

FOREST FUNDS IN WESTERN BANKS

Portland Institution Designated as One of Department Depositories.

TO MAKE ALL COLLECTIONS

Funds for Oregon, Washington, Alaska and Portion of Northern California to Come Through Portland Under New Plan.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The names of six Government depositories which are to handle the receipts of the United States Forest Service, after December 1, when its organization for the administration of the National forests will be removed from Washington to six field districts in the West, have just been announced.

The designation of Western banks to handle the money received from timber sales, permits for stock grazing and for special uses of various resources in the National forests is an innovation which will mean that all the receipts of the Forest Service in the future will be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States at various points of circulation in the part of the country from which it is derived, within the limits of the amounts allowed by law for Government deposits, instead of being forwarded to the Treasurer at Washington.

The banks which have been named and which have all consented to serve the Government are located in the district headquarters of the Forest Service at Portland, Denver, Ogden, Albuquerque, Missoula and San Francisco. They are as follows:

First National Bank, Portland, Or.; headquarters of Sixth District, including Washington, Oregon, a small part of Northern California and Alaska.

Western Montana National Bank, Missoula, Mont.; headquarters of First District, including Northwestern Washington, Northern Idaho, Northern Wyoming and Northwestern South Dakota.

Denver National Bank, Denver, Colo.; headquarters of Second District, including Colorado, Southern Wyoming, South Dakota, Northwestern Minnesota, Nebraska, Western Kansas, Southeastern Utah.

First National Bank, Albuquerque, N. M.; headquarters of Third District, including Arizona, Arkansas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

First National Bank, Ogden, Utah; headquarters of Fourth District, including Utah, Southern Idaho, Northern Wyoming, Eastern Nevada and Northwestern Arizona.

First National Bank, San Francisco, Cal.; headquarters for Fifth District, including California and Southwestern Nevada.

The estimated receipts for the National forests for the present year will be approximately $2,000,000, making the receipts from each of the six districts range from $275,000 to $350,000. The depositories will receive all remittances due the Government for use of the National forests after December 1, and deposit them to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States.

PREFERS PRISON TO FINE

Officers of deposit be taken out in some other name than the treasurer's.

D. G. Ramsey, of the Electrical Workers' Union, was applauded when he declared:

"We had a chance to place our funds beyond the reach of those who would take them, but we let it pass on November 2. The only way to protect our money is to change the laws."

Mr. Gompers warned the delegates that, if a way were found to hide the funds, "the courts would thereafter appoint a receiver, not necessarily to secure in some way the hidden funds, but to get the money being contributed."

Labor Unions Conspiracies.

By request, Mr. Gompers explained the status of the Danbury hat case. The lower courts had held that there was no case under the Sherman anti-trust law, but the United States Supreme Court reversed this decision and remanded the case to the lower court for retrial. Continuing, he said:

"Our standing is menaced by the courts of law. The master of the application of the Sherman anti-trust law to unions has reached final adjustment by the United States Supreme Court. No matter how the Danbury case is decided, that will not alter the status one jot. The United States Supreme Court has said the final word and the law of this country is that labor organizations of this country are now conspiracies and combinations in restraint of trade.

"Under the Sherman anti-trust law honest business cannot be conducted, much less honest, straightforward labor organizations.

Go to Jail if Found Guilty.

"Referring to the case against me in the District of Columbia, I want to say I will never consent that the American Federation of Labor shall ever pay one cent of any fine for me. I don't want to go to jail, but will not tamely submit to the Federation being mulcted for me. I am not pleading poverty, for if I had the means I would not use them in payment of any fine imposed on me for exercising my rights as an American citizen."

Max Hayes, of Cleveland, made a socialist speech, but suggested the formation of a labor party. He criticized the Democratic platform, and in regard to that portion which says, "We yield to none in our respect for the courts," Mr. Hayes declared he had no respect for the courts.

Not Democrat, Trade Unionist.

Mr. Gompers again took the floor to reply to Mr. Hayes. He said the position taken by Mr. Hayes was illogical and declared that the decisions of the Supreme Court had but one object, namely, to "tie the men of labor to their work, to cripple the men of labor in their right to work or their right not to work." That was the proposition, he declared.

"These decisions," he said, "will result in fettering men today, in order to enslave them for all time to come. The rights which the courts took from the workmen of Great Britain caused the formation of the labor party, and, having secured their rights to organize, they have continued and will secure other rights.

Why He Supported Bryan.

"No one has denounced the Democratic party more than I," Mr. Gompers contended. "The Democratic party made our contentions its own, it would not only have been ingratitude but cowardice to desert it. If Bryan had been elected with the help of organized labor back of him, it would have given spirit to human freedom."

John H. Walker, president of the Illinois Mine-workers, who said he was a Socialist, declared for an independent political organization.

The report of the committee on treasurer's report, with its recommendations, was concurred in unanimously.

The executive council made a supplementary report recommending that further investigation be made into the matter of the congestion of Italian emigrants in large cities, and that a conference be held in regard to it with the representative of the Italian government at Washington.

In regard to the dispute between the Paper-Hangers' Union and the Painters' and Decorators' Union, the Council reported that no decision had been reached.

Expulsion of Asiatics.

The resolution on the subject of the exclusion of Asiatic races was adopted by the convention, as reported by the committee on resolutions. This resolution declares that "the terms of the Chinese exclusion act" should be extended permanently from the United States and its insular territory all races native of Asia other than those exempted by the present terms of that act.

A resolution demanding laws similar to those prohibiting the signing of able seamen of any person who has not had at least "three years' experience on deck at sea," was adopted.

Defends Akron Printers.

A resolution introduced by the Typographical Union cited the extreme bitterness of the contest in progress for years in Akron, O., in the contest of the Werner Publishing Company with its employees. It is recalled that a private detective lost his life, and the resolution asks that the executive council be instructed to investigate all the circumstances surrounding this tragedy, and contribute to the defense fund of two union men who have been accused of murder. It also asks the executive council to take steps to reorganize the Akron trade unions.

The committee on resolutions struck out practically all of the resolution excepting in regard to reorganizing the unions.

Max Hayes, of Akron, violently opposed the report of the committee.

Several other delegates spoke on the subject, a majority supporting Mr. Hayes. President James M. Lynch, of the Typographical Union, closed the discussion, arguing for the adoption of the resolution as introduced. The recommendation of the committee on resolutions with its amendments and the Akron situation were voted down, and the resolution adopted as introduced.

Resolutions on Many Points.

The Federation adopted resolutions in favor of woman suffrage, free school-books in public schools, the movement of the strike of women workers and the abolition of child labor. The Massachusetts savings bank and insurance and old-age annuity systems were condemned, as were also compulsory arbitration and the Townsend bill on that subject now pending in Congress.

The executive council granted a charter to the operative plasterers and sealers, delegates in the convention without votes.

LABOR PROBLEM SERIOUS

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW TAKES HAND IN TROUBLE.

London Embarrassed by Grayson's Suspension and Starvation Question Among Laboring Classes.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—George Bernard Shaw, in the course of an article on Victor Grayson's attitude in the House of Commons, says: "One can't but wonder gloomily whether Mr. Grayson's action will be sufficient, or whether the unemployed problem will be ignored until an English city is burnt and half the inhabitable city is ruined and the other half shot and the other half shot and sabered to restore it. It is true that Mr. Grayson, through his action, has succeeded in calling attention to the unemployed in Parliament, just as Mr. Frank Smith has in the London City Council, but will anything serious be done?"

"The time the difficulty arose the part of Mr. Grayson was played by the Queen. With an impetuous contempt for the constitution which scandalized even Miss Christabel Pankhurst, that eminent lady, without wasting time consulting Ministers, swept into the public eye the heads of the Houses of Parliament. No doubt it was the duty of the Prime Minister to move the suspension of the Queen. But he did not, perhaps because he could not count on the support of the Labor party, and the lady, victorious, happy and glorious, forced Mr. Grayson to act. It acted without ideas. In spite of its pretenses of organization by a senseless machinery of fundamentally purposeless committees and the like, it did nothing but offer the mob money, and ever since then John Burns, who knows something about the problem, has been very wisely and properly doing all he can to prevent the mob from getting it."

"That is how the matter stands at present. You have four capable persons of varied position, character and experience, namely, the Queen, Victor Grayson, Frank Smith and John Will Thorne, all driven to the same conclusion, to-wit: That it is hopeless to induce the House of Commons and the country to deal with the starvation question by orderly methods. It is, of course, possible to arrive at this conclusion, and yet to accept the preservation of a vested interest as hopeless. This appears to be the position of the Labor party. Only two Labor members, we are told, at the convention, Mr. Grayson's suspension. No doubt they had excellent reasons for their conduct; so had the Liberals and the Unionists, and the reasons appear really raise the question why we should have Labor members at all if Unionists and Liberals will do just as well."

POPE GREETED BY 70,000

FIFTIETH YEAR IN PRIESTHOOD CELEBRATED.

Members of Royal Families and Thousands of Guests Pay Homage to Pius X.

ROME, Nov. 15.—A pontifical mass celebrated this morning at St. Peter's by the Pope on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of his joining the priesthood was the most impressive ceremony witnessed in Rome since the coronation of the pontiff. There were present not less than 70,000 of the faithful, who had come to Rome from all parts of the world.

The tribune had been erected only for the Pope's sisters, the members of the royal families, the diplomatic corps and the special missions sent by the heads of states. The rest of the people were admitted by ticket. Order was maintained outside St. Peter's by the municipal police and Italian troops, while inside the building the pontifical gendarmes saw to the proper seating of the crowds. Among the members of the royal families in the tribune sat aside for their use were Grand Duke Alexander and Grand Duchess Celia of Russia and Princess Mathilde of Saxony. The special envoys—they were all clad in brilliant uniforms—were Prince Bavenlohe, Bartelestein, representing Bavaria; Prince Schwartzberg, representing Austria-Hungary; Baron Schorlemer, representing Germany, and Duke Bells Conquista, the Spanish Embassy.

The Basilica was radiant inside the building, with thousands of electric lights and candles. The papal procession was most magnificent and brought together a large variety of handsome and rich court costumes. The bishops were clad in purple and the high church dignitaries rose the papal chair, upon which the pontiff, dressed almost entirely in white, was seated. The chair was decorated by the high church dignitaries and as the Pope progressed he imparted his blessing to the kneeling crowds. There were 34 cardinals and 350 bishops in the procession.

The United States was represented by Archbishop J. J. Glennon, of St. Louis; Bishop E. Pallier, of Mobile; the Most Rev. Robert Seton, titular Archbishop of Heliopolis of Newark. Monsignor Kennedy, rector of the American college; Monsignor John Farrelly, the spiritual director of the American college; the Rev. George W. Mundelein, chancellor of the diocese of Brooklyn; and a number of American students and a large contingent of American visitors.

Cardinal Rampolla, as the arch priest of St. Peter's, received the Pope at the entrance to the Basilica. The choir of theistine Chapel, under the direction of Abbe Perosi, rendered the music, which was most beautiful. The Pope celebrated mass at the high altar, standing above the shrine of St. Peter's. At the conclusion of the mass he imparted his solemn benediction to the vast congregation. It was an impressive moment, and every one within the portals of St. Peter's was deeply touched by the solemnity of the occasion.

Canada was represented by Monsignor Bruchesi, Archbishop of Montreal, and other bishops. Aberdeen Has $3000 Blaze. ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—Fire today destroyed the newly-completed bathrooms of Charley Easley and damaged adjoining buildings. The loss is $3000, covered by insurance.

LYNCH GREEK BRIDEGROOM

BRIDE ALSO KILLED BY TURKISH MOB.

Bodies Then Paraded in Streets—Outrage Due to Islamic Law Prohibiting Certain Marriages.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—A regrettable incident has occurred in the Beshiktash quarter. An Ottoman Greek and Turkish woman who contemplated marriage, such unions being against the Islamic law, were taken to the police station in order to avoid disturbance. A Turkish mob, however, overpowered the guards, invaded the station, dragged the prisoners into the street and lynched them. The body of the Greek was paraded on Friday by the Greeks in the principal street.

The authorities have ordered a stringent inquiry into the affair and have taken military precautions to prevent further trouble. Five Kurds who were the principal ringleaders in the lynchings, have been arrested. The officer in charge of the police station is considered greatly to blame and will doubtless be punished.

The Turkish newspapers condemn in strong terms the lynching in the Beshiktash quarter. They demand the punishment of the guilty persons. Several further arrests have been made in connection with the affair. It is reported that three battalions of troops of the Salonika Army Corps and 20 trained police agents are coming to Constantinople to reinforce and reorganize the service of public security.

Vicious, Idle Rich Fayed. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 16.—Yale students, whose fathers are wealthy, have food for thought from the Rev. ALL DISTRESS FROM INDIGESTION OR AN UPSET STOMACH VANISHES

All Misery in the Stomach Will Be Relieved Five Minutes After Taking Some Diapiesin.

Does it ever occur to you how busy that little stomach of yours is? It actually only holds three pints, though in one year you force it to take in 2500 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation to the blood. Do you wonder at the number of cases of indigestion and stomach trouble? You crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids and expect this little four-ounce mill to do its work.

Is there any wonder that your food passes undigested, or lays like a lump of lead in the stomach? That, every thing you eat turns to acid, stomach gas and stomach poison, putrefying the intestines and digestive canals, causing Biliousness, Headaches, Dizziness, Indigestion, Heartburn, Nauseous Breath, Constipation and other more dangerous symptoms?

Call your disease, what you will—Indigestion, Gastritis, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Catarrh of Stomach, etc.—you know the real name. The real disease is fermentation of the food you eat—a sour stomach, which belches gas and eructs undigested food or causes a feeling of nausea and miserableness. All these miseries vanish promptly when you stop this food fermentation. Take 50 cents to your pharmacist for a case of Peppin's Diapiesin. Eat a triangle, and five minutes later your stomach will do what a healthy stomach should—that is, turn every bite you eat into bodily nourishment and without you bodily nourishment and a stomach. One triangle will digest all the food you eat without the aid of the stomach, because it contains just the elements found in a good, strong, healthy stomach.
