settlers will become delinquent and their entries will be cancelled and all money they may have paid thereon will be forfeited. Settlers under the law have one year grace, but the Secretary is unwilling to grant more time than the law allows.

FEW CHANGES IN TARIFF ARE LIKELY

Change Wording Only Now, Rate Revision Comes Later.

EXTRA SESSION NECESSARY

Senator Scott and Others Urge Immediate Action, but Committee Members Will Successfully Forestall Any Such Move.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The proposed revision of the tariff was discussed at a conference today by Representatives Payne of New York, Dalzell of Pennsylvania, Hill of Connecticut, and Gaines of West Virginia, leading Republican members of the House, in connection with the tariff which the committee will hold during the month, beginning tomorrow morning.

Shelve Dingley Law.

That the committee will draw up a tariff law, and which will carry out the policy advocated in the Chicago platform was today admitted by one of the majority members, but it is understood that the committee has confined its efforts to the consideration of necessary changes in the wording of the law, in order to secure its proper interpretation, rather than to the question of any changes in rates of duty, which has been left for consideration after the hearings have been held.

Make Few Changes.

Indications are that adjustments in the wording of various paragraphs of schedules A and N, a more explicit classification of certain articles will be all that the committee will be asked to do with regard to this schedule.

That Tip-Top Feeling

That Tip-Top Feeling in the morning comes from starting the breakfast with H-O, the Oatmeal that is steam-cooked for three hours at the mill before you get it, making it wholesome, nourishing and easily digested.

It's the only cooked oatmeal sold—as different from ordinary "rolled oats" as cream is different from white-wash.

Physicians prescribe it for delicate patients, and it's the delight of hearty folk who like a hot, wholesome, filling breakfast. Fifteen minutes' boiling prepares it for the table. Ask your grocer for H-O.

"I want some more."

Weak Little Boys

may become fine strong men. Some of the strong men of to-day were sickly boys years ago. Many of them received at their mother's knee. This had a power in it that changed them from weak, delicate boys into strong, robust boys. It has the same power to-day. Boys and girls who are pale and weak get food and energy out of Scott's Emulsion. It makes children grow.

It was reorganized after several months and W. B. Ridgely accepted the offer and the bank opened its new $1,000,000 building that was in the course of construction when the bank failed. Mr. Ridgely's brother, formerly of New York and St. Louis, was made vice-president. Since then Dr. Woods, who in the reorganization of the bank, went quietly to work buying up the bank's stock. Today it was announced he had secured a free site and the cost of the futile fight just made by the people of Berkeley is likely to be increased by the expenses of another campaign to retain the university.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.
