COOS BAY LINE
The steamer BREKIDWATER leaves Portland every Wednesday at 8 P. M.

George L. Rose, of Salem, yesterday paid the remainder of the hop crop, and bales to Klaber, Wolf & Nolter at 8 cents. This is the largest single block of hops to change hands in Oregon this year.

There is no doubt that a good many dealers have disposed of their holdings lately, as they are keenly disappointed at the failure of the season.

There cannot deny, however, that Klaber, Horal, Williams and Nels have operated on an export account, and there are well founded rumors that another large exporter has been to buy quietly.

There may be a shortage of turkeys in Portland for the Thanksgiving trade; at least there will be no surplus, from present indications.

ALL GRAIN MARKETS ARE FIRM.

The egg market is becoming steadier. There has been no change in prices. Oregon eggs are selling at 37 1/2 cents and Eastern at 27 to 32 1/2 cents.

The demand for poultry is also improving and prices in this line can no longer be called weak.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11—Today's sequel to yesterday's market performance in the two Harriman Pacific stocks opened the eyes of the most conservative element of the fact that the speculation was entering on a reckless and hazardous stage.

A comparison of the action of the Southern Pacific and Interoceanic directors in confining themselves to the declaration of dividends at the rates which have prevailed for two years with the inflated prices of securities which were kept in circulation yesterday in connection with the volatile rise in those stocks, was a warning that proved sufficient as a check.

No unfavorable news of affairs accompanied the break. News from headquarters on the contrary, continued uniformly favorable. There may have entered into consideration the possibility of the continuation of the extreme ease of money with a sustained revival in trade activity.

A date was fixed today for a sale on November 23 of $12,500,000 of 4 per cent stock at 100. The Government's Panama Canal bond offering this month is expected to amount to $20,000,000.

Foreign markets were buyers here, reflected by the clearing of the international market. Vigorous supporting measures were employed at all stages of the selling.

The orderly predilection with which the speculation has continued to expand in the Pacific states is a fact that has not been overlooked by the market.
