

PORTLAND VISITERS MERRY AT ALBANY

Delegation 150 Strong Helps Dedicate Southern Pacific's New Depot.

PRAISES BIG APPLE SHOW

Visitors Are Entertained With Football Game and Banquet—Eugene and Other Neighboring Towns Also Participate.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—One hundred and fifty leading business men of Portland helped the citizens of Albany to inaugurate the apple fair and dedicate their splendid new depot today.

Reception Is Enthusiastic.

It was "Portland day" at the apple fair and a gala day in Albany. The special Portland excursion train arrived here at 11:10 and was greeted by a big reception committee.

Speeches by Railroad Officials.

A delegation of almost 100 members of the Eugene Commercial Club, headed by the Eugene band, arrived at 1:30 and the formal opening of the depot then occurred before a crowd of more than 1000 people.

Apple Display Is Admired.

The visitors were then taken to the apple fair in the armory and the splendid display called forth admiration and surprise. On their way through the city the Portland men were marked on the number of new buildings, viewed the work on the construction of an electric line and the preparations for street paving and commented heartily on Albany's progress.

Portland Cheers Albany Team.

Finally Albany, rather than disappointed the large crowd of visitors, announced that though Dunlap was eligible, they would play without him.

Novel Methods of Introduction.

J. S. Van Winkle, postmaster of Albany, was an unqualified success as toastmaster and his introduction of speakers and presentation of telegrams from well-known men of the state and Nation won applause.

Portland Men Make Speeches.

Senator C. W. Hodson spoke for the Portland Commercial Club, of which he is president. Tom Richardson made a characteristic talk, and B. E. Fassett, the Albany booster, was introduced and received an ovation.

characterized the banquet as the greatest gathering of the kind he ever attended in Oregon. Ralph W. Hoyt spoke as president of the Portland Rose Festival, and J. W. McDougal, a former Albany minister, now of Portland, made a hit in the closing talk.

Leave for Home in High Spirit.

The banquet ended with three cheers for everybody. W. W. Cotton leading. Excellent music was furnished by the ladies' orchestra of the Appley Conservatory of Music.

FINE APPLES ARE ON DISPLAY

Albany's Second Annual Fruit Fair an Elaborate Exhibit.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—With an exhibit which is pronounced the best display of apples ever collected in the Upper Willamette Valley, the second annual Albany Apple Fair opened in this city today.

Only two counties are competing for the grand prize of a $100 cup offered by Linn County. They are Marion and Polk, Linn County being barred from this competition.

Work Should Mean Big Results.

Nowhere has this awakening of the farmers been more in evidence than on today's tour of the Marion County cities. This section, rich in fruit and dairying and with great possibilities, particularly in these two lines, is one of the oldest agricultural districts of the whole state.

Cow Oregon's Mortgage-Lifter.

While the horticulturalists from the Oregon Agricultural College on board the train point out how perfectly adapted to fruit growing is the Willamette Valley, Dr. Withycombe is not slow to tell the farmers that while their orchards are growing up to maturity they will need other sources of revenue.

PRUNE CROP IS MOVING

Salem Packers Receive Orders From Eastern Jobbers.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—The revival of business in the East and the opening of manufacturing establishments and other enterprises employing labor has evidently had its effect on the prune market, which has been dormant for several weeks.

Though there were a few sales during the period of depression, packers did not shade their prices in order to move the goods. Neither did the prices paid by packers to growers suffer a decline, though a few purchases were made at a slight reduction.

Pioneer of 1852.

GLENDALE, Or., Nov. 10.—Mrs. Mary Ann Wood, who died at her home in this city last week, was a pioneer of 1852. She is survived by eight children: George and Abraham Miller, Albert, Elias, James and Levi Wood, Mrs. William Watkins and Mrs. C. T. Nall.

SALEM WHISTLES SHRIEK WELCOME

Demonstration Train Greeted at Capital City by 2000 People.

COMPLETE TRIP TODAY

Agricultural College Professors Will Return to Corvallis and Railroad Men Come on to Portland—Interest Still Intense.

BY C. H. WILLIAMS. WOODBURN, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Factory whistles welcomed the farming demonstration train of the Southern Pacific to Salem, the Capital, today. The biggest crowd of the trip turned out to witness the demonstrations, almost 2000 people viewing the exhibits during the stay at the Cherry City.
