TWO RIVALS TO M'ARTHUR APPEAR

McCue of Clatsop and Bean of Lane Would Like to Be Speaker of House.

SUPPORT NOT YET STRONG

Each Expects to Win Following of McArthur, Should He Fail. Beach Receptive Candidate for President of Senate.

Entrance of two rivals of McArthur into the race for Speaker in the Oregon Legislature affords their Stateent foes considerable satisfaction. The Statement ranks have three or four bandidates for Speaker on their own bide, but they are not such keen rivals of each other as of the candidates in of each other as of the candidates in the other camp, since the political plan of the Statement forces at present looks rather to the defeat of McArthur for Speaker and the election of Ben Beiling for President, than to the election of a Statement man for Speaker.

McArthur's rivals are J. C. McCue, of Clatsop, and L. E. Bean, of Lane, Neither has yet gained much support, and each evidently hopes to succeed McArthur as the leading candidate, McCue says he has a promise of McArthur's support in the event that McArthur's support in the event that McArthur shall fall. Yesterday McCue was in the city, building political fences.

with this brave declaration, the Classop Legislator remarked that he considered himself as much entitled to the high seat as anybody. McCue wants a Statement Speaker and has entered the race htmself, because no body in the Statement champ has your another received that the statement champ has your another received the statement champed by the provident of the statement delenant has rather a delicate task on its hands. But there are one or two others who will have to be dealt with. made to induce at least 1000 laymen to attend the convention. This number, with the delegation of preachers expected here at that time, may oblige those in charge of arrangements to provide a larger convention hall than the White Temple. There was some talk last night of using the Armony for that purpose. Short addresses. All enderson. Bloomfeld; C. B. Aussard, La Ceuter, F. B. Henderson. Bloomfeld; C. B. Aussard, La Ceuter, F. B. Henderson. Bloomfeld; C. B. Aussard, La Ceuter, F. B. Henderson. Bloomfeld; C. B. Aussard, La Ceuter, F. B. Henderson. Bloomfeld; C. Carson, W. B. Ganor, were delivered by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, Rev. F. C. W. Parker and Rev. John Bentzien on the coming Baptist convention, which means so much for the local churches.

Dr. Brougher declared that in the near flucture be intended to bring before the commercial bodies the necessity of building an auditorium capable of seating 500 or 600 people, for the use of conventions, a structure that was coming to be more and more needed as Portland's commercial importance is being recognized. At last night's meeting the 18 Baptist Churches of the city were represented together with the various missions. The attendance exceeded 1900, larger by 500 than any previous rally held by the denomination. A large part of the session was devoted to a rollical of the various churches, responses from each being given with a hymn or quotation from scripture. Musical numbers were rendered by Miss Gladys Morton, E. Milton Runyan, Jr., and a quartet from the First German Baptist Church.

At last night's meeting the following men were chosen members of the Board of City Mission Union: H. W. Stone, Will S. Hale, W. L. Morgan, O. P. Jamison, F. B. Rutherford, James F. Failling, C. B. Young, Alex. Scott, E. M. Runyan, W. B. Hall, E. Sweet.

Dr. Brougher announced that the Baptist Union Thanksgiving services will be beld Thanksgiving morning at 19:30 o'clock in the White Temple.

Bean's candidacy resembles that of McCus, in that Bean hopes to succeed McArthur in case the latter shall fall to win. Both these men are encouraged by the Statement Legislators, who want McArthur eliminated in order to open the way for Ben Seilling for President and then possibly for a Statement Speaker.

On the Statement side, Orton, of Multnomah, was the first candidate for Speaker. Then followed Campbell, of Clackamas. Neither has railled much following, either in Multnomah or outside. Another Statement candidate is Brady, of Multnomah, who says he wants a Statement Speaker and has entered the race himself, because no-body in the Statement camp has yet appeared strong enough to win, Still another receptive candidate is R. Jones, of Polk.

When it comes to making a choice for president, the statement element has rather a delicate task on its hands. Bon Seiling is preferred in that camp, but there are one or two others who will have to be dealt with. One of them is Senator Salley, of Multnomah, a statement legislator, and a candidate for president, also an aspirant for some Federal office following the Legislature, prefarably Fostmaster of Portland, and then either United States Marshal, Collector of Customs or Collector of Internal revenue.
