

COOPER SOUGHT CARMACK TO KILL

Evidence of Deliberation Is Quoted on Nashville Tragedy.

DAUGHTER GAVE WARNING

Rumors That Cooper's Offspring Asked Governor Patterson to Pre- vent Shooting and That Cooper Sent a Written Threat.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 11.—The police are investigating numerous stories which gained circulation yesterday among the late ex-Senator Carmack's friends and were cited by them as tending to show that the Coopers had previously determined to attack the ex-Senator and were searching for him when he was shot by Robin Cooper yesterday. In addition to the statement made by Governor Patterson this morning, which is one of the few positive bits of evidence so far, the police are at work on reports that Colonel Cooper had sent out several verbal messages to Carmack, warning him to refrain on pain of death from using Cooper's name in future editorials.

Warned by Cooper's Daughter.

The efforts of the police in connection with Mr. Patterson's statement are directed toward a rumor that Colonel Cooper had told his married daughter of his intention to kill Carmack, whereupon she is alleged to have called on the governor by telephone and asked him to use his good offices with her father.

The police are trying to ascertain if it is true that the conversation held by the governor with the Coopers, in which he played the part of peace-maker and to which the governor refers in his statement, was the direct result of the warning he is said to have received from Colonel Cooper's daughter.

Charged With Murder.

Two charges have been made against each of the Coopers, murder and carrying concealed weapons against the son, and accessory to murder and carrying a pistol against the father. The latter waived examination and was held in jail without bail.

Hosts Mourn for Carmack.

The body of Carmack was sent to Columbia this afternoon. Impressive scenes at the Union Station marked the departure. Members of the W. C. T. U., whose cause Mr. Carmack had ably championed, gathered at the station in numbers and sang "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Stand for Jesus." A brief address was delivered by Rev. Ira Landroth. Mrs. Carmack and other hosts of friends and sympathizers. All during the morning hours a stream of mourners thronged the station. The body was at once taken to the Carmack home, where the funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Young Cooper's Wound Serious.

The killing of Carmack was the absorbing topic in Nashville today and many rumors were in circulation. Robin J. Cooper, who shot Carmack and who himself was wounded, is under arrest at a local hospital. He is doing well, but his physicians stated today that his wound, which is near the collar bone, is in a dangerous place and complications were not unlikely. Colonel Cooper, who was with his son when the shooting occurred, was transferred from police headquarters to the jail today. He had nothing to say.

DEPLORES CARMACK TRAGEDY

Governor Patterson Urged Cooper to Take No Notice of Editorials.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 11.—A Nashville dispatch quoted Governor Patterson as follows with regard to the killing of ex-United States Senator Edward W. Carmack, who was shot and killed in a street duel in that city by Robin Cooper, a young attorney of Nashville: "I deeply deplore the unfortunate tragedy. I saw both young Mr. Cooper and his father in the morning and nothing occurred to cause me to suppose that any altercation would take place with Senator Carmack or any one else. Colonel Cooper had been very much aggrieved at the use of his name by Senator Carmack, and I learned that he had prepared a note to send Senator Carmack demanding that in future his name be not used in editorials, as he was a mere private citizen and should not be subject to public attack or ridicule."

NIGHT RIDERS UNDER ARREST BY MILITIA IN TENN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—The attack of the Nightriders of Tennessee, on two prominent citizens of that state—Rankin and Taylor—was one of the most lawless acts ever committed in the United States. The attack was due to the fact that these two men—prominent lawyers—had obtained control of the land bordering Reelfoot Lake, a favorite fishing ground, and had warned squatters off their property. A letter was sent to them by a well-known citizen named Carpenter asking them to a conference concerning the sale of some of the property. Carpenter is now charged with having lured them to the little one-story hotel from which they were taken at night and hurried into the woods to be lynched. Rankin was hanged, but Taylor broke away, and, diving into a stream, swam, under a shower of bullets, to safety. The Governor of Tennessee was a personal friend to the two men, and in the face of threats against his life, he went personally to the neighborhood of the crime, called out the militia, declared martial law, and went about the arrest of the criminals. Many arrests were made, and one of the men arrested—Tid Burton—confessed his part in the crime and implicated others. Governor Patterson believes he has the murderers.
