SET ROSE PLANTING DAY

FEBRUARY 22 WILL BE MADE NOTABLE OCCASION.

Strong Committee Is Put in Charge and Burbank Will Be Asked to Speak.

Concentration of effort on the part of all the manifold interests of the city to observe Washington's birthday in one concrete form as the official annual "Rose Planting Day" will be the slogan of the Rose Planting Association. The nation-wide advertising which Portland received through the press agencies because of its endeavors last February 22 in this line has induced the management of the big floral demonstration to choose Washington's birthday as the official planting day. The first meeting for preliminary organization will be held next Tuesday night, and it should bring together what is considered as one of the strongest civic committees ever aggregated for a public cause in the city of Portland. Its personnel represents as nearly as it was possible to make it every diversified interests which has the good of the city at heart. The first purpose of the Rose Planting Day movement will be to bring the entire populace of Portland together to join hands in one united and harmonious municipal demonstration. The committee on arrangements which has been selected is comprised of those who will bring together in the common cause more lines of activity than any other organization since the Lewis & Clark Exposition of 1895.

President Ralph W. Hoyt yesterday appointed Dr. Emmet Drake as chairman of the Rose Planting Day committee, and the following have been selected by Chairman Drake to assist him in the arrangements: Archbishop Alexander Christie, who blessed the roses last "planting day"; E. B. McFarland, former president of the Rose Society; Mrs. J. W. Minto, president of the Rose Society; W. M. Davis, E. W. Rowe, who started the first Rose Festival ball a-rolling two years ago; E. B. Piper, managing editor of the rose-planting idea; J. F. Carroll, editor of The Evening Telegram; C. A. Bigelow, president of the East Side Business Men's Club; Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt, W. J. Peddicord, president of the Peninsula Rose Association; J. H. Nolita, Herman Wittenberg, member of the Board of Education; Mrs. Herbert Holman, W. Wynn Johnson, Henry Metzger, Mrs. S. B. Vincent, James N. Davis, O. W. Taylor and Paulinus McDonald.

At next Tuesday night's meeting a formal and official invitation will be prepared to bring Luther Burbank, the wizard of the horticultural and floricultural world, to Portland to deliver the principal address on Rose Planting Day.

This is the question which Judge Webster must decide in the contest over the Peterson will, continued in the County Court yesterday. Carl Oscar Peterson says he is the son of the dead man, and Mrs. Christina Egan says she was his wife. Although she testified with other witnesses, Thursday, that he was in Tacoma tending bar in 1896, 1897 and until April 1, 1897, Gus C. Moser, counsel for the legatee, placed several witnesses on the stand yesterday who said that from January 5, 1893, to March 1, 1897, Peterson was employed on the river steamer Salem into Nelson, the executor, and Emil Nelson said he only left Portland when he went on the boat.

HOUSEWIVES, GIVE THANKS

An elegant Thanksgiving dinner without the bother of making dessert! Order your Royal mince pies, and Royal plum pudding now for Thanksgiving. Made of the best and cooked to a turn. Royal Bakery and Conf.

Kercher Appointed Executor. F. M. Kercher has been appointed by Judge Webster, of the County Court, administrator of the estate of Torquate Tasse Morgan, whose will has been filed for probate. She died in Seattle in January, last. The property is worth about $8000. Two sisters, living in Cincinnati, receive $750 each, according to the will, while the rest of the estate is to go to two brothers, living in Seattle.

THANKSGIVING TURKEYS AT SMITH'S—THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS OF BIRDS Last year Smith sold twice as many as all the other dealers in Portland. This year he will do even more. No need of placing your order and letting your marketman send you what he pleases—come to Smith's and take your pick from the choicest, fattest Oregon Turkeys you ever laid eyes on. No Eastern stock at Smith's. WATCH THE BACK PAGE OF THE OREGONIAN EVERY DAY NEXT WEEK FOR SMITH'S TURKEY PRICES

FRANK L. SMITH MEAT CO.

226 Alder St., bet. First and Second. 512 Williams Avenue. 701 Mississippi Avenue.

When you come to Smith's Alder-Street Market, be sure Smith's name and "Fighting the Beef Trust" are over the door. Our opponents have opened markets on both sides of us on Alder street, but you will have to pass them up when you come to Smith's.
