

GOMEZ REJECTED VICTOR IN CUBA

Indications Point to Success of Liberal Ticket in Election.

GENERAL 53 YEARS OLD

Has Taken Leading Part in Two Revolutions—Influence and Popularity Throughout the Republic Widespread.

HAVANA, Cuba, Nov. 15.—General Jose Miguel Gomez, the liberal candidate for President of Cuba, is believed to have been elected to that office yesterday.

General Gomez is 53 years of age and a native of Santa Clara province, where he has always enjoyed extraordinary popularity and influence. He participated in two great revolutions, in the first of which he reached the rank of Major, and in the second that of Major-General. He was one of the commissioners sent to Washington to advise as to a practical method of dissolving the revolutionary army.

Blames United States. In May, 1906, the General was nominated for the Presidency by the National-Liberal convention, but resigned his candidacy four months later, giving as the reason that it was impossible to continue the campaign within the bounds of the law, and laying part of the blame on the United States, owing to the Platt amendment, which, upon Cuba following which ended with the deposition of President Palma and the intervention of the United States.

General Gomez was elected in August, 1906, charged with conspiring against the administration of the late President Palma, but he denied the allegation and was released from custody after a month's imprisonment. In December of the same year, Governor Maxson appointed him secretary of a commission to revise the laws of Cuba.

General Gomez was nominated unanimously for the presidency by the Migueletta convention held last March at Havana. The other faction of the Liberal party, the Zayasists, nominated Alfredo Zayas, but later Senator Zayas resigned and the two factions formed a coalition, choosing General Gomez as the presidential nominee and Senator Zayas for the vice-presidency.

An investigation of the shooting last night at Cienfuegos of Edward Prieto, a Liberal, by Gonzalo Vieta, a Conservative, and at one time Mayor of Cienfuegos, indicates that the affair is without political significance. There is evidence that Prieto insulted Vieta and attacked him with a knife, whereupon Vieta fired in self-defense. One policeman was seriously injured while attempting to separate the two men.

Estimated Majority 25,000.

Estimates give the island to General Gomez by a margin of 25,000 votes. Conservative leaders generally admit the defeat of their party.

Tonight the streets were thronged with cheering Liberales. One party, composed of negroes, while passing the cafe of the Hotel Juguettera, which is a traditional Conservative resort, clashed with a group of Conservatives on the sidewalk. Knives and pistols were drawn and several shots were fired, some of them breaking the windows of the cafe and causing a panic among those seated within.

Lieutenant McReynolds, of the Marine Corps, ran out of the cafe and proposed himself between the combatants. He made a speech in Spanish and succeeded in inducing them to stop fighting. The shooting, however, attracted a great crowd and the situation eventually becoming threatening Major Polta, Supervisor of Police, summoned the reserves and cleared the square.

OWL SOCIETY REORGANIZES

Trustees of National Brotherhood Take Action at Spokane.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—Complete re-organization of the National Brotherhood of Owls was effected last night at the special National convocation called in Spokane by the temporary officers elected three months ago when W. H. Leavitt, Charles B. Wood and H. E. Westmouth, of Seattle, were elected from the principal official positions of the society by the grand trustees, who charged them with conspiring to sell the organization out to the Order of Owls, a rival society.

The temporary officers elected at the time of the disruption were past grand executive, A. A. Herring, of Walla Walla; grand secretary, John A. Cleason, of Spokane, and vice-grand executive, W. J. McLaughlin. All three were elected to their positions at the special convocation last night and the action of the grand trustees in electing the former officers, ratified.

Other officers elected to fill positions until the regular convocation in Seattle next July were H. A. Owens, of Spokane, grand secretary; John A. Daniels, of Spokane, grand treasurer; Harry Jones, of Boise, grand vice; W. H. Thorpe, of Nainalno, B. C., grand master; H. A. Eppley, of Helena, Mont., grand warden; C. J. Donahoe, of New Westminster, B. C., grand sentinel, and E. J. Crandell, of Seattle, grand marshal of Bulo and M. C. Connelly, of Spokane, Wash., grand trustee. Dr. Stewart, of Walla Walla, was made grand nest physician.

Mining Man of Palouse Meets Horrible Death at Spokane.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—Caught in the gear of a coal elevator at the Northern Pacific yard late tonight, J. C. Northrup, a prominent mining man of Palouse, Wash., was crushed to death before the machinery could be stopped.

The first intimation that the employees at the bunkers had that anything was wrong was when an unusual noise was heard in the gearing of the elevator and the speed slackened. Northrup's mangled body was then discovered.

DENVER, Nov. 15.—Several communications were read today at the opening of the Labor Federation Convention, including one from Henry F. Hill, secretary and treasurer of the Newark, N. J., Trades Council, asking for the re-election of President Samuel Gompers.

The reports of the officers were not ready, and the committee on resolutions made a partial report. Resolution No. 2, in regard to Asiatic exclusion, was amended in the committee by the insertion of the word "colle." This amendment was not satisfactory to the committee, several of whom contended that the same resolution had been adopted by four conventions of the Federation and should not come before this convention. Vice-President James Duncan said that the resolution as it stood would not include the Hindus. The resolution was referred back to the committee to amend the resolution, it being suggested that the committee insert the words "races native to Asia."

A number of resolutions were reported favorably by the committee and adopted by the convention. Resolutions on the following subjects were adopted by the convention: Protesting against sending bookbinding work out of this country, as has been done by some public libraries. Indorsing the principles of the National civil service law and favoring the passage of some suitable retirement law.

Supporting remedial legislation in Congress for better hours and pay for postal clerks.

Favoring better sanitary conditions on immigrant ships.

Pledging assistance to the jewelry workers in placing their label on all work in securing an eight-hour day.

Protesting against child labor in banks and orchestras.

Condemning the seceding teamsters and all dual organizations of teamsters.

DEPEW ASSAILS OREGON PRIMARY

"New Idea" in Politics, as He Styles It, Defeated Senator Fulton.

STATE NOW IN BAD LIGHT

Legislature Two-thirds Republican, People Gave Taft Majority, but Democrat Must Be Sent to Senate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Senator Chauncey M. Depew delivered a warning eulogy of organization politics at a dinner to the Republican leaders and workers of the 27th Assembly District tonight. After extolling the work of the party workers and leaders of district organizations, he said:

"We can be proud of the long line of Presidents, Vice-presidents, Governors and Legislators who have been the product of the machine. There never has been a bad Governor of New York and several of them have been great. Now we are told, however, that the organization must go. The new idea, whatever that may be, is to govern in the future.

New Idea Defeated Fulton. "The new idea has captured Oregon. It is the first state where it has had an opportunity to work. Under it there was a primary ballot for United States Senator. Oregon is a Republican state. The Democrats, believing it would help them to defeat Senator Fulton, who is one of the Democratic assistants to the successful Republican candidate led to reprisals which gave the Democratic nominee a majority. The Legislature which is to elect a United States Senator is two-thirds Republican. The state has given an enormous majority for Taft.

"Under the instruction contained in the primary law, this Republican Legislature, though they knew how the result was brought about, and that the result was a must for six years to Washington a Democrat to fight the Administration for which their state so overwhelmingly voted and the policies in which they all believe. If they fail to send this Senator to fight President Taft and his Administration they violate the pledges they made to support the primary law. This is the first illustration we have of the practical workings of the new idea."

say this: That the influence of all the churches in the Philippines was necessary for the uplifting of the people and therefore, that every one would desire the prosperity of all the churches and that as the Roman Catholic Church had the largest following, every one, Protestants or Catholics, would desire its prosperity; that it was in a deplorable condition, due to the change from a situation in which the government paid its expenses to one in which it was bound to look to its parishioners for support, the latter being in the habit of deriving benefit from the church and not contributing to it.

Judge Taft says that the present Governor is a Roman Catholic, but he is one of the most careful men in maintaining an impartial attitude between Catholics and Protestants. In conclusion he says that the purchase of the Friar lands with their 60,000 tenants, was a political necessity and averted a second revolution. Judge Taft adds:

"I am not a Catholic and have not been affiliated with the Catholic Church. All I have attempted to do was to do justice to that church and to the Philippine people, and have treated that church exactly as I would have treated any other church."

DINER CHASES OUT WAITER

MAN MAKES GUNPLAY TO GET TEN-CENT MEAL.

Police Get Information From Sheriff That Saloon Next Door Was to Have Been Robbed.

Enraged because he could not procure a meal for 10 cents in the Home Dairy Restaurant, 26 Russell street, E. R. Barry, aged 24 years, a one-armed man of rather unimpressive appearance, drew a revolver and drove Henry Bendell, the proprietor, out into the street, threatening his life. Barry was arrested by Patrolman Ellis after an exciting chase.

Barry, accompanied by Earl Priester, aged 23 years, who admitted that he had been begging on the street, entered the restaurant together. Barry gave Priester 10 cents and told him to buy a meal. Barry did not want anything, he said. When Bendell replied that he would not serve a meal for 10 cents, Barry drew a revolver and pointed it at the proprietor. Bendell ran, believing he would be shot.

Barry and his companion then escaped. They had taken nothing from the restaurant, but the cry was raised that the restaurant had been held up. Anthony Ambrose, an engine wiper employed in the shops of the O. R. & N. Railroad, saw the men running and told Patrolman Ellis, who gave chase, calling upon them to stop. They continued for two blocks until the policeman drew his revolver and threatened to shoot if they did not surrender.

Both men were arrested and handcuffed. Barry had 15 cents in his pocket, while Priester had but 10 cents. Barry said that he lived at the Ohio Hotel and worked as a scene painter at local theaters. Priester said he had no occupation. He is charged with vagrancy, while his companion is charged with the more serious offense of carrying concealed weapons and of making an assault with a dangerous weapon.

In the arrest of these two men the police think they have two dangerous hold-up men. From information received from Sheriff Stevens they have reason to believe that the two had planned the hold-up of a saloon next door to the restaurant and had it not been for the trouble over the meal they would have carried out this as well as other jobs.

With a start by the Oregon Planning Mills, which has doubled its subscription to the Rose Festival fund for the 1909 display, the management of the mammoth floral demonstration is confident that it will receive similar support by all the kindred interests of the city. The following letter from Carl H. Jackson, president and manager of this concern, shows the spirit with which the undertaking has been grasped by the large industrial concerns of Portland, and it is believed that other institutions of like character will follow this example.

Mr. Ralph W. Hoyt, President Portland Rose Festival, Portland, Oregon.—Dear Sir: Enclosed please find our subscription to the Portland Rose Festival for 1909. We are a great privilege to be able to double the amount this year and while our particular interest is not benefited by a general influx of people, indirectly we are benefited many times over and the city as a whole is benefited. When it is understood that the Rose Festival will be an annual event, even more, throughout California and the Pacific Coast states we are recognized as the Rose City and our friends here and elsewhere have expressed their intention of being in Portland next year.

It seems to us that if the large retail concerns throughout the city, and especially the association which will be able to put on a show which will attract National attention. Every concern, large or small, should contribute liberally, as the money spent by the association is all left in Portland, and goes back into general circulation. We shall be not benefited by our advertising matter, so that we can send it out in our Eastern mail, being assured that the carnival will far surpass anything that we have tried to do in the past. We are, Sir, truly yours, OREGON PLANNING MILLS.
