NEAR HEAD OF LIST

Portland Ranks Second as American Wheat Port.

NEW YORK ONLY GREATER

Shipments of the Combined Puget Sound Cities Million and Half Bushels Less Than Portland's in First 10 Months of Year.

Portland's position as a wheat shipping port is prominently set forth in the latest bulletin of exports of the Department of Commerce and Labor. In the period from January 1 to November 1, 1908, the total exports of wheat from this port amounted to 11,387,606 bushels. New York is the only port in the United States that shipped more wheat than Portland and the excess in favor of the Eastern city was 4,137,089 bushels in that time. The combined Puget Sound ports came third in the list with total shipments of 9,948,925 bushels, or 1,438,681 bushels less than Portland.

The total value of the wheat exports from Portland in the 10 months was $10,269,335. New York's exports were valued at $16,196,516. Those of Philadelphia, though less in quantity than Portland's, were worth $24,847 more. The value of the Puget Sound shipments was $9,126,834.

The shipments of wheat in October and in the first 10 months of the year from the various customs districts is shown in the following table:

BARLEY SALE AT THE EXCHANGE

Local Grain Markets Hold Steady—Weekly Wheat Shipments.

Three hundred tons of barley were sold at the Merchants' Exchange yesterday. Otherwise business was quiet in the local grain market. The tone of the market was steady and quotations were unchanged.

World's shipments of wheat for the week, compared with the previous week, are reported by the exchange as follows:

Argentine shipments, 600,800 bushels; last week, 504,000 bushels; Australia shipments, 320,000 bushels; last week, 560,000 bushels; India shipments, 208,000 bushels; last week, none.

Cables quoted cargoes dull and inactive at 37s 6d. December options at Liverpool gained ¼d on the day and this delivery at Chicago closed ⅜ cent higher than the opening and ⅝ cent higher than the previous day's closing.

POULTRY RECEIPTS VERY HEAVY.

Chickens Come in Too Freely and Prices Decline.

Receipts of poultry yesterday were unusually heavy, which was to be expected at this time, with Thanksgiving day less than a week off. Chickens were especially numerous and the demand for them was not sufficient to move them promptly. The result was a material reduction in prices. Some hens and Springs were sold at 12 cents, but more went at 11½ cents and even this price was shaded. Ducks and geese were in very good demand, the former at 14@15 cents and the latter at 11 cents. There was not much doing in turkeys, except live ones, which sold fairly well at 18 cents. Best dressed turkeys were quoted at 21 cents.

The egg market was firm and active at 40 cents. The tendency in this line is upward. There were no changes in the butter or cheese markets.

GRAPE SEASON IS NEARLY OVER.

One More Large Express Shipment Due From California.

Grape receipts yesterday amounted to 450 crates. Another good-size shipment is on the way and that will practically wind up the season. Supplies in the California shipping districts are exhausted except for a car or two of Emperors. The local market was rather weak.

The principal activity was in oranges, with a strong demand for well-colored stock. There are plenty of green oranges on the market. Porterville advices were to the effect that the stock there is still too green to ship.

The apple trade was sluggish and pears and other fruits were slow. There is not much doing in cranberries now as the retail trade is supplied.

A car of celery is on the way and will arrive Tuesday or Wednesday. Among the vegetable offerings yesterday were Oregon hothouse cucumbers at $1.50 per dozen.

STEADY BUYING MOVEMENT IN HOPS

Many Lots Being Taken for Foreign and Domestic Account.

Hop buying on a good scale was reported yesterday. No further operations by Carmichael came to light, but a considerable amount of export business was done by other buyers.

Klaber, Wolf & Netter secured the Rider lot of 100 bales at Independence at 8¾ cents. Henry L. Benis bought 475 bales from Feller & Miller, of Aurora, at 7½ cents. The E. C. Horst Company bought at Carlton and in other sections and Harry Bolam bought around Salem at 7¼ to 7½ cents.

McNeff Bros. operated heavily during the day, securing between 400 and 500 bales from growers and dealers at 6 to 7 cents.

London hop market conditions are reported by the Kentish Observer of November 5, as follows:

"A much freer demand for English hops has made a firmer market especially for the finer sorts, which are almost cleared out. Medium qualities are also selling freely at full rates. Continental hops are more sought after, and better sorts maintaining their quotations, but with little trade in the inferior qualities. American and Pacific Coast hops are very little offered, and there is not much trade in them in the Borough."

Bank Clearings.

Clearings of the Northwestern cities yesterday were as follows:

CUT PRICES ON SWEETS

PRODUCE BROKERS START A WAR AT SEATTLE.

Apple Market Is Dull—Ducks Received From Oregon—Flour Trade Is Unsettled.

SEATTLE, Nov. 20.—(Special.)—A sweet potato war is on here among the commission men. The trouble started between two rival brokers who cut prices to their customers. As a result of the price-cutting stock that costs $1.80@1.85 laid down here is selling at $1.50@1.65. Dealers state they will take their loss all the season rather than yield to the original price-cutters.

The Retail Grocers' Association has asked the State Pure Food Commissioners to enforce the law against the misbranding of eggs. The action is designed to prevent the selling of poor Eastern as the strictly fresh article.

The apple market continued dull today, with the top on the best Spitzenbergs $2. The top price on grapes is $1.15. The market is none too well supplied.

Turkeys were rather scarce. Dealers are discouraging shipments until the first of next week. Several large shipments of ducks were received from Oregon today.

The flour market is still very much upset and rumors of price-cutting on the Portland dealers are still in the air.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET.

Prices Current Locally on Cattle, Sheep and Hogs.

Both sheep and steers were quoted strong in the local market yesterday. In the case of steers, prices were raised a quarter on the best.

Sheep were very scarce and it is probable that the trade will soon have to draw on Montana for supplies. Prices have not been advanced yet, but the tendency of the sheep market is upward. Other lines were unchanged.

Receipts for the day were 350 cattle, 600 hogs and 65 calves.

TREND IS UPWARD

Wheat Market Nervous, but Closes Higher.

PRICE RANGE OF CENT

Contradictory Reports From Argentina—Liberal Sales for Export at Duluth—Domestic Crop News.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Nervousness characterized trading in the wheat pit and prices fluctuated over a range of 1 cent. The prevailing tendency was toward higher prices. Liberal receipts caused several setbacks, but each decline was met by urgent buying by shorts, which resulted in a fresh rally. Argentine advices and the continued dry weather in this country were the principal strengthening influences. One of the Argentine reports claimed that not more than 20,000,000 bushels of wheat will be available for export from this year's crop, while another dispatch said that frost had been reported in some localities. The bears derived some satisfaction from still another report, which estimated the exportable surplus of wheat from Argentina at 149,000,000 bushels. Heavy receipts, both in the Northwest and Southwest also tended to inspire some selling throughout the day. Demand for cash wheat in the local market was dull and prices were steady. Duluth reported export sales aggregating 250,000 bushels, mostly of durum and low-grade Manitoba wheat. The market closed strong with prices near the top with December at $1.04⅜ and May at $1.08⅜.

Corn was bullishly influenced by the comparatively small receipts, arrivals being very light considering the excellent weather now prevailing for the movement. The market closed firm, with prices up ⅛@½c to ⅝c. Final quotations on December were at 63⅝c and May at 62¼c.

Oats were firm all day. The market closed strong, with prices up ⅛@¼c compared with previous close. December closed at 49½c and May at 51¼c.

Provisions were active and the market was firm, especially for pork and lard. At the close prices were up 5@7½c to 20@22½c.

STOCKS FALL SHARPLY

ALL SUPPORT APPARENTLY WITHDRAWN FROM MARKET.

Shorts Make Fierce Raid on Prices, but Near the Close Decline Is Checked.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The reactionary force which has been gathering strength in the stock market for several days caused a sharp fall in prices today. The declines gained such headway as to lead to a strong upward reaction in the latter part of the day on the assumption that weak accounts had been cleared away.

There was no change in the favorable nature of the news from all points of the progress of industry and business toward restoration. Yet prices crumbled in helpless fashion and with increasing velocity, after the invariable manner of incursions upon a weak speculative position. The fact that the floating market supply of stocks has been passing from stronger to weaker hands for over two weeks past has been a subject of general observation.

The process of realizing profits was easy at first, with the substantial inrush of new buyers, after the election uncertainties were out of the way. It was helped at a later stage by artificial supporting measures, as has been pointed out, such as bidding up of a few selected individual stocks with unrealized rumors of important developments pending which were to affect these special stocks. The decreasing support of the market was obvious yesterday and led to the suspicion that speculative realizing by the organized market leaders has been pretty well completed. Today the supporting tactics were almost abandoned and the market was left to take care of itself until the fierce onslaught of the shorts at the last.

The decline, once in force, the existence of numerous weakly margined accounts was disclosed, which were forced to sell by the fall in prices. Stop-loss orders were encountered also, placed as a precaution below the market by those who have been distrustful of its stability. The bear party in the speculation, which has been quiescent for weeks, plucked up courage in view of the manifest deterioration in the position of the market. There has been a marked falling off in the volume of outside buying orders for stocks since the advance in prices halted. It is the fact of the advancing tendency which attracts much buying of this class and a fall in prices brings in sellers from scattered sources who are discouraged by the failure of profits to accrue on the holdings.

While there were no unfavorable news developments which could serve as an active factor in precipitating the selling, the fact of the reaction in stocks directed attention to some circumstances which were ignored during the advance. For instance, there were increased apprehensions over the effects of the movement to revise the tariff. Advices of political developments were regarded as indicating more drastic action in this direction than has been supposed likely.

Time money was called soft in tone, and the known movements of money promised a substantial cash gain for the banks on the week. The strong tone at the close was caused by the retreat of the shorts, who feared that they had been led into a trap by the bull element, helping the appearance of weakness in the market.

Bonds were easy. Total sales, par value, $4,444,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

ALL SHOW GAINS

In Every Line of Business Expansion Is the Rule.

TRADE GROWS EACH WEEK

Manufacturing Plants Increase Their Capacity and Extensive Plans for the Future Made. Fewer Idle Cars.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Gains are almost universal, every week surpassing its predecessor in volume of trade while manufacturing plants increase active capacity and confidence is finding expression in extensive plans for the future.

At many points seasonable weather has stimulated demand for Winter goods, and there is a gratifying change for the better in regard to the promptness of collections. Some sections are backward, however, either because the temperatures continue too high or on account of the failure to market crops promptly.

Frequent evidences of depleted stocks in the hands of dealers are noted, especially when shipping departments work overtime in order to make sufficiently prompt deliveries.

Hides are stronger, but the upward tendency of packer stock may be checked by the increasing receipts of cattle.

SMALLER NUMBER OF IDLE CARS.

Trade Expanding in Wholesale and Jobbing Lines.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Enlargement and advancement are still the dominant influences in trade and the volume of orders booked by wholesalers and manufacturers continues large, particularly in the commercial and manufacturing centers of the North, East and West. Still, certain evidences of irregularity are found in the reports that mild weather is retarding sales of Winter goods at retail in the above sections, and Southern advices are that improvement in that section is rather slower than expected and that low cotton prices and the holding of that product by the producers are checking trade and collections.

Idle cars are reported growing fewer in number rapidly. Lumber is quiter and flour in less demand for export. In wholesale and jobbing lines, north, east and west reports are generally that trade is expanding, that Spring purchases are increasing, and that stocks in final distributors' hands are light.

Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending November 19 aggregate 5,599,314 bushels against 5,029,484 last week and 5,103,143 this week last year. For the 21 weeks ending November 19 this year, the exports are 89,383,554 bushels against 85,023,494 in the corresponding period last year.

THE FIRST BOTTLE.

In every household should be a bottle of Lane's Kidney and Backache Medicine. The Kidneys are of greatest importance in protecting and maintaining the health of every human body. But because of the very nature of their work they frequently become clogged and need help to free themselves from impurities. These are some of the kidneys' warnings: Pain in the back, loss of appetite, swelling in the lower limbs, pains in the calves of the leg, swelling and pain in the right side, dizziness and blurred eyesight. A few doses of Lane's Kidney and Backache Medicine always gives relief. It is the very best specific for kidney troubles—safe and sure—purely vegetable—guaranteed under the pure food and drugs law. Made by Chas. E. Lane & Co., Chemists, St. Louis, Mo.
